

FORDOMINIONDAY

The First of July comes on Saturday this year and will be celebrated on Monday. So if you wish you can make the most of it and celebrate on the first and third.

Just think how much better you'll feel and how much more your friends will admire you if you appear in a Livingston Suit. See our suits at $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00.

Then we have breezy shirts, summer underwear, hosiery, and all sorts of togery, at prices you'll pay very willingly. We've a lot of cool things in store for you and your pocket book will hardly feel the touch.

Livingston's,

Brock Street.

A little out of the way but it will pay you to walk

BAKERS GIVE UP BUSINESS

BECAUSE THEY CANNOT SECURE MEN TO WORK.

H. Laugher and James Schofield, Both of Princess Street, Have Gone Out of Business.

Owing to the scarcity of labor in the city a number of the local bakers in the city have been forced to go out of business. Among the latest are H. Laugher and James Schofield, Princess street bakers, and they had a very good trade in the city. Both have tried all over the country to procure bakers, but have been unsuccessful in their efforts. Accordingly they have been forced to suspend baking, and it is the opinion of Mr. Schofield that he will not be able to start his business again until the end of the war.

The reason alleged is that many bakers have gone into the Army Service Corps and are now either serving in Canada or overseas. Other bakers around town report that it is very difficult to procure satisfactory help, and that the price of bread may go up at any time.

There seems to be a scarcity of delivery drivers, and the merchants are having great difficulty in delivering the goods on time. Young boys are now being employed on work that really should be done by men.

In Bivouac And Barracks

(See also Page 9.)

Col. T. D. R. Hemming, Camp Commandant, inspected the 146th Battalion Friday afternoon.

Albert Hope, 14th Regiment Guard, has transferred to the 146th Battalion for overseas service.

Pte. L. K. Cameron, 146th Battalion, has been promoted to be sergeant.

The Bank of Montreal branch at the camp was operating on Thursday and Friday for the cashing of cheques at the regular semi-monthly pay.

A cable has been received to-day by a citizen stating that the 7th Battalion had arrived safely in England. It recently left Ottawa, where it had spent the winter.

Capt. C. P. Cotton, who fell at Zillebeke, was the recipient of the Distinguished Order of Valour Medal from the Czar of Russia. His brother Ross was killed in the Canadian counter-offensive at Zillebeke, and another brother, Lieut. Harry Cotton, died on the South African field.

Lieut. C. P. Cotton was engaged to be married to Miss Jean George, daughter of W. K. George, Toronto.

Lieut. Gill, of Victoria Harbor, is in command of a draft of the R. C. H. A. going to Petawawa.

Automobile No. 71, of the C. P. A. S. C., ran against the curb on Ontario street, Thursday night, and smashed a wheel. No person was hurt.

All the battalions in camp, with the exception of the 146th, will hold a route march to Kingston Mills on Sunday morning.

J. C. Gwillim, Union street, left Friday for Valenciennes, where he will assume his duties as a lieutenant in the Canadian Engineers for overseas service.

SOLDIER GETS MEDAL FOR GALLANT RESCUE.

Pte. Peter Banfield Saved Harold Blakely From Drowning at Trenton.

Lieut.-Col. M. P. Adams, of the 155th Battalion, at Barriefield camp, has received a medal from the Royal Canadian Humane Society, asking that it be awarded to Pte. Peter Banfield, of his battalion, for saving Harold Blakely from drowning at Trenton in December, 1915.

Col. T. D. R. Hemming, camp commandant, has been asked to make the presentation.

KINGSTON CASUALTIES.

Robert Miller Killed in Action—J. Doyle Missing.

In the casualty lists, the name of Robert Miller is given as having been killed in action. Mr. Miller enlisted in March, 1915 as a private with the 39th Battalion and went overseas with that unit. He was the son of Peter Miller, who formerly lived on Wellington street, and before the war was with the 4th Hussars.

J. Doyle Missing. J. Doyle is reported missing. His address is given as 42 Montreal street, but nobody by that name has resided at that address for some years at least.

MISREPRESENTATION ALLEGED.

Barriefield Resident Appeared Before Lt.-Col. Hunter.

