FOR FIRST TIME IN MONTH INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

KINGSTON FIRE DEPARTMENT WAS GIVEN RUN WEDNESDAY.

It was for a small blaze on roof of a house on Arch Street—"Safety First" Methods Are Being Applied Here.

The quiet spell with the local fire department has been broken. For the first time since June 8th, almost a month, Chief Armstrong and his squad of firefighters were called out at noon on Wednesday.

The call was to the home of Miss O'Donnell, at 54 Arch street, where sparks, supposed to have come from a neighbor's chimney, set fire to the shingles on the roof. Damage to the extent of about $25 or $30 was done. The alarm was rung in at 12.40 o'clock.

For the firemen not to be called out in a month's time is certainly some record. It is usual during the summer season for the men to have a great many runs for grass fires, but the wet weather has no doubt did away with any trouble that might have resulted from this source.

The fact that there has not been any calls, however, goes to show that citizens have been standing by the "safety first" methods in regard to the starting of fires.

A PINT OF WHISKEY THE MAXIMUM SALE.

Definite Instructions to Druggists—No Orders by Phone.

No more telephone orders for whisky!

The License Board has distributed to all dentists, physicians, druggists and veterinary surgeons in the Province of Ontario a blue book, which will govern their conduct in the matter of requisitions for liquor. Hitherto a doctor could phone up a drug store and tell the attendant to give a patient a certain amount of liquor. Sometimes the druggist was deceived by this method, and the License Board is bound that such practices must cease. The blue book contains a form which must be filled out by the physician and signed by the person to whom the liquor is delivered, saying plainly how much liquor is required and what the disease is.

Only six ounces may be prescribed for internal use, but a pint may be obtained if the patient is to be bathed. The prescription may be filled only once, and must be filed for purposes of record.

The blue book also contains sections of the Ontario Temperance Act for the convenience of the physicians and druggists of the province, defining their powers and duties and the penalties for infractions of the law.

It was sent out Tuesday to all interested parties in the province.

NO CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

Only Nine Members Could Be Mustered On Tuesday Night.

The City Council was to have met Tuesday night for its last regular session until October, but a quorum could not be mustered. Only nine members occupied their seats around the horseshoe when the City Clerk called the roll. Efforts were made by telephone to round up three more members, but failed. Three aldermen replied over the wires that they would come if their presence would make the quorum. If they had come there would have been a quorum, but they did not, and the faithful nine left for home in anything but a happy state of mind.

The members who attended were Mayor Richardson and Alds. Clugston, Cooper, Chown, Kent, Laturney, Nickle, Peters and Wormwith.

Individual Eye Care

No two persons' eyes are exactly alike. Glasses that correct one person's vision will probably injure another's.

Each eye must be examined separately. We prescribe glasses only after the most careful examination with scientific instruments.

Every lens we supply is ground specially for each case in our own factory.

You are assured accuracy and prompt service in trusting your eyes with us. Appointments made for any evening.

ONE YEAR FOR DESERTION.

Pte. Clark, of 93rd Battalion, Sent to Central Prison.

The stiffest sentence yet imposed by Lieut.-Col. Hunter for desertion was meted out Wednesday morning, when Pte. Clarence Clark, of the 93rd Battalion, was given one year in Central Prison. He escaped from the detention camp at Hatfield, where he was serving twenty days for desertion. He was found in Peterborough Tuesday, hiding in a barn.

Clark's home is in Port Hope.

DRIVER THIRTY-TWO YEARS.

Steates That This is the Worst Weather He Has Ever Experienced.

"I have been drawing milk to the cheese factory for thirty-two years," said a farmer to the Whig on Tuesday afternoon, and in all that time I have not experienced such weather as we have had so far this season. You can't tell me anything about the weather, for I had to be out in it every day. Some days the mud was right up to the hubs of my wagon, and with a big load of milk on it was certainly hard work."

Have Done Their Bit.

Word has been received from Flanders of the death of Pte. William Manning, who succumbed on April 28th to wounds received in battle. Pte. Manning, who was in the final year of medicine at Queen's University when he joined the army, was a grandson of the late J. W. Manning, Almonte. Word has also been received from "Somewhere in France" that Pte. Lewis Manning was wounded in battle on June 7th. Pte. Lewis Manning is a son of W. H. Manning, Clinton, and is also a grandson of the late J. W. Manning.

IN MEMORIAM.

Verses for Mrs. Susan Perrin, on the death of her daughter, Etta.

Dear Etta, you have gone from me,
And my heart is sore today.
When I look up at the Father
I know not how to pray.
For you were the light of the home,
And a comfort to me,
With your cheery smile, and helpful hand,
And your bright and winsome way.

But God in mercy called you
From a life of suffering and pain,
And I know that what is my great loss
For you, dear, is heavenly gain.
And so in submission I will bow,
Beneath the chastening rod,
And when my poor heart yearns for you,
I will think of you up with God.

The nights are all so lonely,
And the days so long and drear;
Here and there I find dainty things
My darling used to wear.
No more my dear, my dear, my dear,
No more my dear, my dear,
And what will I do with all these things,
My poor heart is so sore.

But, dear Etta, I know could you speak
to me,
You would tell me not to grieve;
Your life was so full of suffering,
That you often longed to leave,
This world of sin and sorrow,
And be at last at rest,
And so I will bow in submission
Beneath the chastening rod.

No sin is allowed in that City,
And nothing defiling or mean;
No pain or no sickness can enter,
No crepe on the dress can be seen,
Earth's sorrows and cares are forgotten,
No tempter is there to annoy,
No parting word ever is spoken,
There is nothing to hurt or destroy.

—By Mrs. Editha Gilbert.

The new summer home which he has purchased has been made ready for occupancy. It is located nearby opposite Irwin Isle, the summer home of May Irwin, the actress.

THE CITY'S GRATITUDE

Received With Appreciation by U.S. Department of State.

Some time ago U.S. Consul Johnston, at the request of Mayor Richardson and other prominent citizens, wrote the State Department at Washington thanking it and the American ambassador at Berlin for the trouble they were taking in connection with the parcels sent from Kingston for the prisoners of war in Germany.

To-day Mr. Johnston received a letter from the Department of State, stating that it had read with gratification his despatch, and adding that a copy of the despatch would be sent to the American ambassador at Berlin.

N. C. O. WAS DESERTER.

But He Was Allowed To Go on Suspended Sentence.

It is a rare thing for a non-commissioned officer to be charged with desertion, but such a charge was preferred Wednesday morning against a sergeant in the 156th Battalion. The adjutant and other members of the staff made an earnest appeal for clemency, and County Magistrate Hunter allowed the offender to go on suspended sentence.
