Letters From Kingston Boys At Front
 The British Whig is setting aside a column for the exclusive use of its readers who may have received letters from friends at the front or in England. Care will be taken for censorship reasons, that these extracts do not contain the mention of any unit, casually or the location of the unit. The person sending the letter in should be careful that the name of the writer is given. If requested, letters will be returned promptly to the sender. Most any letter from the front has something in it which is of interest to Canadians, even though it be only the reference to some remark sung out between trenches to "Fritz."

PTE. A. MACNICOLL OF CLOYNE, KILLED.
 His Mother Receives Letter From Him Dated Six Days Previous.
 Private Alexander MacNicoll of Cloyne has been killed in action. This is the information that Alexander MacNicoll, his father, received from the Militia Department: Deeply regret to inform you that 412,135, Pte. Alexander MacNicoll, infantry, officially reported missing; believed killed April 26th.
 His mother is in receipt of the following letter dated April 20th from her son: "Just a few lines to let you know that I am hoping this finds you enjoying the same blessing. I have not received a letter from you this week but I expect to get one next week. The mail generally comes in on Friday night. I just came inside and it looks as though there is something doing up the line. I would not be a bit surprised if we have a stand-to before morning, but that is what we are out here for. It certainly looks good to see the reflection from the guns on the sky at night. We have been trying to get the moving picture shows going at the Y. M. C. A. I have been over three nights and they have never run any pictures."
 Reception to Soldiers.
 After the service in St. George's cathedral on Sunday evening a reception for soldiers was held in the hall with a very large number in attendance. Mrs. R. J. Gardiner and Mrs. Bernard Brown received. Refreshments were served at the close of a musical programme.

Kingston Amateur League.
 A meeting of the Kingston Amateur Baseball league was held on Saturday afternoon. Among other things it was decided that the league would play three teams, Red Sox, C. L. C. and Queen's. It is likely that a diamond will be made on Queen's campus on which the games will be played. The money from the special hockey games last winter will be used to buy uniforms for the Queen's players.
 The two leagues are now organized and it may be expected that there will be some real good baseball here this summer.
 The reason for forming the new league was that the City League could not see its way clear to arrange a schedule with five or six teams in it. However, the Kingston League is trying to work in harmony with the City League and at the end of the season the winning team in each league will play off for the city championship.

MAYOR BOUGHT MEAL FOR MAN IN CELLS.
Michael Kelly Told His Wishes That He Was Very Hungry.
 When Mayor Richardson went down to the city buildings on Monday morning he was informed that there was a man in the cells named Michael Kelly, who wished to see him. Upon going into the cells he found that Michael was very hungry, and was anxious that some person would give him something to eat. According to the story of the man he was gathered in by the police on Saturday night on the charge of drunkenness. On Sunday morning at seven o'clock a friend took pity on him and brought him down a lunch, but up until Monday morning at 11.30 o'clock, he said he had not received anything further to eat.
 His Worship insisted on one of the constables to get him a meal, which was done on order from the Chief of Police. In future any men who are confined to the cells for many hours will be fed.
 On account of Michael not having any money, he went to jail for twenty days.

GERMANS WILL GET THEIR STOMACHS FULL
 In a Short Time, Pte. Frank McDermott Proposes.
 Pte. Edward McDermott in writing under date of April 30th, to his father James McDermott, 24 Division street, says: "Frank and I are both well. There has been some pretty hard fighting lately. Last night on our front we had the heaviest bombardment in over a year. I was just going on guard at 1 a.m., when the gas alarm sounded all over the country. However, this time everybody was prepared and as far as I know the Germans got a lovely reception. It certainly is getting lively. We have to wait at times until they quit shelling the town before we can get our lories loaded. The Germans have been raking all our lines of communication pretty hard the past few days. They will get all they are looking for pretty soon."
 Miss M. Shaw, organist and choir leader of Sydenham street Methodist church, who has been laid up for the past two months, presided at the organ on Sunday. The members of the congregation were delighted to have her back again. During her absence Mrs. W. M. Campbell presided at the organ.
 Mrs. Horace Staley and son Gordon are visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ferguson, Montreal.

