

The Two Button Sack

SNAPPY CLOTHES FOR YOUNG MEN!

Our illustration shows the two-button English Sack Suit. It is a Suit that young men admire.

The coat is a medium short length, and well fitted to the form, the sleeves fit the arms closely, when buttoned with two buttons. The lapel rolls and shows the high cut vest, giving it a decidedly English effect.

The Trousers have a narrow cuff and are made in the straight English style effect.

Fabrics in many new colorings of greys, browns, blues and olives. Broken checks, pin stripes, etc., etc.

13TH ANNUAL MEETING

OF THE ANGLICAN WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

In St. George's Hall—Opening Sermon by Bishop Bidwell—Business of Wednesday Morning's Session.

The thirteenth annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England, diocese of Ontario, is being held in this city this week. The convention opened Tuesday night in St. George's Cathedral, with choral evensong. The sermon was delivered by Bishop Bidwell, who preached an inspiring sermon on faith.

Those who assisted in the service were Rural Dean Crisp, Canon Fitzgerald, Archdeacon Dobbs, and Rev. Cecil Whalley.

Wednesday Morning Session.

The session opened Wednesday morning with the celebration of the Holy Communion in St. George's Cathedral, followed by presentation of the thankoffering.

The delegates then reported to St. George's Hall, where Mrs. Bidwell welcomed them in a gracious address, to which Mrs. Spencer, of Camden East, made a fitting reply.

Letters of greeting were read from Mrs. Lennox Mills, Dean Starr, the general corresponding secretary, and from the dioceses of Algona, Calgary, Niagara, Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, Rupert's Land and Fredericton.

The report of the recording secretary, Mrs. Havelock Price, showed that the membership of the auxiliary was 2,399, or 83 less than last year.

In her report Miss Annie Daley, the corresponding secretary, extended the sympathy of the Board to Archbishop Worrell, of Nova Scotia, on the death of his wife, for several years a member of the auxiliary of the Ontario diocese, and to Mrs. Carey on the death of her husband, Archdeacon Carey.

Mrs. Bidwell addressed the meeting briefly on the need of prayer.

The session concluded with an address by Bishop Bidwell, who referred to the great field there was for missionary endeavor both at home and abroad.

News of Troops in the City

(See also page 9.)

Lieut. Wallace, 155th Battalion, is in Belleville attending the funeral of his aunt who passed away on Sunday.

The Field Post office at Barriefield camp is a busy place. It is estimated that 4,000 pieces of mail matter come in and are sent out every twenty-four hours. On Sunday the letter writing is particularly heavy, even more than through the rest of the week and large cart loads of mail were brought to the city on Monday.

Major F. S. Ferguson, 146th Battalion is supervising the training of the Battalion.

Lieut.-Col. George Gillespie, who was seconded from the Army Service Corps for duties as organizer and inspector of cadet corps for Military District No. 3, is spoken of as the senior major for the 240th Lanark and Renfrew Counties Battalion, which was recently authorized for Major E. J. Watt, 130th Battalion. Col. Gillespie has been in the service for several years, and has certainly made a good showing with the cadet corps here, and would make an admirable officer for a battalion yet to be raised.

At a meeting of the Barriefield Camp Athletic Association, at which all of the battalions were represented, a schedule of sports for next Saturday was drawn up. The soccer and football will be on the 93rd, 139th, 146th and 156th grounds; lacrosse on the 154th grounds; baseball on the headquarters, 139th and 146th diamonds. On Dominion Day the nearest field day ever arranged is being planned.

The honorary presidents of the association were elected as follows: Sir Sam Hughes, Col. T. D. R. Hemming, Col. G. H. Ogilvie, Lieut.-Col. S. A. Thompson and the commanding officers of each of the battalions.

Orderly room clerks, mess orderlies, cooks and one orderly per battalion for commanding officers are the only exemptions from parade at Barriefield.

Retreat is sounded this week at 1.55 p. m.

Pte. Adam Graham, 139th, has been promoted to the rank of armourer sergeant.

All canteens, including the Y. M. C. A. must remain closed during drill hours.

The charges for each passenger from the camp to the city or the city to the camp up to midnight are now 25 cents. After that hour double the amount. Fares from camp to city or vice versa for any one person wishing to engage the whole car—Fords, Maxwells, Chevrolets—50 cents; larger cars, $1.

