News of Troops in the City

(See also page 9.)

Twelve members of the 139th Battalion have returned from the School of Physical Drill and Bayonet Fighting at London.

The 93rd Battalion has secured fourteen recruits from Peterboro since moving to Barriefield camp. Considering that the Field Ambulance Corps 74th Battery, and other units are recruiting in that district this is a good showing.

Attention is again drawn to this order "Tent filed must be rolled up at 'Reveille' daily" in fine weather.

The grounds and roads at camp are drying up satisfactorily. The dust is already appearing on the roads, and the oiling promised by the city should be commenced immediately.

Most of the officers who have been at the front—and there is a great number at Barriefield camp—are now wearing their sun helmets. It is a reminder of the days when the R. C. H. A. left for South Africa, when every officer was so equipped.

J. Ferrier, "A" Company, 130th Battalion, has been transferred to headquarters as acting corporal.

It was announced at Barriefield camp on Tuesday afternoon that Gananoque had been put out of bounds for the men in khaki.

It is alleged that soldiers have been taking automobile trips to Gananoque to get liquor, and that this new regulation has been the result.

SIX BATTALIONS TO LEAVE BARRIEFIELD.
It was announced at Barriefield camp on Wednesday that six battalions are to be taken away within the next ten days. No information as to which battalions will go and their destination is yet available.
When the six battalions are gone there will be only three left at camp, including the officers and men of the remaining battalions and the departmental corps, there will be about 3,700 men at Barriefield.

A course in machine gunnery opened on Wednesday.

The following men qualified as machine gun officers at a course which closed on April 8th: J. A. MacNab, 93rd; W. B. Ferguson, 155th; E. Croft, 139th; H. F. Smith, 139th; W. M. Mackenzie, 156th; P. C. Mulholland, 136th; G. A. R. Emery, 146th; J. M. Phelan, 80th; R. H. Brown, 136th; A. G. McGie, 109th; R. G. Mason, 156th; J. H. Patton, 146th; E. L. Rainboth, 77th; R. P. A. Crisp, 93rd; G. G. May, 130th; H. A. Baxter, 130th; J. M. Longman, 77th; F. Ingledoy, 109th; A. R. Stevenson, 93rd Battalion; F. L. Barclay, 109; H. M. Warner, 80th.

The 72nd, 73rd, 74th and 75th Batteries, C.F.A. C.E.F. at Kingston's Depot Batteries, formed to take the place of the 50th, 51st, 52nd and 53rd Batteries which have moved to Petawawa. The 72nd is quartered in the Queen's Barracks, the 73rd, 74th and 75th and Ammunition Column in the Cereal building. These are all actively organizing and recruiting. The 73rd in Ottawa and vicinity, the 74th in Peterboro and vicinity while the 75th plans most of their for Kingston and the vicinity.

Capt. A. J. Latorell, officer commanding the 75th Battery, has had a wide experience in handling men and situations. He gave up his position as chief engineer for the city of Edmonton to do his share choosing the artillery. He and his officers plan vigorous recruiting in Kingston. His N.G.O's have not yet been appointed, these positions being held open for the best men. Suitable men for his full complement are here and he expects to make the 75th a Kingston battery.

The Canadian Field Artillery has always been deservedly popular. It is a mounted corps and has attracted a good class of recruits. Its arms, the 18 pdr. Q. F. gun is the English equivalent of the famous French 75. M.M. gun and quite as effective. Its service requires skilled workmen telegraph and telephone men, carpenters, saddlers, smiths as well as good horsemen, drivers and gunners. To all such the 75th Battery promises a warm welcome and good chance for preferment.

Col. C. N. Perreau has been given the Imperial rank of colonel while commanding of the Royal Military College. His regiment is the Dublin Fusiliers.

Lieut. McLean, commanding the 75th Battery served eight years with the Geological Survey.

Pte. Lord of Brockville, who was wounded in the battle of St. Julien and afterwards discharged and attempting to re-enlist with the artillery. He was willing to give up his pension to get overseas again, but his physical disability prevented his being accepted. Here is an example to Kingston young men who can serve their country, but will not.

The Salvation Army ladies' band will give a concert this evening in the 16th Battalion tent.

Bathing parades from Barriefield camp are now being held daily to the lake.

There was a concert in the 146th Battalion tent last night.

Pte. D. H. Ryan has been raised corporal in the 109th Battalion.

Cape Vincent, N.Y., defeated Laforgeville on Saturday at baseball.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At The Grand.

