FRECKLES
 Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots
 There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription ointment—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.
 Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from Mahood Drug Co., Limited, or any druggist, and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.
 Be sure and ask for the double strength ointment as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Why Shamed by Blotchy Skin
 If you are a sufferer from Eczema or unsightly pimply skin, you know just what it means to have that humiliating, backward feeling about meeting strangers and often-times friends. Many a time you have looked into the mirror and wished that your skin would be like other people that you know, "without a blemish." This wish can be yours for the asking. If you will go to the druggist and procure a bottle of D. D. D., the greatest of all skin remedies, apply to according to directions, in a short time your skin will be as soft as velvet.
 Come in and ask for a bottle today of our money-back guarantee. Ask also about D. D. Soap, that keeps the skin healthy.

TRIBUTE TO KITCHENER
 MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD IN ST. GEORGE'S CATHEDRAL
 Eloquent Tribute by the Bishop of Kingston—Memory of Fallen Canadians also Honored.
 A memorial service was held Friday evening in St. George's Cathedral to Earl Kitchener of Khartoum and the Canadian officers and men who have recently fallen in battle. The attendance was large, and the service was most impressive.
 The Bishop of Kingston conducted the service, assisted by the Rev. Cecil Whalley, Canon Fitzgerald read the lesson. After the benediction Arthur Craig sang Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," which was followed by "The Dead March in Saul."
 The Bishop of Kingston delivered the following eloquent address:
 The Bishop's Address
 "We are met together tonight to offer our tribute of respect to the memory of a great servant of the State who has been suddenly snatched away from us by the act of our enemy. There can be no higher testimony to the worth and character of Lord Kitchener of Khartoum than the fact that in his hour of need the nation unanimously clamoured for him as the man to whom to entrust the colossal task of forming, in the briefest space of time, and in the face of almost overwhelming difficulties, armies capable in number and quality of coping with a foe who could put into the field the product of many years of training. This had to be done from almost raw material, and on a scale undreamed of in our history. He accomplished his task, but it is not too much to say that not even the great powers of organization would have sufficed for it, had he not behind him the personality. But in that hour when the nation placed their trust in him he reaped the reward of a life of whole-hearted devotion and service to the country, the cause he loved so well. He was universally trusted, because there was never even the slightest suspicion that anything but devotion to the service of his country had ever actuated his conduct in the slightest degree. As Tennyson said of another great hero: "Whatever record leap to light He will never be shamed."
 Performed Great Task
 How faithfully and efficiently he performed the tremendous task to which he was called less than two years ago, the splendid armies called by his name bear testimony. And now he has been called to rest from his unremitting toil. He leaves a vacant place that cannot easily be filled, not so much because there are no others of equal ability in organization, but because as yet at any rate there seems to be no one who possesses to the degree which he had won it, the entire confidence of the people. Certainly he was one whose guiding principle seems to have been the Lord's pronouncement—"He that is greatest among you, let him be your minister," for to the service of his country he sacrificed everything else, and so became truly great. By the inscrutable decree of Providence an enemy act has been allowed to rob us of him in the most unexpected manner before his work seemed fully done, and we are so much the poorer. But his work lives and will live; his influence will never perish; his name is writ large upon the annals of his country. And so, though mourning his loss, we thank God for his life, and are buoyed up and sustained by the thought that so long as our race can produce men of his type, strong unselfish leaders, who never advertise, who care nothing for the world's applause, but everything for the consciousness of duty done and service given at any personal cost, so long we need never despair for the future of our Empire. Such a life is a possession forever to our race. Pray God that we may all prize ourselves worthy of such an inheritance, and try to show in our own lives the true greatness of such service and sacrifice as he so conspicuously displayed. May he rest in peace.

The Other Dead
 We are met together tonight to our own brave men whose loss in the last few days has added to the burden of our sorrow. Canada has paid toll of her best, and many hearts are sore today for the young, devoted lives sacrificed on the altar of duty and patriotism. With everything to lose from a worldly point of view they have cheerfully given themselves for the country that bore them. In face of their example, how can any young man hesitate in this hour of our nation's need? For in the present crisis, only by the straining of every nerve, by drawing on every resource of men and means, can we hope under God to win the victory for the cause of rightness for which these our heroes have already fallen. They lie far away in a foreign land. Pray God their memory may live in all our hearts, inspiring us with an inflexible determination not to fall our country in this her hour of need, as they did not fall here. Grant unto them, Lord, eternal rest, and may light perpetual shine upon them. Amen.

