OFFICER AT PRISON TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS.

William Holland Retires From the Staff Owing to Ill-Health.

William Holland, chief night watchman at the Portsmouth penitentiary, has resigned, after a service of almost twenty-seven years. His resignation comes as a result of ill-health. He has been off duty for some time.

Mr. Holland is one of the oldest members of the staff, and has always proved himself a most efficient officer, and he leaves with the sincere regret of all his comrades, who express the hope that the much-needed rest will improve his health.

Mr. Holland was appointed on the penitentiary staff on August 1st, 1889.

SOLDIERS CHEERED AT THE GREAT NEWS.

Whig Sent Word of British Drive To Battalions on March.

The battalions at Barrieffield Camp held a route march to Kingston Mills on Saturday morning. The men were on their way to Kingston Mills when news of the great British drive arrived over the wires. The Whig got into communication with Kingston Mills and informed the soldiers of the good news. Three or four soldiers drove through the lines telling of the great drive, and immediately there was great cheering.

Should Ring All Bells.

If the big drive of the British and French on the western front continues, citizens think that all the city bells should ring out this evening in honor of the great event, which has occurred on Canada's national day.

Back on Firing Line.

Fireman Murray, who went overseas with the 21st Battalion, in a letter to Capt. Frederick Brad states that he is back on the firing line again after being laid up in an hospital for six weeks suffering from wounds.

The Bishop of Kingston left on Saturday for Rochester, where he will assist at the marriage of the daughter of Rev. Dr. Goodwin, rector of St. Paul's Church in that city.

For Tan and Sunburn buy Face Creams at Gibson's Red Cross Store.

On Saturday Sergt. James Bateson celebrated the twenty-sixth anniversary of his joining the police force.

Pickles and relishes at Pickering's.

A fountain will soon be placed at the corner of Albert and Ellis street. "Tan and Sunburn Creams" at Gibson's.

Individual Eye Care

Two persons' eyes are exactly alike. Glasses that correct one person's vision will probably injure another's.

Each eye must be examined separately. We prescribe glasses only after the most careful examination with scientific instruments.

Every lens we supply is ground specifically for each case in our own factory.

You are assured accuracy and prompt service in trusting your eyes with us. Appointments made for any evening.
