MORE REPORTS PRESENTED

SYNOD HAS BUSY TIME THURSDAY MORNING.

Archdeacon Dobbs Said That There Should be Closer Censorship of Moving Pictures.

Several reports were received at the session of the Anglican Synod on Thursday morning. On motion of Dean Starr and Archdeacon Dobbs a resolution, expressing sympathy with the diocese of Columbia in the death of Bishop Scriven, was adopted, and the Bishop of Kingston was conveyed the sympathy of the Synod.

A resolution of regret on the passing of Rev. Dr. Robinson of St. John's College, Winnipeg, was moved by Canon Fitzgerald and adopted. On motion of Rev. Thomas Leech a vote of thanks was passed to Rev. F. G. Kirkpatrick of Pittsburg for the work he had done in preparing the canon re the clergy's stipends. The Bishop of Kingston, Dean Starr and Canon Fitzgerald all paid tribute to Mr. Kirkpatrick.

Reports Presented. The Divinity students' fund committee reported that the collections so far for the current year amounted to $257 with a number of parishes still to hear from.

In 1915 the receipts were $206. The M.S.C. committee reported that up to June 19, $1,325 had been sent to the general secretary. The amount received from the Good Friday collection for the Jews was $282.45. The diocese was asked for $7,000 for work in the north-west.

The report of the Mission Givings Committee reported that the total amount aimed at for 1915 was $17,595. The amount raised was $17,973.23, as against $17,898.71 for the year 1914.

The report of the committee on Social and Moral Reform endorsed the action of the Ontario Legislature in prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor. Archdeacon Dobbs, who presented the report, said there should be a closer censorship of moving pictures, as many of them were immoral.

A resolution was passed providing that if there be a surplus over the amount necessary to pay the present annuities, such surplus will be paid to the clergymen next entitled to become annuitants.

The Synod prorogued at 1 o'clock. The executive committee met in the afternoon.

THE SUDDEN DEATH OF LEONARD DICK.

Was Stricken in the Richardson Elevator—Died in the Hotel Dieu.

While Leonard Dick was working in James Richardson & Sons' elevator on Wednesday afternoon about five o'clock, he was overcome by the heat and was taken to the Hotel Dieu in S. S. Corbett's ambulance. A stroke of apoplexy resulted, and he passed away about 9.30 o'clock.

The deceased was born in Barrie, Ontario, forty-seven years ago, the son of the late Robert Dick, of Cataragui. About fourteen years ago he came to the city to live, and for the last year has been in the employment of James Richardson & Sons. The late Mr. Dick for a number of years was an active baseball player in the city. He played with the Princess Street and also the old Park Nine and for a number of years was an ardent fan and took great interest in the doings of baseball circles. The deceased was an Anglican in religion and a member of St. Paul's Church. He was a Conservative in politics, and was a member of several orders, among them the True Blues and the 'Prentice Boys. For some time the deceased had been living with his sister, Mrs. John Cherry, 3 York street.

GOT DRUNK ON TWO DRINKS

A STRANGER DECLARED THAT WAS ALL HE HAD TAKEN.

And Was Very Much Puzzled to Know How He Had Been Arrested—Four Taxi Drivers Fined for Infractions of the City By-Law.

Frederick Flood, who said he had a dairy farm near the village of Soberton, (Sperton), came to the city on Wednesday, had two drinks, and did not know anything until he came to himself at the Police Station. Constables Patterson and Tebworth arrested him.

"It is strange that a man coming from such a place as Soberton should be found here," remarked the Magistrate.

"Yes, and it's strange that two drinks would make me drunk," replied Flood, who then told the story about getting two drinks.

Flood came here to see a nephew who had signed up for overseas. He was given a chance. Michael George, fruit dealer, will soon realize that it does not pay to violate city by-laws. A few days ago he was fined $5 and costs for forestalling on the market. Thursday Constable Arnel charged him with driving on the wrong side of the street, and he was touched up for another fine of $5 and costs.

George said he did not remember the occurrence but Constable Arnel did, stating that George had told him that he would keep on the right side while on Princess street, but that on the side streets, he would not adhere to the law.

Taxi drivers who violate the traffic by-laws are bound to get caught. Four were charged, but did not put in an appearance, but it was stated that a plea of "guilty" had been given in each case. The Magistrate fixed the fine at $5 and costs for each offender. They were William Brown, William Gallagher, Jr., William Jarvis and the Finkle Company. Constable Thomas Mullinger laid the charges.

CHARLES WICKHAM REPORTED MISSING.

Portsmouth Young Man Was in the Recent Big Battle At Zillebeke.

Charles Wickham, of Portsmouth, who enlisted in the C. M. R. last October under Major W. A. Stroud, is officially reported as missing since the battle of Zillebeke on the 2nd of June. Trooper Wickham is twenty-one years of age, a son of the late Charles Wickham, of Portsmouth, and worked with Balden Bros. before enlisting. He was held in high esteem at Portsmouth, and was a member of St. John's Church. His brother is still in a hospital in England, not having yet recovered from wounds received in the battle of St. Julien over a year ago.

F. J. Wilson's Brother Wounded.

F. J. Wilson, general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., received word Thursday morning that his brother, George Wilson, had been slightly wounded at the front. Mr. Wilson enlisted with the 16th Scottish Regiment in Kamloops, B.C.