LAI D ON BATTLEFIELD FOUR WHOLE DAYS.
 Member of 21st Had Awful Experience—Taken Prisoner and Released.

To be terribly injured, to lie on the battlefield for four days, to be taken prisoner by the German soldiers and then to be released or exchanged was the experience of an Arranprie boy in the person of Private Philip Turcotte, a member of the 21st Battalion.
 On April 7th, presumably at St. Eloi, the young Arranprie got his "blighty," which comprised a shattered leg and a fractured arm. He lay on the field of battle for four days and on the 11th of April was picked up by the German soldiers, taken to Hanover, Germany, and there made prisoner. Probably because he could never again be of any use against the Germans returned him to England and he is now receiving treatment in the Queen Alexandra military hospital.
 A second brother, Cyrille Turcotte, is also on the firing line with the 32nd Battalion.

WEDDING AT CLARENDON.
 Marriage to Miss Edith Appleby and Milford Moss.
 The marriage took place in the Church of St. Barnabas, at Clarendon, on June 7th, of Edith Maxwell Appleby, daughter of Mrs. Thomas E. Appleby, and Milford Moss, son of the late Levi and Mrs. Moss. Rev. Mr. Coles, Maberly, officiated. The bride was attended by Miss Florence Currie, of Lamermoor, and Silas Moss, a brother, supported the groom. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the groom were present. The bride was given away by her mother, and was dressed in white silk voile and lace. She wore a long veil with cap effect with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and ferns. The bridesmaid wore a dress of white voile over blue, and carried pink carnations.
 Harold Thompson, Sharbot Lake, conveyed the guests to and from the church in his automobile. The bridal party entered the church preceded by the choir, strewn flowers. Miss Kilborn, of Sharbot Lake, played during the signing of the register. Miss Edith Bishop, cousin of the groom, sang very sweetly "O Perfect Day."
 The ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast awaited them.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl brooch, to the bridesmaid a pearl and amethyst pendant, and to the groomsmen a pearl tie pin. The presents were numerous and costly, among them being several handsome cheques, and silverware. The young couple left on the noon train amid showers of rice and good wishes. The bride travelled in a suit of Belgium blue with hat to match.

A FINE ROUTE.
 Excursion to Western Canada Via Grand Trunk Railway System.
 Each Tuesday until October 31st the Grand Trunk Railway System will run special excursions called "Homeseekers." In connection with these excursions round trip tickets will be issued at very low fares to points in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia. These tickets are good via the new Hudson Transcontinental or via Chicago, and during the season of navigation, via the Great Lakes. Tourist car accommodation is available, and stop-overs are allowed on these tickets. Full particulars may be had on application to J. P. Hanley, C.P. & T.A., cor. Johnson and Ontario streets.

Laidley-Howell Wedding
 The marriage of A. R. Laidley, Kingston, to Miss Emma Howell, daughter of the late James I. Howell and Mrs. Howell, of Southaburg, Prince Edward County, took place recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Whitman, Picton, intimate friends of the bride.

The Man on Watch
 The temperance people should not protest if beer increases in price.
 However the "reformer" still sells at five cents, despite the fact that the price of a shave has advanced to fifteen.

The Kingston Society of Spiritualists has now a chance to tell how the Hampshire tragedy occurred.
 Intervening 800 men hereabouts yielded an enlistment of three per cent, the bank rate of money, which is considered low in these war times.

Now that dancing has been prohibited at the function of a certain church, there will be some disappointed people at summer picnics.
 There are some men in Kingston who say they will not enlist until they are conscripted, which means that they will not go to war, as there will be no conscription in Canada.

The Lampman hears that Mayor Richardson is making the wise acres "bite the dust" in regard to his recent ruling on the motion to rescind the daylight saving resolution. They all back up in their assertions when His Worship reads Bourinot to them. The lawyers find that the Mayor knows all about rules of order, as well as medicine.

