"Buy Face Creams" at Gibson's. The Church Life, an Anglican weekly, issued in Toronto, which was first published in Kingston, is some eight years ago, has suspended publication until after the war.

"Buy Fruit Saline" at Gibson's. H. Cunningham, piano tuner 21 King street. Leave orders at McAuliffe's Book Store.

"Tan and Sunburn Creams" at Gibson's. Sapper Leo Kavanagh, King street, who left with Queen's Engineers in January, 1915, for Ottawa, and who was at the front, arrived home on Thursday. While at the front he was taken ill and was invalided home.

Solid alcohol and stove complete 35c. Mahood's Drug Store. Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Saunders and daughter Ruth and Master Bruce Saunders, son of W. J. Saunders, Beverley street, have left for Chicago after spending a few days in the city.

Beef, Iron and Wine, 50c, Gibson's. Are the Presbyterians in league with the Weather Man? It looks like it. There was one Presbyterian picnic Thursday afternoon at Ophry's Point and another at Lake Ontario Park, and the big rain storm followed a narrow path between the two places.

"Tan and Sunburn Creams" at Gibson's. Provost, Brock street, has this year an extra fine assortment of Tweeds, Chevots and Serges for his order clothing department. His ready-made clothing and gents' furnishing departments are well assorted with new goods.

"50c Beef, Iron and Wine," Gibson's. Capt. Frederick Reid of the Fire Department acknowledges the receipt of parcels of clothing from the following for the Belgians: Mrs. Asselstine, Major Hamilton, Mrs. McPedrigue, Mrs. R. A. McLelland, Mrs. Frank Sallibury, Mrs. D. Buchanan, Mrs. Gildrieve, and also from four friends.

"Buy Talcum Powders" at Gibson's. Synod's Executive Met. The Executive Committee of the Diocese of Ontario met Thursday afternoon for reorganization of the various committees. Bishop Bidwell announced that arrangements were being made to convene the diocese in connection with the increase in the stipends of the clergy engaged in mission parishes. A canon providing for this increase was adopted at the meeting this week of the Synod.

Soldier Stricken On Street. Thursday night about 10.30 o'clock Pte. A. J. West was stricken with convulsions at the corner of Bay and Montreal streets. He was taken into Dumphy's confectionary store and Corbett's ambulance removed him to the Hotel Dieu. He is reported to be somewhat better.

With Appropriate Music. On the evening of Montreal's civic election day the grill room of the Windsor Hotel was crowded with guests who, between courses, listened with keen interest to the bulletins announcing the results of the polling. When the returns for the mayoral contest were sufficiently full to make it certain that the metropolitan of Canada was to endure for two more years the vagaries of Mederic Martin, a veritable Merry Andrew among civic dignitaries, one of the diners called a waiter and asked him to take a note to the orchestra leader. A few moments later the opening strains of a new number were heard, and a wave of laughter swept the room as those present recognized the air and took up the words of the first line: "When you come to the end of a perfect day."

Shanghnessy's Advice. Sir Thomas Shanghnessy, who has been raised to the peerage, is president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the largest railroad corporation in the world, says The Tatler. The new peer, as becomes an Irishman, is a very keen and genial humorist. On one occasion a train containing several well-known public men was snarled up, and one of the party, hoping to get help from the head of the railway, sent the following telegram to Sir Thomas: "We are snarled up, and have only three biscuits and one egg-sandwich among forty people. What do you recommend?" In about an hour's time the answer came back as follows: "Patience and prayer," Shanghnessy.

Many a man has made a monkey out of himself trying to ape his betters.

"Buy Face Creams" at Gibson's. Miss L. A. Webster, teacher in the East Ward school, Brockville, intends shortly to take up residence in Montreal, and with that end in view has resigned. The teachers presented her with an address and wrist watch.
