lege in 1894. Major Frederick Christian Heneker, serving with the Imperial forces, has been killed in action. He is survived by his widow and two children, his little daughter being born only three weeks ago. They reside at present in England.

Major Heneker was forty-three years of age, and was the third son of the late R. W. Heneker of Sherbrooke, Que. He was graduated from Bishop's College, Lennoxville, and later attended the Royal Military College at Kingston, from which he pointed to a commission in the Royal the rank of captain in a Leinster regiment stationed at Cork. He offered his services on the declaration of war and went to France with the first British force, being severely wounded in the battle of the Marne. Upon his recovery he was promoted to a mjor in the Northumberland Fusiliers, with which regiment he met his death.

NEW YORK STATE CROPS Will Exhibit at Kingston on July Are Going to Be Poor, So Dr. G. W. Bell Reports.

Dr. George W. Bell, who recently spent a couple of weeks at Star Lake, N.Y., states that the crops in that' part of the States are going to be very poor this year. While stopping at this popular summer report, he had the pleasure of meeting Judge Abbott, of Geneva, N.Y., who, like most descendants of the original "Coop of the better class of Americans, would be delighted to see Great Britain win out in this war. The judge seems to think that if Wilson handles the Mexican question satisfactorily that his chances of re-election will be very good. Dr. Bell, his friends will be glad to learn, has returned considerably improved in health.
