Camp Notes.

Petawawa is a grand camp. There is just enough rain to keep things nice and clean.

The 13th Artillery brigade from Kingston is working like a beaver now from sunrise to late into the night.

Col. Arnoldi, Major Barrett, Capt. Mohr, M.O.; Capt. Anglia and all the rest of the officers are in fine form.

It has got to the point of the survival of the fittest.

There are four brigades and ammunition columns with a divisional ammunition column here. The old Kingston drilling brigade command, Lieut.-Col. R. Costigan, Montreal, is in charge of divisional ammunition column, and is looking as young and fit as when on Barrieffield, with Lieut. E. W. Rathbun back in the good old days when it cost something to be an officer in the Canadian service, and the work was as strenuous in the artillery as at the present time. One of the chief sources of pride of gunnery officers was to carry out the syllabus no matter how big the head might be after the night before.

The gunners who have been left on this side of the pond feel keenly the fact that they have not received the call of the powers that be. A number have worked just as hard at home as any of the chosen ones, and in some cases harder.

FOR GALLANT CONDUCT

A Number of Kingston Officers Are Mentioned.

Kingston is interested in the following names of Canadians mentioned by Sir Douglas Haig, British commander-in-chief, for gallant distinguished conduct in the field:

Staff—Brig.-Gen. H. E. Burstall, Lieut.-Col. H. T. Hughes, Lieut.-Col. Panet, Major Van Stranbenzee.

Horse Artillery—Capt. Benson, Corporal O'Leary.

Engineers—Major Bogart.

Army Service Corps—Lieut.-Col. A. D. Bell.

Chaplains—Capt. A. H. McGreer, 21st Battalion—Lieut. Wilgress (killed).

General List—Lieut.-Col. A. E. Panet, Major C. Russell-Brown, Lieut.-Col. P. G. Twining, Capt. C. F. Carson. The latter is the son of R. J. Carson, Kingston.

LAKE ONTARIO PARK TO OPEN ON MONDAY.

A Splendid Bill of Vaudeville and Photoplays in the Evening.

Lake Ontario Park, Kingston's favorite summer resort, will open for the season on Monday, June 19th. A large number of men have been working at the park for several weeks cleaning up the grounds, installing new lights, and painting the buildings, and the park never looked better than it does this season. All lovers of outdoor attractions will have an opportunity of spending some very pleasant summer evenings in the park's twenty acres of amusement grounds.

A splendid bill has been arranged as the pavilion attraction for the opening week. The programme includes some feature photoplays and high class vaudeville. "Little All-right," a Japanese, presenting a novelty act, and Harry and Hattie Bolden, two clever colored artists, in a singing, musical, and acrobatic dancing act, are the two feature vaudeville acts. There will be two free shows nightly, at 7.30 and 9 o'clock. Admission to the park will be free by street cars, and the Street Railway Company will pay the war tax so that this charge will not be made on the patrons of the park.

CAUGHT AT COBOURG.

Young Soldier is Alleged to Have Overstayed His Leave.

A young man, who was taken in charge at Cobourg, was brought down to Kingston on Thursday night, and is being held at the police station. He was a member of Barrieffield camp, and it is alleged that he overstayed his leave.

The military authorities are putting forth every effort possible to round up all the men who overstep the mark in this way. Soldiers are given leave of absence, and of late many of them have been taking a few extra days on their own account.

When brought down to Kingston the accused was attired in a suit of overalls, having discarded his suit of khaki.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

The management of the Grand should certainly be congratulated for giving the citizens of Kingston such good entertainment. Last night one of the best bills of vaudeville and photoplays of that has ever been seen in the city was presented before one of the largest audiences of the season. Messrs. Corsica and Verdi, two Italian musicians, delighted the large audience present, playing on a violin and 'cello. They rendered the most difficult selections with an ease that showed they are experts in the art of music. Floretta Clark in a character dancing act was also exceptionally good. Her dancing was among the best seen here for some time. "Ben Blair," an unusual photoplay of life on the prairie and on Broadway, with the celebrated actor, Dustin Farnum, in the title role, was an exceptionally good picture. It possesses action plenty, and a theme that will hold and thrill. A two-reel Universal photoplay, "The Quaker Breed," a comedy picture, "The Fatal Hanson," and the Paramount Travel Series, were also shown and pleased immensely.

Matinee and Night "Robin Hood."

The next attraction at the Grand will be the do Koven Opera Company, an ambitious production of "Robin Hood," on Saturday, June 17th, matinee and night. This is the company organized by Reginald de Koven, the composer, for the purpose of restoring the glories of English light opera. The orchestra and orchestra of that has ever been seen in the city was presented before one of the largest audiences of the season. Messrs. Corsica and Verdi, two Italian musicians, delighted the large audience present, playing on a violin and 'cello. At the Strand.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the screening of the bill at the Strand last evening. The masterpiece is a film version of Cervantes' famous work, "Don Quixote," in 5 parts, in which that famous comedian, De Wolf Hopper, is seen to great advantage. Ford Sterling was also shown in a laughable Keystone comedy in 2 parts entitled, "His Pride and Shame" and "Mary Pickford was also seen in "Wagon Wheel." Other good reels were also shown completing a very strong programme. The same bill will be repeated again to-night and at the Saturday shows.

"BATTLE CRY OF PEACE"

Causes Stir in Canada—Picture Endorsed by Officials.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" is aiding recruiting in Canada. The chief recruiting officer of Ontario made a speech endorsing it after seeing it shown in a private exhibition at Toronto. Mayor Church, of Toronto, issued a letter endorsing the picture. He said:

"This picture, although its warning is primarily directed to the United States, cannot be viewed by any true Canadian without arousing in his breast an intense and burning indignation of the wrong suffered by hapless Belgium and at the same time an intense desire to serve the cause of his own King and country. The incidents depicted are a reproduction of what actually happened in Belgium. It is only preparedness and power behind preparedness that can avert such a thing from our own loved country."

"The Battle Cry of Peace" has been accepted by Canada as an object lesson for it to heed also. This picture is being shown at the Strand Theatre here on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week under the auspices of the 146th Battalion, and should not be missed by any one in Kingston. It is declared by many to be better than "The Birth of a Nation."
