A BIG FIRE IN BROCKVILLE

The Fulford Block Was Partly Damaged.

LOSS OVER $100,000

THE CURRY DRUG STORE WAS COMPLETELY DESTROYED

Lindsay Music Store Suffered—Fire Thought to Have Originated in Elevator Shaft Spontaneous Combustion.

(Special to the Whig.) Brockville, June 2.—Fire this morning damaged the block of the Senator Fulford estate and for a time threatened the heart of Brockville's business section, including the post office building and the custom house.

The absence of any wind aided the fire brigade materially, although they had a hard fight to confine the blaze to the block where it started. The entire building was practically gutted and what was not burned suffered from smoke and water.

The store of F. R. Curry, druggist, and the offices of the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company were completely destroyed. Others to suffer were the music store of C. W. Lindsay Company, law offices of A. C. Hardy Hutchinson and Driver and J. A. Page, the Brockville Business College, the G. N. W. Telegraph Company, Grand Trunk Railway city office, Canadian Express Company and the offices of the Brockville Loan and Savings Company.

The loss is placed at upwards of $100,000, and is well covered by insurance.

The fire is thought to have originated in an elevator shaft at the rear of the drug-store from spontaneous combustion.

CIVIC FINANCE COMMITTEE

Waited Upon by Deputation From Board of Education

The members of the Civic Finance Committee, at their meeting on Thursday evening, were waited upon by a deputation from the Property Committee of the Board of Education in regard to the Board's request for the $5,000 for increased sanitary and blackboard accommodation.

School Inspector J. Russell Stuart set forth the needs of the Board. Increased sanitary accommodation is felt in all the schools, but it is most felt in Central and Victoria schools where the present installation is not more than half a satisfactory minimum. Owing to large attendance conditions are the worst in Victoria School. In the 21 class rooms which would be affected by the proposed improvements, there are 1,100 children in attendance.

MENACE OF THE HIGHWAY.

The Whig realizes what the situation is when it says that unless the city immediately takes steps to keep the dust on the Barriefield Hill down, by frequent watering, there will be various sorrowful accidents.

Said a citizen who had an exciting experience last evening: "Kingston, or Kingston's council, cannot afford to delay one day in putting on a watering cart and allaying the dust. I came through an ordeal the like of which I never had before. Traffic was at its height. Autos and rigs of every kind were tearing along, and in the cloud of dust one driver could not see another. How I managed to escape disaster I do not know. My driver had to keep moving, in order to avoid collision from those behind, while I was in constant fear of colliding with some one before. I surely will not voluntarily go through another thrill of the same kind."

The Whig's staff representative who is in daily attendance at the camp puts it bluntly and positively thus: "The dangers of the camp road are very great. Something has to be done to keep down the blinding dust or regulate the traffic on Barriefield Hill, or some of these days there will be a tragedy. The expense may be considerable, but life is worth a good deal, and it must be protected at any cost."

The duty of the Mayor and City Council is plain. It is to call a meeting at once—at once, mark you, not to-morrow or next week, for action cannot be deferred—and deal with the emergency. The tide of travel between the city and camp ground is very great, and it must be conducted with all the safeguards that a representative body can suggest and enforce. Accidents, fearful, blood-curdling, and harrowing, are bound to occur if things are allowed to continue the way they are at present.

News of Troops in the City

(See also page 9.)

Col. T.D.R. Hemming, camp commandant, inspected the nine battalions in camp at Barriefield on the main parade grounds in front of the Administration Building on Friday morning.

Never in the history of Barriefield camp or the city of Kingston has such an immense body of soldiers been seen together and the sight was most impressive. The battalions lined up by companies facing the Gananoque Road. Every man standing at attention on a ceremonial parade that many had never seen before, stretched from the Administration building to the field hospital.

The Commandant was accompanied by Col. G. Hunter Ogilvie, A.A.O. Lieut.-Col. S. A. Thompson, G.S.O., Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, G.S.O., Lieut.-Col. H. B. Wilson, D.A.A., and Q.M.S. and Capt. Kidd, Orderly on the inspection.

After the inspection, a review of all the troops was held.

