THE LIFE OF A JOCKEY

LIKE THAT OF A SOLDIER IN THE TRENCHES.

He Does Not Know When His Time May Come—Bad Accidents That Have Happened to Jockeys.

The life of a jockey is much like that of a soldier in the trenches. He doesn't know when his time may come. Every time he goes into a race he doesn't know but that he will have a tumble that will end it all. Riders have been killed when either the horses they were on or others in the race have fallen. Others have been seriously injured, while others still have been of no account after having the misfortune to become mixed up in a jumble when one or more in a race fell.

Canadian jockeys have not escaped having tumbles. Jimmy Butwell, one of the best riders in the continent, is minus half of one of his ears, the result of a tumble at the Aqueduct, in which another jockey was killed. Stanley Davis, a Toronto boy, who was one of the best riders around six or seven years ago, was in this mis-venture, now quartered at the local track, has had just as many bad falls as the next rider and still lives to ride as good a race as any present day jockey. Back in 1908 Dennison was riding down in Los Angeles when the horse he was riding tumbled over a couple of others that had fallen. He had his left arm broken in seven places while he was also badly cut around the mouth. He was unconscious for four days and spent fifty-two others in the hospital. On top of that his arm was paralyzed for a year. Dennison is the most popular boy at the track and is called upon to gallop horses oftener than any of the others. Trainers know that they are going to be handled right when Jimmy is in the saddle. Mr. Whalen thinks there are no others like him.

A FORMER ATHLETE JOINS GEN. WOOD'S STAFF

"Hobey" Baker, Football, Skating and Hockey Player, with Aviation Corps.

The value of an athlete in war has been demonstrated in the present affair in Europe, and whenever it is possible it's the athletes who are sought to become members of various military organizations by the officers of same.

Just now "Hobey" Baker, one of the foremost athletes in America, whose fame in football, skating and hockey is at least country-wide, is a member of General Leonard Wood's United States civilian aviation corps. Baker is flying every day at Governor's Island under the direction of Philip Bjorklund.

It isn't the sporting side which appeals to Baker, but the serious work attached. It's his way of aiding in the plan of national preparedness, and no doubt his steps will be followed by many other athletes, and they will find that no other class is more welcome to any branch of Uncle Sam's service.

VICTORIAS TO MEET PONIES ON SATURDAY.

In the City Baseball League—The 154th Band is to Attend.

The baseball game on Saturday at the Cricket Field promises to be one of the best and most interesting of the season. In providing there is good weather the Victorias should put up a good game against the Ponies. Last Saturday the Ponies went down to their first defeat at the hands of the Athletics, and the Vics are hoping that they can put one over them this Saturday. Both teams are going to turn out their best material, and it looks as though it was going to be a tight fixture. The president of the City League has arranged for the 154th Battalion band to be on hand to give music. Both are at the head of the league at present, and the Vics do not like these youngsters taking the lead. The standing at present is: Ponies, won 2, lost 1; Athletics, won 1, lost 1; Victorias, won 0, lost 1.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL BASEBALL OPENING.

Macdonald School Defeated Central by 4 to 3 on Thursday Afternoon.

The first game in the Public School League was played on Thursday afternoon on the Cricket Field between Macdonald and Central. The game was very interesting, and ended 4-3 with Macdonald in the long end. The teams: Macdonald—Sutherland, 1b.; H. Edgar, r.f.; Nicholson, p.; W. Compton, 2b.; Boyd, l.f.; Lyons, 3b.; Cohen, c. Central—Wilson, c.; Maxam, p.; H. Ward, 1b.; Johnston, 2b.; Williams, s.s.; Montgomery, 3b.; Gimblett, l.f.; Amey, r.f.

Work of Hamilton Politicians.

The Hamilton Herald says: Apart from the fact that three of the five members of the Hamilton Amateur Baseball Association's executive are employees in one of the local newspaper offices, there can be no complaint to make about the selections. Evidently the state-makers met with little or no opposition. It looks for all the world like the work of experienced politicians.

Mother Died as Boxer Won.

While Mike Glover, a Boston welterweight, was engaged in a 12-round boxing bout with Ted (Kid) Lewis of London, Glover's mother died on her deathbed at the City Hospital, Boston. She died at about the time the judges were announcing that Lewis had been given the decision.

BASEBALL BRIEFS.

Chicago reports have it that Heinie Zim is so proud of his new job as captain of the Cubs that he is playing the best ball he ever put up in his life, which must be going some.

Dave Robertson is one of the surprises of the season. When the Giants reported that Marlin it was believed that Robertson, because of a surgical operation, never would play ball again.

President Frank W. Navin, of the Detroit Tigers, was advised on May 19th by Manager Jennings that negotiations for the signing of Donald Beck, Columbia University southpaw, are practically complete. Beck is expected to join the Detroit squad next month.

The Yankees are first in team fielding, fourth in team batting, last but one in team run-getting, and have made more double plays than any rival. Facts which go to show that good pitching and a tight-fielding defence have had much to do with their grist of victories.

