

GIN PILLS

Why They're Sold
"In the autumn of 1911, I suffered with a continual pain in the back. As a druggist, I tried various remedies without any apparent results. Having sold GIN PILLS for a number of years, I thought there must be good in them, otherwise the sales would not increase so fast. I gave them a fair trial and the results I find to be good."

SALEM

May 25.—On Saturday evening last, Salem lost one of its soldier sons in the death of Pte. Claude Earl Cross at Trenton. The deceased was the brother of Kenneth, the first two of Salem's young men to volunteer for overseas service and had been in training at Trenton until a month ago, since which time the farm of Harry Orser, in Trenton, was evening he went to Trenton in Mr. Orser's car arriving about seven o'clock. Different friends saw him up to ten o'clock in his usual health, but a little later he was found in a semi-conscious state. Mr. Orser took him home quickly but he was dead before they reached home. Dr. Crow ordered an inquest which was held on Monday. Death was due to heart failure, as he had had poor spells before. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall-bearers, at the house, but at the church soldiers to the number of fifty took full charge. Rev. Mr. Gault preached a very impressive sermon, speaking of the feeling of the great self-sacrifice of the soldiers. Mr. Cross was about twenty-two years old, of a witty, jovial nature, and was popular with a forty years. He sure to get Hood's, large circle of friends as was attested by the large numbers who came to pay their last respects, the funeral being perhaps the largest ever seen in Salem.

STEACY'S

HAVE HAD LOSSES.
Lindsay, May 29.—From letters received from the front it is learned that Serge. Thomas Murtagh and Peppiatt are in excellent health, and have so far escaped injury, although there is reported to be some desperate fighting along the British front. It is announced that only 166 men are left of their battalion, which left Kingston last year. Recently twenty-two men of the battalion were ordered to go over a German parapet. Only six men returned—Serge. Murtagh and a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dark, being two of the six.