Col. G. Hunter Ogilvie who was in command of the troops had the battalions beginning with the 93rd march past the reviewing stand on the main road. It took from 10.07 a. m. until 10.42 a. m. for the long line of khaki to pass Col. Hemming for the salute. At the close of the inspection Col. Hemming expressed himself as more than pleased with the wonderfully good appearance that the men made and the way that they carried out their orders.

Capt. G. I. Campbell, who is organizing and managing the recruiting campaign in the city for the 146th Battalion, has arranged, through the kindness of Lieut.-Col. C. A. Low, to have a band concert in MacDonald Park. This will be the first one of the season and will be held this (Friday) evening from 8 a. m. to 10 o'clock.

A meeting of representatives of every battalion at Barriefield camp was held on Wednesday night in the 156th Battalion lines to arrange for an athletic association for Barriefield. Capt. "Nick" Bayly, paymaster 156th Battalion, was elected secretary-treasurer and the other officers will be announced immediately. It was decided that a most extensive scheme for athletics would be carried out.

Lieuts. W. E. Floody, R. F. Given, D. L. Dudley and H. M. Jakeman have been provisionally appointed to the 136th Battalion.

All officers of the 139th Battalion will attend a lecture on camp sanitation by the medical officer on Thursday evening.

B. M. Davey has enlisted in the 148th Battalion.

Men are reporting at camp on completion of their farm furlough.

All troops must travel on the right side of the road so as not to interfere with traffic.

It is noticed that soldiers in uniform are wearing a decoration known as the Veteran's Decoration. This is not in accordance with the King's Regulations, and the practice is ordered to be discontinued.

All officers must attend the early morning parade between 6 and 6.30.

A regular post office has been established in a building near the offices of the A. D. of S. and T., of this camp. Money orders, postal notes, stamps, registration, etc., can be obtained.

Letter boxes have been installed at the camp headquarters and at different places in camp. Same are collected by members of the Canadian Postal Corps at 8 a. m. and 3 p. m. daily and at 10 a. m. on Sunday.

All signalling units paraded at the signalling parade ground, immediately east of the wireless marquee on Friday at 2 p. m.

Officers are not to absent themselves from camp on leave without authority of the Camp Commandant. Officers leaving camp during the day or night for the purpose of going to town must enter their names in the officers' leave book to be kept by each battalion, where it can be inspected at any time.

Maor Davidson, of the 93rd Battalion, will perform the duties as senior camp chaplain from this date.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At The Grand.

One of the best programmes ever seen in the city was shown at the Grand Opera House last night before one of the largest audiences of the season. Charlie Chaplin in his newest picture "The Floorwalker" was one of the main attractions and kept the audience in roars of laughter throughout the two reels of this side-splitting farce. His troubles on the "moving stairs" and his experiences in the different departments of the store were the funniest antics seen here for some time. Theodore Roberts, in "Pud's Head Wilson" was the Paramount feature picture and is the first of a series of picturizations of novels of the noted humorist Mark Twain. A two reel Universal photoplay "Madam Cubist," a comedy picture "The Brightest Spaniard" and the Paramount travel picture were also shown.

The vaudeville consisted of Ben Wilton in a comedy singing and dancing specialty that won much applause. His act throughout is very pleasing. The same programme will be repeated to-night and also on Saturday afternoon and evening.

At The Strand.

The presentation of "The Three Musketeers" Alex Dumas' great work, at the Strand last evening was greeted with a good house. The comedy showed was a three part Keystone "Crooked to the End" featuring Fred Mace. It is one of the best of funniest comedies seen here in sometime. Two reel Vitograph "In the Latin Quarter" and other good subjects were also shown. This bill will be repeated again to-night and on Saturday. For the holiday on Monday the management are offering one of the latest and biggest hits of the New York season, Douglas Fairbanks and Loretta Blake will be seen in the five act comedy drama, "His Pictures in the Papers," son of a millionaire. Fairbanks is thrown out on the world by his exacting father with just $100. If he can get his picture in all the New York papers, Fairbanks gets a half interest in the firm and the girl as well. The situations arising from Fairbank's endeavor to comply with his dad's wishes are extremely funny and have been highly praised by all the New York press writers.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Lockett left today on a month's visit to Evanston and Chicago, Ill., and they will stop at intervening places.
