TRICKED THE CENSOR.

Ottawa Soldier Told About Conditions Without Detection.

Ottawa, June 23.—"We are used fine here, as well as we would be at Castle Keeloo." The foregoing, written by an Ottawa soldier in a German internment camp, probably got by the Kaiser's censors as a boost for prison conditions. It is a clever evasion, however, for Castle Keeloo is the local name for the Ottawa jail.