Michael says that Portsmouth would not have adopted the daylight saving scheme even if Kingston had passed the Newman measure. The Portsmouth people do not believe in interfering with Old Sol.

If the jail is no place for an insane prisoner, a General Hospital is the last place such a one should be received. Hospital nurses have enough troubles without having crazy people to look after.
 Out in Portsmouth they dispute the statement that when dandruff appears baldness nears. Hatter's Bay residents hold to the view that dandruff germs have their good points as well as bad.

Letters To The Editor
 Some Information Wanted
 Kingston, June 10.—(To The Editor): Can it be two horses were shipped from Ottawa to Kingston by express yesterday morning for the use of the Minister of Militia at Barriefield camp. I suppose the horses would be used for an hour or so. The cost of expressing these animals would, I am told, be about $150, for which sum one might buy a pretty fair nag. However, money seems to be plentiful at Ottawa, and I suppose the Militia Department thinks nothing of expressing fiery steeds through the country for Canada's war lord.
 And what about that little conference with the Minister of Militia at the camp yesterday which resulted in a colonel informing Sir Sam that intoxicated soldiers in a well-known down-town club room. No wonder this is a jolly place when a keg of beer is open to its visitors.—CITIZEN.

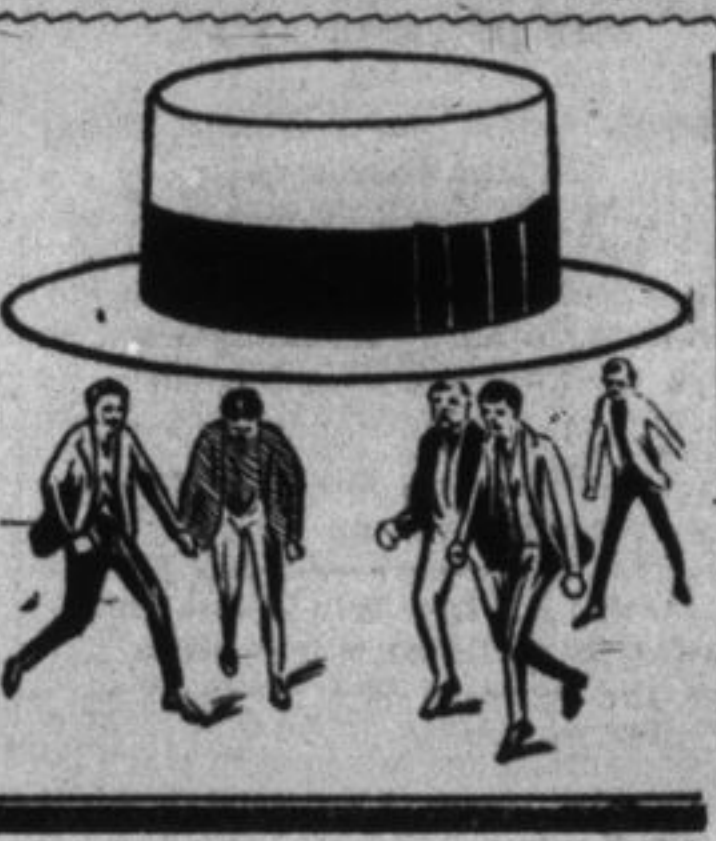

A KINGSTON WIDOW RECEIVES DAMAGES
 Of $1,750 For Death of Her Husband, Lieut. G. E. Francklyn.
 A London cable says: "The South Eastern Railway has awarded $1,750 to the widow of the late Lieut. G. E. Francklyn, of the 4th Company, Divisional Train, who was drowned at Folkestone harbor last December. The jury found that the harbor wall was low for public safety, and that the restrictions in lighting. The first offer of settlement was $1,500, but Major Maurice Alexander, Assistant Judge Advocate, secured the larger figure."
 The late Lieut. Francklyn was formerly with the A.S.C. at Kingston. He married Miss Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Charles Taylor, King street, just before leaving on overseas service.

