CONSERVE UNION SPIRIT, WITHOUT FORCING CRISIS
Prof. W. G. Jordan's Opinion Is Against Irrevocable Action at Present.
 Prof. W. G. Jordan, of Queen's Theological College, hitherto a supporter of Chuch Union, has issued a pamphlet in which he expresses his belief that a mistake was made in continuing the controversy during the war, and that the result of the recent vote of the Presbyterian people does not warrant the majority in demanding immediate and irrevocable action. The statement of some Unionist leaders, that they are ready to face a split, is liable, he says, to cause alarm and anxiety but the General Assembly he thinks, will probably seek to conserve the spirit of union without forcing a crisis in the present condition of our national affairs.

Sunrise Court.
 Justice of the Peace George Hunter held a "sunrise session" of his court on Monday morning, owing to the holiday, Mr. Hunter wished to get business over in quick order. There was but one case, Elizabeth Keenan was up for drunkenness. It was stated in evidence that she made things very lively in Portsmouth on Saturday, in fact so lively that the village constable had to take her in charge. The penalty was $10 and costs.

Veterans Meet.
 The Kingston Veterans' Association held a meeting on Monday evening to discuss several matters of interest to the veterans in the city. The question of a grant of $100 to partially disabled veterans, promised by the Premier in the House of Commons some time ago, and which is not being paid, will be taken up through the proper authorities. It is planned to have an entertainment on Saturday evening next for the veterans.

TWO MORE SCHOONERS

HAVE BEEN SOLD FOR TRADE ON THE ATLANTIC COAST

Charley Marshall and Keewatin, Well Known Local Vessels, Have Been Secured—Movements of Vessels Reported.

Two more local coal schooners have been sold for trade on the Atlantic coast. They are the Keewatin and the Charley Marshall. Both vessels have been trading in and out of Kingston for some years, and are well known in local marine circles. The vessels will leave for the coast just as soon as they undergo some repairs.

This is the third local schooner to be purchased recently for trade on the coast, the schooner Ford River having been purchased just a few days ago. There is a great demand for vessels for trade on the coast these days.

The schooner Keewatin was built over thirty years ago, and the steamer Charley Marshall is about twenty-eight years old.

The schooner Keewatin is owned and sailed by the Capt. J. Dougherty and the schooner Marshall by Capt. Rooney, and Mr. Plunkett, of Cobourg.

The schooner Julia B. Merrill cleared for Oswego.

The schooner Abbie L. Andrews met with a mishap while coming over from Oswego yesterday with a cargo of coal for Bath.

The vessel had the misfortune to lose her rudder and Capt. Oliver was forced to sail into the Bay of Quinte with canvas only.

The steamer Jex arrived from Charlotte with a cargo of coal, and is discharging at the Kingston Shipbuilding Company's dock.

M. T. Co's. Bulletin.—Tug Emerson arrived with the barges Lapwing and Concor, with coal for Montreal; tug Barlett arrived with the barges Ungava and Selkirk, with grain from Port Colborne, and cleared with two grain barges for Montreal; tug Emerson cleared with two coal barges for Montreal.

The steamer City of Ottawa passed down Monday night from Hamilton on the way to Montreal.

The steamer City of Hamilton passed up to Toronto Monday.

The steambarge T. J. Wolfe returned from Oswego to Smith's Falls yesterday.

The tug Saskatoon passed up with two barges Monday night.

The steamer Toronto has started her trips and this morning arrived from Toronto. She passed down this morning to Prescott, and will return this evening on her way back to Toronto.

The schooner J. B. Kitchen is unloading coal for Swift's.

The steambarge Jeska is undergoing repairs in the Kingston Shipbuilding Company's drydock.

Kingston Officer With the 21st Gave His Family a Surprise.

Lieut. Herbert Swaine, who went overseas as a company sergeant-major in the 21st Kingston Battalion, suddenly walked in at his home on Brock street on Saturday afternoon to announce that he had arrived direct from England and would be in Canada until July. On July 12th he is under orders to report back in London. It was a great surprise to the family to see him arrive "from nowhere." While at the front with No. 1 Company, 21st Battalion, he was wounded on April 10th by a shrapnel wound in the hip. Shell shock also brought on a temporary deafness and other disability which justified the medical officers in granting him his two months' leave. He is now in the best of health and will spend the next few weeks recuperating from the effects of the experience.

The summer residence of Howard Putnam, on the banks of the Rideau river, near Merrickville, was badly damaged by fire. The loss is about two thousand dollars, and the building was insured.

LIGHTNING DESTROYED FARM BUILDINGS.
Heavy Loss Was Suffered by Edwin Lawson, of Kepler.

Lightning on Friday night last destroyed a fine barn, two sheds, a hen house and a pig pen, the property of Edwin Lawson, Kepler. A team of valuable horses, some poultry, a quantity of grain and a number of farm implements are included in the loss, which is placed at $2,000, with a small insurance. The fire, which followed the lightning bolt, was discovered about ten o'clock by a member of the family. This person thought the reflection was caused by a passing auto, but on making an inspection, found that the barn was on fire. The other members of the household, who had retired, were aroused, and Mr. Lawson rushed out in his night clothes, but succeeded in saving only a few farm implements.