In Various Church in Honor of Mother's Day—A Parents' Choir in the First Baptist Church.
 Mother's day was observed in the First Baptist church at the Sunday morning service. A fine bouquet of white carnations, provided by the Young People's Society, graced the stand in the front of the church. Nearly all the members of the fine congregation wore bouquets of flowers in honor of mother.
 The unique feature of the service was a choir composed of parents. Many of them had been members of the choir in their younger years. They led splendidly in the service of praise. They sang an anthem and a quartette, all of which were very much appreciated. S. A. Salisbury, choir director, received high praise for his success with his unique choir.
 The pastor chose as a text, "My son, forget not the law of thy mother. From these words he preached an appropriate sermon. The service was a real success, and greatly enjoyed by all present.
 In the evening the pastor preached from the topic, "If I Were Young Again," to a very much interested congregation.

Brock Street Methodist.
 In Brock Street Methodist Church Rev. Geo. S. Clendinning preached a sermon appropriate to Mother's Day at the evening service. The subject was "The Spiritual Inheritance," and the theme was based on the history of Timothy, and the story of his training by his mother. Timothy's father being a Gentile and his mother a Jewess, the pastor took occasion to observe that cupid was never a theologian, and never would be, whatever ecclesiastics might say. The sad part of mixed marriages was that the whole responsibility for family training rested on the mother, which was unfair.
 It was pointed out that whatever inheritance might come to a man from his father, the moral and spiritual influences which make or unmake him are almost always derived from the mother, who is the natural teacher through the early years.
 A tribute was paid to the great moral power of the mothers of the world, and a strong appeal was made to the young people to prove themselves worthy of their mother's example and training.
 There was special music by the choir, Private Abrahams and Mrs. Douglas Pound giving appropriate solos.

Sydenham Street Methodist.
 In Sydenham street Methodist church on Sunday, Capt. the Rev. G. I. Campbell, pastor of Queen street church, occupied the pulpit. He spoke on the important part which a man's mother plays in building his character. "Your best friend in the world is your mother," said the speaker.
At Cooke's Church.
 Mother's day was observed in Cooke's church on Sunday morning. Rev. E. R. McLean stated that he believed the home was for religion and education. The purpose of the home was for betterment. Some homes are organized in the kitchen. Some men marry to get a boarding while some women marry so as to get a steady boarder.

First Congregational.
 Rev. E. Leroy Rice, pastor of the First Congregational church, spoke on the subject "The Mother's of Men," on Sunday morning. He dealt with the qualities of mother love which has been such a force in lifting men nearer to God. Miss Woolgar and Mrs. Marshal sang a duet.
Calvary Church.
 Special Mother's day services were held in Calvary Congregational church on Sunday. Rev. John Lyall preached. In the morning he spoke on the sin of worshipping Mary, the mother of our Lord. In the evening his sermon was about the way a mother helps to make her son good by her beautiful examples, good sound advice and kindly counsel.

Queen Street Methodist.
 Rev. G. I. Campbell preached a fine sermon in the evening appropriate to Mother's day. He dealt on the influence our mothers had on our characters and the effect of their teachings on our after lives.

THE FORT PRISONERS
 HAVE BEGUN GARDEN WORK INSIDE THE WALLS.
 Flowers and Vegetables Operating—An Incinerator is Being Constructed Near Mount Bridge For Burning Of Refuse.
 The prisoners-of-war at Fort Henry have commenced work with their gardens inside of the walls and already the results are apparent in the number of flowers and vegetables that have sprouted. The garden is in the old location near the gateway, between the upper and lower courts.
 When such splendid results can be obtained with the little earth that can be obtained inside of the walls of the lower court of Fort Henry, the gardens that will be made outside of the fort on the slope facing the Royal Military College can be imagined.
 In Germany, intensive cultivation is down to a fine art and the prisoners are using the Fatherland methods.
 The prisoners are planning to have a good baseball league of two teams organized as soon as the outdoor exercise ground is opened for them.
 An incinerator is now being constructed near the moat bridge for the burning of the refuse from the prison camp.