Despite the very inclement weather which prevailed, a most successful concert was given by the officers and men of the 146th Battalion on Monday evening, in the large tent, which has been erected for the comfort of the men on such occasions. Piper McDonald of the 754th Battalion very courteously took part in the evening's entertainment, and soon had through his skiffs, the boys in good humour. Sergt. Leonard sang himself into favor with "When Irish Eyes are Smiling." Mr. Shaw, of the Headquarters Staff, again made a decided hit in his own inimitable style. Lieut. Bush gave some very entertaining recitations. Private Armstrong, after rendering a patriotic song, was recalled for that old favorite "The Cal Caine Back" much to the meriment of the large audience. The ever-popular Sergeant "Billy" McFudge had a hearty reception.

Lieut. H. W. Bromwich narrated some anecdotes, having relation to his stay with the Indians in the far West.

The applause which greeted Lieut.-Col. C. A. Low, when called upon to say a few remarks by Capt. C. J. Kane, showed that he is beloved by his men and one of the most popular commanding officers in Barriefield camp. Another concert is under way for Wednesday evening, when given better favourable conditions, a more elaborate programme will be submitted.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At The Grand.

A very attractive programme of vaudeville and photoplays has been arranged for presentation at the Grand Opera House on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. John Barrymore the famous comedian of the famous Players Film Company will be seen in a comedy of romance and adventure "Nearly a King." This picture gives Mr. Barrymore a wider field for the display of his unique comedy. A two-reel Universal photoplay, a comedy picture and the Paramount travel series will also be shown. The vaudeville arranged for these three days is something out of the ordinary. It includes Vy Lynn, in a comedy musical act in which some excellent playing is performed on the violin, and Nash and Evans in a novelty skating act.

Griffin's.

"Mortmain" a five part Vitagraph masterpiece featuring Robert Edison, will be the attraction at the Griffin Theatre on Wednesday, and Thursday. The story is unusual, startling, super powerful, emotional, weird and at times gruesome, yet with all that logical probable and happily wending it works up to a tremendous climax that makes the spectator gasp, and then in a second's time compels a broad smile. Also the first instalment of the popular series story "The Strange Case of Mary Page."

At the Strand.

A delighted audience again greeted Douglas Fairbanks in "His Picture in the Papers" at the Strand last evening. The story is a comedy drama that is brimful of action all the way through, and keeps the audience guessing as to what the hero will do next in an endeavor to get his picture in the papers. The bill for the last three days of the week is an Ince-Triangle drama, "Honor's Altar," the theme of which is that power and luxury do not always spell satisfaction. Bessie Barriscale, Lewis Stone and Walter Edwards are starred in this big 5-act wonder-play. The Keystone comedy is "His Auto Ruination," in 2 parts, featuring Mack Swain. Four other good reels will also be shown.

WOMAN'S EMERGENCY CORPS ADDRESSED

By Mrs. Willoughby Cummings and Col. Williams—Mrs. Pankhurst Coming.

An open meeting of the Women's Emergency Corps of Kingston was held on Tuesday afternoon. There was a large number present both ladies and gentlemen. The corps was addressed by Mrs. (Dr.) Willoughby-Cummings who dwelt on the need of such a society at the present time, and on the great necessity for registration of the women to take the places of the men who are leaving everything to go to the front. Col. C. J. Williams, chief recruiting officer of Military District No. 3, also addressed the corps and gave a talk of a similar nature.

Arrangements are also being made to bring to Kingston Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant English suffragette, who is touring the North American continent on behalf of the cause of the Allies. It is likely that she will address a meeting in the city in the second week of July.

Bad Belleville Boys.

Belleville, June 6.—Two boys, aged 11 and 12 years, whose homes are in Belleville, on Saturday night gained admittance to W. R. Vallance's place of business, and stole a considerable sum of money, in addition to some coins of value and other articles. The young culprits on Sunday morning bought tickets to Napanee where they were found by Chief of Police Barrett of that town. The police at Belleville were notified of the boys' apprehension, and Police Officer Corrigan went to Napanee and brought them to Belleville Monday in the Children's Court they had a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Mason, and the case was enlarged for a week.

Members of the Landsturm class of 1917, who are out of Germany, are ordered home. "Syrup of Figs," 25c, at Gibson's.
