SNAPPY CLOTHES FOR YOUNG MEN!

Our illustration shows the two-button English Sack Suit. It is a Suit that young men admire.

The coat is a medium short length, and well fitted to the form, the sleeves fit the arms closely, when buttoned with two buttons. The lapel rolls and shows the high cut vest, giving it a decidedly English effect.

The Trousers have a narrow cuff and are made in the straight English style effect.

VERY SUDDEN DEATH

OF C. S. PROUSE, A YOUNG KINGSTON DRUGGIST.

Stricken With Apoplexy At His Home on Monday Afternoon, and Expired in a Short Time.

Citizens will generally regret to hear that one of the most successful of the younger business men of Kingston, has passed away, in the person of Cecil Stanley Prouse. The late Mr. Prouse had not been ill at all, and death came very suddenly. He was engaged in his drug store on Princess street until about three o'clock, when he went to his home on Earl street, where he was stricken with apoplexy, and soon died.

The late Mr. Prouse was born in the town of Oakwood thirty-five years ago. He went into the drug business, and after serving a two-year apprenticeship with the late Henry Wade in this city, he went to Cardinal, where he started in business for himself. He conducted this business for three years, and then moved to Kingston, where for the last five years he conducted a very successful business at the corner of Princess and Clergy streets.

He was a Methodist in religion, attending Queen Street Church. There are left to mourn his loss his wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Prouse, Oakwood, and two brothers, Elton, of Winnipeg, and Percy, of Oakwood.

LEUT. UGLOW MISSING.

Lieut. Harry Uglow, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Uglow, Barrie street, is among the Canadians reported missing in the big battle near Ypres during the past few days. Lieut. Uglow was at Barriefield camp with the 8th C. M. R. last summer, but was transferred to another mounted Z unit before leaving England for the front.

Lieut. Uglow had been in the trenches since the first of February. He was given the responsible position of mortar trench officer. His companion, Lieut. Peaker, of Ottawa, is also missing. Owing to the fact that so many prisoners were taken by the Germans, it is quite possible that Lieut. Uglow is among these.

OBITUARY

Late Mrs. C. H. Reid.

On Monday the death occurred of Mrs. Charles H. Reid, 71 Nelson street, at the age of fifty years. The late Mrs. Reid was born in Winchester, and came to live in Kingston some time ago. She was an Anglican in religion, being a faithful member of St. Luke's Church. She is survived by her husband, one sister, Margaret Kirkland, in California, and one brother, Richard Chester, in Winchester.

Late Mrs. Stanley Carter.

After a few days' illness, Mrs. Stanley Carter, of Belleville, passed away last Wednesday. The deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Irene Baker, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Baker, Kingston Junction, and was in her twenty-fifth year. For the past seven years she had resided in Belleville. Mrs. Carter was a member of Christ's Church, and was much esteemed by all who knew her. Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn her loss two young sons, Howard and Fred, also her father and mother, five sisters and two brothers.

FROM "PEN" TO FORT HENRY.

Max Brown Changed His Abode on Morning Morning.

Max Brown, a German, completed his term at the penitentiary on Monday, but he did not gain his freedom. As he was given his release he was taken in charge by Constable Samuel Arniel, who escorted him to Fort Henry, where he will be a prisoner until the end of the war. The accused was not at all surprised at being taken in charge again, as he had heard about the war, and thought that he would not have his liberty very long. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for forgery.

County Patriotic Grant.

The county patriotic grant for June amounts to $1,526.50. The number of families participating is 128. This is double what it was last month, due to the fact that the soldiers while quartered at county points received subsistence allowance. Since they mobilized at Barriefield this allowance has been discontinued, and their families are sharing in the county patriotic grant.

In Aid of Red Cross.

The Friendly Circle of Sydenham Street Bible School will hold a tea and sale of home-made cookery at Mrs. Wheeler's home, 229 University avenue, Thursday, June 8th, three to six o'clock, in aid of the Red Cross Fund of the school. Admission 10c.

Will Give Lecture.

On Friday evening, in the Christian Science Church, Johnson street, George Shaw Cook, C.S.B., a member of the Board of Lecturership of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, Mass., will speak on "God is Good."

Lieut. Harling Dead.

In the casualty lists to-day appears the name of Lieut. T. L. Harling, Sherbrooke, Que., as dead from wounds received in battle. This is very likely the Lieutenant who was with the 8th C. M. R. in camp last summer, and was very well known around the city.

You and I often mistake dress for character.

News of Troops in the City

(See also page 9.)

Major Myatt, 4th Pioneer Battalion, arrived in the city on Saturday and went immediately to Barriefield camp. Here he reported to each battalion commander that he was authorized to pick 20 men for the battalion that he is forming. They were some strenuous protests sent up by the commanding officers when they found that twenty men were to be taken from them. Every one protested and some even threatened with their resignations if a recurrence of the order happened.

The objection of the battalion commanders is taken because much money and personal efforts have had to be put forward to get these men. Any one who has taken even the slightest interest in what Lieut.-Col. C. A. Low and his staff have been doing will admit that they deserve the greatest credit for fighting against such odds for their battalion.

