Letters From Kingston Boys At Front
 The British Whig is setting aside a column for the exclusive use of its readers who may have received letters from friends at the front or in England. Care will be taken for censorship reasons, that these extracts do not contain the mention of any unit, casually or the location of the unit. The person sending the letter should be careful that the name of the writer is given. If requested, letters will be returned promptly to the sender. Most any letter from the front has something in it which is of interest to Canadians, even though it be only the reference to some remark sung out between trenches to "Fritz."

MAJOR "TOUT" LECKIE WENT TO ASSISTANCE Of Wounded Man, and Both Were Killed by a Shell.
 W. R. Leckie, city treasurer of Hamilton, has received the following letter of condolence from Lieut.-Col. Genet, in connection with the death of his son, Major Norman Leckie, a graduate of Queen's and a noted Rugby player:
 "Dear Mr. Leckie—It is with the very deepest regret that I wish to inform you of the death on Easter Sunday, April 23rd, of your gallant son, Major N. E. Leckie, who has given his life for his country and the great cause in which we are all enlisted. He was loved and respected by all who knew him, and I personally feel his loss very keenly. He was a splendid officer, always prompt and zealous in the execution of his duty, always cheerful and bright, with a kind consideration for the welfare of his men. Indeed his death was due to the fact that he had gone to the assistance of a man who had been wounded by a shell. Another came and killed them both. His end was peaceful and he knew no suffering.
 "I desire to assure you of my own deep sympathy and that of every officer and man in this battalion in your sad bereavement.
 "I am fully convinced that his all too brief life has not been in vain, and we shall all regard him as an example of all that a man should be, honest, upright and sincere."

INDIVIDUAL EYE CARE.
 No two persons' eyes are exactly alike. Glasses that correct one person's vision will probably injure another's.
 Each eye must be examined separately. We prescribe glasses only after the most careful examination with scientific instruments.
 Every lens we supply is ground specially for each case in our own factory.
 You are assured accuracy and prompt service in fitting your eyes with us. Appointments made for any evening.

The Late Edward Fahy.
 The funeral of the late Edward Fahy took place Tuesday morning from his late residence, on Bagot street to St. Mary's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass was sung for the repose of his soul. A large number of friends and acquaintances attended the funeral. The pallbearers were Thomas Grimason, Archibald Hanley, Dr. W. Gibson, Thomas Gallagher, Joseph Doyle and A. Glover.
 Unveiled a Bronze Tablet.
 On Sunday in Chalmers Church, Guelph, a bronze tablet was unveiled to the memory of the late Rev. Thomas Wardrope, a much beloved pastor of Chalmers Church for twenty-five years, from 1869 to 1893, and pastor meritis from 1893 to his death in 1914. He was a brother of Mrs. S. W. Dyde, University avenue.

OBITUARY

Died in Minneapolis
 The friends and acquaintances of Bridget McConnell, second daughter of the late Edward McConnell of Yarker, and wife of Thomas O'Connor, Catarqui, will be surprised to hear of her sudden demise which occurred in Minneapolis, Minn., on Friday May 14th. Three weeks ago the deceased left for Minneapolis to be present at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. McGrath, who was seriously ill. She was apparently in good health until a week before she died, when she contracted pleuro-pneumonia and was removed to St. Mary's hospital, where every thing possible was done to save her life. On Thursday all hopes were held out for her recovery, but her heart was too weak to stand the strain and her sufferings ceased the next morning.
 On Sunday, at 1.30 p.m., her body arrived at the outer junction, accompanied by her husband and two sisters, and was taken to her home at Catarqui, and from there the funeral was held on Tuesday morning at Odessa where solemn requiem was sung by Rev. Father Staley and her remains were placed in the cemetery beside those of her brother.
 The late Mrs. O'Connor was a woman of sterling qualities, and was beloved by all who knew her, as was seen by the number of floral and spiritual offerings.
 She is survived by her husband, four brothers, James and Alexander of Yarker, John of Toronto, and Edward of Harrowsmith, who is now seriously ill; also two sisters, Mrs. P. J. McGrath of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. John McGrath of Tweed, Ont.

The Late Mrs. Hugh McCaugherty.
 The sudden death occurred in Watertown, N.Y., early Monday morning of Hester Emma, wife of Hugh McCaugherty, 14 Frontenac street, Kingston. The late Mrs. McCaugherty left Kingston on May 8th on a visit to her family in Watertown. Late Saturday night she was stricken with an attack of acute indigestion, and partly recovered over Sunday, but Sunday night the heart proved too weak to withstand the attack and she passed quietly away on Monday morning.
 The late Mrs. McCaugherty was born in Sydenham, Ont. on May 24th, 1850, but had been a resident of Kingston nearly all her life. She is survived by her husband and seven children, three sons and four daughters, Herbert W. Burnett, Ogdensburg, N.Y.; Alfred O. Burnett, Edwin L. G. Burnett, Mrs. Hugh Lawson, Mrs. Edgar V. Bloodough, all of Watertown, N.Y.; Mrs. E. M. Mitchell, Kingston, and Mrs. Percy V. Styles, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.
 The remains will be taken to the Cape boat today, and the funeral will take place from her late residence on Wednesday morning.

Police Court Cases.
 Sixteen cabmen were in police court Tuesday morning charged with standing on a street which is not a cabstand. The Magistrate enlarged the case, as the present stands fixed by the City Council are insufficient for the increased number of cabbies.
 W. H. Weese, Bath, pleaded guilty to driving his auto past a standing street car, and was fined $2 and costs.