Anglers Dissatisfied
 Considerable dissatisfaction is heard from followers of Isaac Walton on account of the extension of the close season for pickerel to the 15th of June. The best fishing for this specimen of the finny tribe is during the last of May and the first of June after they have returned from the spawning places. There does not appear to be any conceivable reason why the department extended the time over the 15th of May as the spawning season is always over by that date.

Millions of Shad Flies.
 Ogdensburg, N.Y., June 10.—Millions of shad flies have been seen along the river front and it is feared that soon the city will be swarmed with them. Painting will be halted until the pests disappear, which usually takes several days. The flies hatch in the swift current of the rapids of the St. Lawrence river below the city. They come to the surface in balls the size of an apple, which puffs open and fills the air with the small insects. The flies live only a few hours, but multiply very rapidly.

CHEESE AT NAPANEE
 BROUGHT 17 CENTS AT FRIDAY'S BOARD MEETING.
 Thomas Lennon Wanted at London, Ont., on Burglary Charge—Samuel Brien of Camden East Appointed High County Constable.
 (From Our Own Correspondent) Napanee, June 9.—At the weekly meeting of the Napanee Cheese Board held at Napanee yesterday the following cheeses were boarded and sold at 17 cents.
 White—Moscow, 150; Phippen, No. 2, 60; Kingsfor, 95; Maribank, 80; Palace Road, 110; Selby, 190; Deseronto, 160; Wilton, 90; Enterprize, 120; total, 1,955.
 Colored—Phippen, No. 1, 90; Phippen, No. 3, 90; Forest Mills, 145; Union, 170; Odessa, 230; Excelsior, 130; Farmer's Friend, 110; Camden East, 160; Johnson, 80; Whitman Creek, 65; total, 1,270.
 The county council yesterday appointed Samuel Brien of Camden East to the position of high county constable in place of John Van Koughnet, who has left for Toronto.
 At the police court held yesterday before Magistrate Rankin, Thomas Lennon, charged with theft of some bottles of perfume and drugs from the Wallace Drug Co., was found guilty, but was allowed to go on suspended sentence, as he is wanted for a more serious charge of burglary in London, Ont. It has been proved that the jewellery found on accused here when searched by Chief Barrett, was part of the proceeds of a robbery of a jewellery store which occurred in London on the night of May 29th: Lennon is being held until an officer arrives from that place to take him back. The prisoner has a long record of convictions covering a period of 20 years.
 A talk on patriotic work was given by Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, Toronto, last night, under the auspices of the U.E.L. Chapter, Daughters of the Empire. The proceeds were in aid of their funds.

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat.
 Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More.
 "I'd certainly give most anything to be able to eat up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible, despite past failures. Most thin people are victims of malnutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood, much of the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste.
 To correct this condition and to produce a healthy, normal amount of fat, the nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with the power which nature has denied them. This can probably best be accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is a careful combination of six splendid assimilable agents. Taken with meals they mix with the food to turn the sugars and starches of what you have eaten into rich, ripe, nourishment for the tissues and blood and its rapid effect has been in many cases reported remarkable. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Its action is perfectly natural and absolutely harmless. Sargol is sold by all druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back. If you find a send $1.00 money order or registered letter to the National Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine St., Montreal, and a complete ten days' trial will be sent you postpaid in plain wrapper.
 NOTE—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.
 Strange Storehouses.
 In the old birds' nest that are placed near the ground in shrubs and small trees close to hazelnut bushes and bittersweet vines one will often find a handful of hazelnuts or bittersweet berries. They were put there by the white footed mice and the meadow regularly. Very often a white footed mouse will cover a bird's nest with fine dried grass and inner bark and make a nest for itself.—New York Tribune.
 Tea in the Time of Buddha.
 At the time of Buddha China was enjoying a large foreign commerce in tea. It was carried by her junk to Japan, Korea, Tonquin, Anam, Cochin, Burma, Siam, India, Ceylon, Persia and Arabia. According to one record, it was sent to a great black river country west of Arabia, from which it was separated by a long and very torrid sea, which must have been Egypt. It was carried by caravans to Manchuria, Mongolia, Kuldja, Tartary, Tibet, Persia and northern India.