The Cardinals' young pitchers are not living up to expectations. Very much was expected from Hi Jasper and "Sea Lion" Hall, but neither of these has shown anything to date.

Manager Herzog, of the Cincinnati Reds, has decided to keep Heinie Peitz as a warm-up catcher, even if he has to sacrifice a second baseman to stay in the 21 man limit. Peitz also will act as coacher at third base, since he knows enough not to touch a runner trying to score.

ATHLETES ALL ENLIST AND SPORT LACKING.

For the remainder of the year at least Twégl will be without any athletic events, other than those put on by the school boys, as the number of young men who have enlisted and left there for Barrieffield makes it practically impossible to muster a team.

CRAWFORD NO LONGER GOOD AS OUTFIELDER.

Jennings Wants Him To Play First Base For the Tigers.

Jenning has been unjustly charged with keeping Sam Crawford on the bench through spite. The absurdity of such a charge is apparent when it is considered that success means more to him than it can possibly mean to any other person. Norman Beasley in the Detroit Journal writes: Jennings has been switching his team about—that's true—but he has made switches with the purpose of getting a winning combination. Surely that is a laudable desire. Jennings has been unable to use Crawford through most of the season because the veteran has been suffering from an assortment of ailments. First Sam was threatened with pneumonia; and when shaking off this he discovered that the cold had settled in the muscles of his back. It was an impossible thought to consider Sam in the line-up when beset by these troubles.

In the next place, Jennings honestly believes Sam is at his trail's end as an outfielder. Jennings in believing this, shares an idea with a lot of baseball men. Sam is at the age where tendons tighten and he cannot cover ground as he once did. Slow runners take advantage of his throwing arm, and Jennings, in playing Heifman in right field, was casting about for a capable substitute.

Hughes does not believe Crawford's days are ended as a major leaguer. He wants Sam to play first base, but Crawford is unwilling because of a lack of practice.

PROVIDENCE LIKELY TO HEAD INTERNATIONAL.

Still Long Way in Front, and Likely To Stay There.

Providence is still a long way out in front in the International League, and the Grays are likely to stay there. No other team is within halting distance of the leaders, who on form are the class of the league beyond doubt. Baltimore and Montreal are the only aggregation, who appear to have any chance to challenge the supremacy of the pace-makers. With a little better pitching staff the Royals would be sure pennant contenders. Howley has assembled a first-class team. He has a cracking good infield, and a fair set of fly chasers. Two of his outfielders once played with Boston, Cather and Moran, while the other, Maisei, was with Detroit this year. He is a brother of the fleet Yankee player, Wagner, the second baseman, is the doubtless that Clymer tried in vain to secure from Cincinnati last year. Damrau was with the Athletics this season, but was beaten out for the third base job by Charlie Pick, the erstwhile Leaf. Slattery, the slugger first baseman, is a graduate of the New York State League. The Royals are a fast, hard hitting team, and cannot be kept out of the first division.

Mother Died as Boxer Won.

While Mike Glover, a Boston welterweight, was engaged in a 12-round boxing bout with Ted (Kid) Lewis of London, Glover's mother died on her deathbed at the City Hospital, Boston. She died at about the time the judges were announcing that Lewis had been given the decision.

EASTERN BOWLING MEET

IS TO OPEN IN OTTAWA ON THE 3RD OF JULY.

Entries Are Coming in—Kingston Bowler to Participate—The Eighth Annual Tourney.

Entries for the eighth annual tournament under the auspices of the Eastern Lawn Bowling Association, to be held on the Ottawa greens on July 3rd, are now coming in rapidly to Secretary Martin Rosenthal, Ottawa. Rinks are expected here from Montreal, Brockville, Toronto, Kingston, Prescott and many other outside points.

The Ottawa Lawn Bowling Club, one of the largest in the Capital, which is to handle this year's meet, are making great preparations for the affair, and expect to accommodate about five hundred bowlers. A new lighting system, which is second to none in Canada, will be installed in time for the big affair. Thirteen 500 power Watt lamps will be strung along the greens, together with several hundred smaller ones. The new system is costing the club in the neighborhood of $500.

The prizes, too, over which half have already been purchased, are undoubtedly the finest lot that has ever been offered at any bowling tournament in Canada.

The programme will be as follows: Dominion match, Eastern match, Association match, Scotch doubles and singles. There will be first, second and third prizes in the first three matches, four in the doubles, and five in the singles. The first prize for the single is a beautiful table lamp, valued at $30. The entry list closes June 30th.

May Recall Shocker.

Detroit News: Urban Shocker, Detroit boy, with Ottawa in the Canadian league last year, and now pitching with Toronto, was among those present at Sunday's ball game. It would appear that the Canadian club has decided that Shocker is entitled to a day off on the 11th of each month, so allowed him to get away to meet his former mates of the New York team. He still is the property of the Yankees, and can be recalled at any time.