It is hardly fair to this local battalion or any at Barriefield camp that such a condition should be made. The commanding officers feel that if some person wants a battalion of woodcutters he should be made to go to the northern country and recruit them instead of comfortably drafting them out of the already formed battalions.

Lieut.-Col. C. A. Low has erected a large marquee, 50 by 125 feet, for the use of the men at meal times and as a recreation place. The tent is the largest in the camp, being larger than even those used by the Y. M. C. A. Col. Low said that this is merely one of many improvements that he is planning for his men as they are to ever receive the most consideration that it is possible to give them. Entertainments will be held in the big tent every evening and it is expected that local talent will be received.

The sports held at Barriefield camp on Saturday afternoon are the preliminary of what is expected to be a big part of the soldiers' camp life.

Major C. J. Williams, chief recruiting officer for Military District No. 3, has been promoted to the rank of Lieut.-Col. and made chief recruiting officer for Dominion of Canada. Before being appointed a chaplain in the C. E. F., Col. Williams had a charge near Lindsay. He was eighteen years in the British navy.

Lieut. H. Swaine, 21st Battalion, who was wounded at St. Eloi, reported to Col. T. D. R. Hemming, Barriefield camp on Tuesday morning.

The second church service on Barriefield was conducted on Sunday morning. The protestants divided into the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Brigades, were addressed by Major Davidson, Capt. Elliott and Capt. Campbell. Father Hanley addressed the Roman Catholics.

Corp. Nicholson, 136th Battalion, who was injured in an accident at the bridge last week, is progressing favorably.

The 109th Battalion band has been secured through the kindness of Lieut.-Col. J. H. Fee for the concert in Macdonald Park on Tuesday evening. Lieut.-Col. C. G. Williams, chief recruiting officer for Canada, will address those present. Capt. G. I. Campbell, chaplain 146th Battalion, will also speak. This concert should have been held in Friday night, but had to be postponed on account of the weather.

MAJ. HAMILTON GAULT HAS DIED OF WOUNDS.

Which He Sustained on Saturday—Wounded For the Third Time.

(Special to the Whig.) Montreal, June 6.—Major Hamilton Gault, Montreal millionaire, who raised the Princess Patricia's light infantry, and served with it since the war began, has died of wounds sustained in the fighting last Saturday. His name was given in yesterday's list as being wounded for the third time.

DOESN'T LIKE LUXURY.

Little Child is Longing for Her Home of Squalor.

Transplanted from a home in the north country to a beautiful home in Fort William was what seemed to be the happy fate of a two and a half year old little girl. But the tot, who has been in the lap of luxury for only three weeks is grieving for the old surroundings, and the foster parent, a bachelor by the way, has wired W. H. Wyllie, agent of the Children's Aid Society, to come and take her away, telephoning $100 to defray his expenses. Mr. Wyllie leaves for the west to-night and will do his best to prevail on the child to remain where she is. Falling in this, he will bring her east.

RUSSIANS BAGGING

The Austrians and the Turks by Thousands.

(Special to the Whig.) Petrograd, June 6.—The Russians continuing on their offensive against Austria, it is announced to-day, have captured nearly 500 officers, 25,000 men, 17 guns and 15 machine guns.

Lieut. Macnee Returning.

W. H. Macnee has received a cable from his son, Lieut. W. Kent Macnee, stating that he sailed for home on Saturday. Lieut. Macnee will act as grenade instructor at Barriefield camp.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Davis, Kingston, were registered at the Highland Inn Hotel, Algonquin Park, May 26th to June 2nd.

THEATRICAL NEWS

Tonight At The Grand.

Capacity audiences were at the Grand Opera House on Monday when one of the best bills of vaudeville and photoplays ever seen in the city were presented. May Pickford, in an unusual characterization "Poor Little Peppina" was the feature attraction and proved that she is still the most popular screen artist to Kingston fans. As Peppina, the boundless scope of her art is illustrated in her delineation of the various roles of the child of wealthy Americans kidnapped by Italians and made to work in a vineyard, a newsie, bootblack, messenger boy and finally restored to her parents. A two-reel Universal photoplay "His Brother's Pal" a comedy picture "The Deacon's Wat-erloo" and the Paramount Topical Budget were also shown. The vaudeville is excellent. Will Adams a musical ventriloquist has a very unique as well as a pleasing act, his work on the banjo was much appreciated and also his work with the bells is very entertaining. Miss Hammond and Miss Moody in a character singing

The first part masterpiece for these two days will be "Mortman" a Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature de Luxe with Robert Edson in the title role. Reserved seats now on sale.

At The Strand.

Capacity business was the order of things at the Strand Theatre last evening and all present thoroughly enjoyed the bill presented which is one of the most amusing and entertaining shown in this city for some time. The feature photoplay "His Picture in the Paper" featuring that big Broadway favorite Douglas Fairbanks is a sure firegetter and certainly merits all the praise given it by the New York papers. A 2 act Keystone "Better Late Than Never" starring William Collier and Mae Busch, is also an excellent offering, while a three part Essanay drama "The White Alley" and other good subjects completed a high class evening's entertainment and one that should draw capacity houses again to-night and at the Wednesday show.
