Rev. H. Peck, Los Angeles, Cal., made a short visit to his cousin, W. part of the week.

PEMBROKE HAS A FREAK PORKER.

A Feature of the Little Pig is An Enlarged Head and Three Mouths.

Pembroke, May 29.—Edward Leaney had in his butcher shop this week quite a freak of nature in the form of a little pig with a very much enlarged head and three mouths. The head was somewhat irregular in shape, but the three mouths were well formed, and each was supplied with a tongue and all other requisites. Otherwise the pig, which did not live long, was perfectly normal.

Death of Former Resident.

Gananoque, May 29.—Word was received here of the death of Clarence Parish, a prominent furniture dealer in Columbus, Ohio. The deceased was an old Gananoque boy, who spent his schoolboy days here, his father being the late Samuel Parish, at one time associated with the late W. H. Standall in the cash and door business here, but went west a number of years ago. He built and resided in it with his family until they moved away, what is now St. Andrew's Church manse, corner Stone and Wellington streets.

Health Worry

only puts one further "under the weather." Often the best way out is to make a decided change in the daily diet, for sound health is largely a matter of selecting right food.

Active brains and vigorous bodies require wholesome, easily digestible food containing true nourishment, and it must include certain mineral elements, phosphate of potash, etc. These elements—lacking in many foods, but abundantly stored in the field grains—are supplied in splendid proportion in

Grape-Nuts

(Made in Canada)

This famous food is specially processed for easy digestion, has a delicious nut-like flavor and is always ready to serve direct from the wax sealed, moisture-proof package.

Grape-Nuts with cream or good milk affords a well-balanced ration that makes for health and all round comfort—puts worry to flight.

"There's a Reason"

Grocers everywhere sell Grape-Nuts.
