Cataraqui. The funeral of the late W. R. Sills took place on Friday afternoon from his late residence, 15 Mack street, to Cataraqui, where the remains were placed in the vaults. The burial services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, assisted by Rev. T. W. Savary. Dr. Macgillivray spoke very earnestly and sympathetically about the deceased, who had added greatly to the sum of intelligence in the city during his lifetime. The pa!lbearers were: W. G. Anderson, Dr. H. T. J. Coleman, J. G. Elliott, J. M. Elliott, T. M. Asselstine, and Colin A. McPherson. 'Many sympathizing friends were in attend ance, including friends from Lennox county. Floral tributes were laid on the casket by the Board of Education, the Curling Club, and the Bowling Club.

Nathan F. Dupuis, emeritus professor of mathematics in Queen's University, under whose instruction the late Mr. Sills had shown wonderful ability, was present to show his sympathy and esteem for the deceased and his family.
