DARLINGSIDE.

June 3.—Mrs. James Chismore returned from Kingston General Hospital Saturday, much improved in health. Mrs. William Latimer still continues poorly. Seemingly the man who has been doing least complaining about the non-arrival of spring has been the farmer, who has been too busy putting in his crop. Mrs. M. E. Wallace was in Kingston Saturday. The water still continues to rise in the river. It is about up to high water mark, and if it goes much higher will cause damage.

CHANTRY.

June 5.—Mrs. Omer Brown spent Saturday and Sunday at Chantry, being called on account of her mother, Mrs. A. Knowlton, having had a stroke. The monies are still raising in the neighborhood, the latest case being Miss Beth Seed. Visitors in Chantry on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Halladay, Elgin, at A. Elliott's; Frank Stanton, Elgin; A. Pattimore and sister, Miss Lulu Pattimore, at T. C. DeWitt's; Omer Brown at J. W. Davis'. Frank Gar-
