INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

LOCAL NOTES AND ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Happenings in the City and Vicinity - What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.

Ice cream bricks at Gibson's. One of the old fashioned box cars is lying down at the G. T. R. station.

Kodak films at Gibson's. George Y. Chown is on an extended trip through the western part of Canada.

U. S. Consul Johnson has received a consignment of two hundred socks for the prisoners of war.

H. Cunningham, piano tuner 21 King street. Leave orders at McAulvey's Book Store.

Dr. and Mrs. Judson of Brockville spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Nash, Albert street.

Beef iron and wine at Gibson's. The water is still rising in the harbor and is nearly to the top of some of the wharves.

The stores will be open on June 2nd, the King's birthday. The holiday will be on Monday, June 5th.

Spring tonics at Gibson's. There was quite a heavy rainfall this morning. It has done good to save the lighter forms of vegetation.

Beef iron and wine at Gibson's. Thomas Blomley is having a brick residence erected on the east side of Beverly street. Clingston Bros. are the contractors.

Flower seeds at Gibson's. Business was very slack at the Police Court on Tuesday morning. One drunk walked the carpet and was fined $2 and costs.

Beef iron and wine at Gibson's. Miss Edith Saunders, Chicago arrived in the city on Friday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Saunders, Albert Street.

Victor records for June are now in stock. Call and hear them at the C. W. Lindsay Piano Store, 121 Princess Street.

A new fence has been put near the Deacon Street entrance to the college grounds to prevent trespassers crushing down the vegetation in a short cut to the road.

Spring tonics at Gibson's. Some of the young ladies of the city are introducing high society into the Kingston theatres by bringing their knitting along. This is all the rage in London.

Grape juice at Gibson's. The I.S.I. is missed in the market square in the mornings about 8.30 when the people in the office and stores used to take a few minutes off to see the lads in red fall in, and the section commanders prove their sections.

New talcum powders at Gibson's. The tennis season opened at the University last Saturday when some of the soldiers of the Queen's Battery had a game. The lines and the rest of the nets will be put up shortly.

"My Old Kentucky Home" by Alma Gluck Male chorus. Do not fail to hear this very beautiful new Victor record. Now on sale at the C. W. Lindsay Piano Store, 121 Princess Street.

The Collegiate Institute is being rapidly depopulated by the boys and girls taking up summer work owing to the labor shortage. The principal is letting out all who are scientifically advanced to allow for their promotion.

Foot powders at Gibson's. George Holden, who lived in Kingston for four years, and went to the front with Capt. George Richardson, is now in service with the Y. M. C. A. in Flanders. At Ypres he captured a tendon in his thigh, and is now quite lame. He was invalided from New talcum powders at Gibson's.

Ladies are complaining that it is very hard to get satisfactory charwomen to work. Some of them are making more than enough to keep them from the government allowance and the money they receive from the Patriotic Fund while their husbands are away.

Pianos for rental. C. W. Lindsay, Limited. Now is the time to secure one for your summer home. Many soldiers are still taking advantage of the opportunities offered at the local Y. M. C. A. The reading room has been very beneficial. They have been given the privilege of using the writing materials which were provided free of charge.

Foot powders at Gibson's. Provost, Brock street, has this year an extra fine assortment of Tweeds, Cheviots and Serges for his order clothing department. His ready-made clothing and gents' furnishing department are well assorted with new goods.

The battery boys who went away last evening must have been very popular with the girls, for it seemed as if all the girls in the city were at the station to bid them a fond farewell. Many of the young ladies had boxes filled with good things for the boys to eat.