On Thursday and Friday at the Grand Opera House, one of the best programs of vaudeville and photoplays yet seen in the city will be presented. Dustin Farnum the celebrated actor of the famous Players Film Co. will be seen in an elaborate production of "Ben Blair." This play is unusual in its skilful contrasts of life on the prairie and on Broadway. A two-reel Universal travel series will also be shown. The vaudeville is of an excellent variety and includes Fioretta Clark in a singing and dancing specialty act.

"Robin Hood."

The next attraction at the Grand will be the de Koven Opera Company, in an ambitious production of "Robin Hood," on Saturday, June 17th, matinee and night. This is the company organized by Reginald de Koven, the composer, for the purpose of restoring the glories of English light opera. The chorus and orchestra of the mother company remain intact and are those that will be seen here. Heading the present company are Ivy Scott, dramatic soprano, from the Metropolitan Grand Opera, New York, who sang Maid Marian all last season, and James Stevens of the Chicago Grand Opera, who sang Little John last season. Another valuable member this season is Fred Walker, whose excellent work with the Century Opera Company will be remembered, and who will be seen in the role of Friar Tuck. Others in the company from last season are Phil Branson and Tillie Slinger, and the rest of the cast includes Cora Tracy as Alan-a-Dale, Ralph Brainard as Robin Hood, Carolyn Andrews as Anabel, Sol Solomon as Sir Guy, and Herbert Waterous as Will Scarlet.

At the Strand.

Another good house greeted "Dorothy Gish" and Owen Moore in "Betty of Greystone" at the Strand again last evening. The expression of pleasure from the patrons as they left the theatre was most gratifying to the management, who feel that the public are appreciating Triangle plays more and more every week. Anyone who has not seen "Betty of Greystone" will be well repaid by a visit to the Strand to-night, when the last performance will be given. The bill for the last three days of the week includes a five-act Triangle play, "Don Quixote," featuring that world-famed comedian, "De Wolf Hopper, who has appeared here in person many times. Ford Sterling, another big favorite, will also be shown in "His Pride and Shame" along with other subjects.

"Battle Cry" at Strand.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week "The Battle Cry of Peace," which has created such a furor wherever it has been shown in the United States, will be presented at the Strand Theatre. As a spectacle it is in the same class as "The Birth of a Nation." As a sermon it ranks with the most touching and the most tragic. As a sermon on the necessity for military preparedness, it stands alone. The United States is shown in the position of Belgium—at the mercy of a power which declares unprovoked war. The U.S. navy is defeated, and a hostile army landed, which advances on New York. Finally, the United States, beaten to her knees, is forced to sue for peace on any terms. That is in the details that the tragedy and terror of the catastrophe are displayed with terrible realism.

At Griffin's.

"Who killed Cornelia Alster?" This is the baffling problem in Esanay's five-act mystery photoplay, "The Alster Case," at Griffin's to-night and Thursday, which puzzles all spectators and keeps them keyed up with suspense and excitement to the very climax. The drama is taken from the famous novel by Rufus Gilmore. It is one of the most mysterious and baffling stories ever written. The grim finger of suspicion points at five persons. You are sure it is one and then another who committed the crime. Then comes the great denouement, revealing the real slayer.

This gripping revelation is a startling surprise to all. The complete new angle to the plot and the swift change of action brings the tension to the highest pitch. Yet the motive proves so obvious and the slaying so logical an outcome that one wonders why the real slayer was not before suspected.

LAI D ON BATTLEFIELD FOUR WHOLE DAYS.

Member of 21st Had Awful Experience—Taken Prisoner and Released.

Arnprior, June 14.—To be terribly injured, to lie on the battlefield for four days, to be taken prisoner by the German soldiers and then to be released or exchanged was the experience of an Arnprior boy in the person of Private Philius Turcotte, a member of the 21st Battalion.

On April 7th, presumably at St. Eloi, the young Arnpriorite got his "blight," which comprised a shattered leg and a fractured arm. He lay on the field of battle for four days and on the 11th of April was picked up by German soldiers, taken to Hannover, Germany, and there made prisoner. Probably because he could never again be of any use against them, the Germans returned him to England and he is now receiving treatment in the Queen Alexandra military hospital.

A second brother, Cyrille Turcotte, is also on the firing line with the 32nd Battalion.

Garden Party at Edgemoor.

The Women's Association of Sydenham Street Methodist Church will hold a garden party on June 24th at Edgemoor, the residence of Capt. A. P. Chowin, in aid of the prisoners of war fund.