Harvey Campbell, of Barriefield, appeared before Lt.-Col. Hunter, Friday charged with selling a boat under misrepresentation and with disobeying a summons, and was remanded for eight days. It is alleged that for $4 Campbell sold to John Cummings, of Barriefield, a boat that belonged to another resident. The owner recovered his boat, and Cummings took out a summons charging Campbell with misrepresentation. Campbell disobeyed the summons, and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

"Buy Talcum Powders" at Gibson's. Mrs. Margaret A. Caverley, Madoc, announces the engagement of her only daughter, Myrtle Dorland, to Frederick Edwin Houston, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Houston, Tweed, Ont., the wedding to take place quietly the latter part of June.

Saturday's Illustrated Whig.

The Kingston page in the illustrated section of to-morrow's paper will be one of the most attractive and varied which has been produced for some time. Among the local pictures are the following:

Junior III. Class, Victoria School. Major C. F. Constantine. Capt. Andrew McCully, 21st Battalion.

Sergt. Frederick A. Haffner. Pte. Joseph Brown and four sons, all in uniform.

Gunner W. C. Beattie, 33 Battery. Pte. A. Cluskey, 48th Highlanders, a prisoner in Germany.

Pte. F. Martin, late of the 6th C.M.R. Pte. Edward McKegg, 21st Battalion.

Drummer A. W. Byron, 146th Battalion. Private William Boyd, 146 Battalion.

Corpl. Roy McBride, 21st Battalion.

The out-of-town pictures are also unusually attractive. The front page is devoted to a series of pictures depicting the damage sustained by British warships in the recent naval battle off Jutland. Among other interesting scenes are the following:

Armored French train in the Vosges Mountains. Dog trenches on Verdun front. Australians in France.

Arrival of Shackleton expedition at New Zealand. Germany's submarine liner. United States Admiral Mayo.

Crown Prince Carol of Roumania. Latest picture of David Lloyd-George.

Probationers of the Methodist Church of the London Conference. Etc., etc.

LATE GERALD FLYNN PRAISED

FORMER EMPLOYER PAYS TRIBUTE TO HIS WORTH.

Mr. Flynn Was Killed in Explosion in Munition Factory at Parry Sound—Sister Died Few Months Ago and Brother Was Wounded in Battle.

The home of L. A. Flynn, 129 Durham street, was plunged into deepest sorrow when the sad intelligence reached there early on the afternoon of June 23rd that his son Gerald had succumbed to injuries received in the explosion which took place June 21st at the Nobel Munition works of the Canadian Explosives Ltd. at Parry Sound.

He, until very recently, had been on the staff of the Standard Bank of this city, resigning his position early in May, and engaging with the above company for a short time prior to enlisting for overseas service. He intended leaving there July 6th.

His untimely death came as a great shock to his many friends and acquaintances. The manager of the Bank, in referring to him, spoke as follows:

"It was with the greatest regret that I heard of the death of Gerald Flynn, who on our staff for somewhat over three years, and during which time we considered him a very valuable man. He voluntarily left our service for the purpose of taking part in the defence of his country, which he felt to be his duty. We assured him that his position would be kept open for him, and would have been more than pleased to have had him return and fill it, as we expected would have been the case at the end of the war, and though he was not on the firing line, he was filling no small part in the present conflict."

Gerald Flynn was born at Cataract July 13th, 1895. His boyhood days were spent at Vankleek Hill, he being educated at the Collegiate Institute of that place, and later filling a position in the Hochelaga Bank there for a short time before coming to Kingston in 1912.

He was of a bright, genial disposition, which endeared him to many, and especially in his home is his loss most keenly felt.

His remains were brought home Saturday afternoon, June 24th, at four o'clock, from his father's residence, Rev. H. E. Curry officiating. The boys of the Standard Bank acted as pall-bearers.

A brother, Clifford, who went overseas with the 79th Highlanders of Winnipeg, was recently wounded in battle, and is now in the Boulogne Hospital, France.

A sister, Miss Greta, who was highly esteemed, passed away a few months ago.

Much sympathy is extended to the family because of the sore trials which they have been called upon to undergo.

OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. McMaster.

On Friday morning there passed to rest an aged resident of the city in the person of Elizabeth Jane Scott, widow of the late Francis McMaster, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bruce Keill, Queen street.

The late Mrs. McMaster was born in Ballyobigan, near Belfast, Ireland, eighty-nine years ago. In 1856 she came out with her husband to Canada and settled on Amherst Island, where she lived for a number of years. After the death of her husband she moved to Collin's Bay and for the last twenty-four years lived there and in Kingston.

The deceased was a member of Cooke's Presbyterian Church. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Pearl Keill, Wisconsin; Mrs. Martin Dexter, Michigan; and Mrs. Bruce Keill of this city; and by one son, James McMaster.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At The Grand.

"The Fireman." Charlie Chaplin's latest release is creating quite a sensation at the Grand Opera House where there is a fine programme for the last part of this week. Charlie is funnier than ever and keeps the audience roaring all the time. He is supported by an exceptionally fine cast, which is headed by Edna Purviance, and which comes in for some good work, the daily drill of the firemen being one of the most amazing ever witnessed. Moreover the chief is involved in a tempestuous love affair, until Chaplin robs him of the girl, that should afford much mirth. An elaborate setting, most of it destroyed before the end of the picture, has been furnished the comedians, the most notable thing being a marvellously contrived engine, which, under the strain of running to a fire, comes apart peaceably, and is left scattered along the path of the intrepid driver. The famous Players five-reel-feature; Comedians Collier, in "The Code of Marcia Gray," the Paramount Travel series, and a new feature of the programme is a Pathe "From Kitchen Mechanic to Movie Star."

All this, with a programme together with a first-class vaudeville act, Miss Kada Clark in English character and operatic singing completes the best bill yet seen at the Grand. This same programme will be repeated to-night and Saturday matinee and night.

At The Strand.

"Mae Marsh" who is featured in "Hoodoo Ann" the 5-act Triangle picture shown at the Strand last evening came in for some very favorable comments, for her very clever work, from the patrons as they left the theatre. Miss Marsh who played the part of the little sister in the "Birth Of a Nation" is given more scope in "Hoodoo Ann" to display her talents and she certainly proved herself equal to the occasion.

"By stork delivery," a two reel Keystone comedy, featuring "Mack Swain," "Uphelia," a one-reel Lubin in drama and "Snoop Hounds," a one-reel Kalem comedy complete the program. The same bill will be repeated again to-night and at the Saturday shows.

At Griffin's.

The management of Griffin's Theatre announces for Friday and Saturday the popular actor, William Farnum, in a five-part photodrama of exceptional strength, "Fighting Blood," portraying the life of a minister who goes west to preach the Gospel, and the obstacles put in his way. This is without doubt a strong subject, and those who witnessed the splendid work of Mr. Farnum in "The Spoilers" will surely appreciate this strong subject, and those who did not should not miss this opportunity.

Lake Ontario Park.

The large crowd at Lake Ontario Park last evening was highly delighted with the ideal programme presented. Dan Glenny gave some clever and funny acrobatic stunts. Birch and Birch, in addition to singing and flute selections, played several pieces on the harp. The new pictures were exceedingly pleasing, especially a two-reel photo play, "The Work of a Woman" and a comedy play, "An Eye Too Many," and several others. The same bill will be presented for the rest of the week.

Change in Train Service.

Commencing July 3rd, Canadian Pacific trains Nos. 37 and 38 will arrive and depart from Toronto Union Station, instead of North Toronto. These are the new trains operating between Toronto and Ottawa.

Over Million in Exports.

The exports from this district to the United States for the first six months of this year will total about $1,020,000. There has been an increase in nearly every item. There has been a considerable increase of iron ore from the mines near Trenton.

Tug Emerson Ashore.

The Donnelly Wrecking and Salvage Co. boats were called out on Friday morning to release the tug Emerson and the barge Burmah, which have gone aground near Morrisburg.

146th Church Parade.

The 146th Battalion will parade to St. Andrew's Church Sunday morning, July 2nd, at 11 o'clock. Service by the Rev. Dr. Gordon, Queen's University.
