

BIG OFFENSIVE AHEAD OF TIME

The Allies' Steam Roller is on Schedule... Preparing For Another Splendid Infantry Rush.

(Special to the Whig.) Paris, July 12.—The Allies' great steam roller is moving eastward through the German lines exactly on schedule time.

Just as any other steam roller must pause to take on coal and for a levelling of the road ahead, the Anglo-French steam roller is halting and preparing for the next infantry rush.

Holding On Tight.

London, July 12.—German troops regained some lost ground in the fighting last night between Mametz and Trones wood, east of Albert, but all other enemy attacks were beaten off with heavy enemy loss.

Re-taking the Ground.

(Special to the Whig.) Paris, July 12.—French troops made a successful counter-attack on the north-eastern front of Verdun last night, recapturing part of the ground captured by the Germans in yesterday's heavy offensive on the Fleury-Chenois line; eighty German prisoners were taken.

HAD FROLIC AT CAMP BORDEN

Some of the Troops Made a Raid on the Camp Restaurant.

ICE CREAM AND CONFECTIONERY RAPIDLY DISAPPEARED.

Today Things Have Got Back to Their Normal State—Battalion are Now Engaged in Cleaning Up and Settling Down to Their New Lives.

(Special to the Whig.) Camp Borden, July 12.—More in spirit of frolic than ugliness, like the night before, some of the troops raided the station restaurant last night, and a considerable quantity of ice cream and confectionery disappeared.

Outside of this there was quietness during the night, and this morning things seem about normal. To give the battalions a chance to clean up and settle down in their new lines, General Logie has called off the regular schedule of training for two days.

Criticized by Mayor Church.

(Special to the Whig.) BRITISH TO SEEK CHANCE

To Sink Big U-Boat—Protests Are Lodged.

Washington, July 12.—British naval vessels will fire upon the German submarine liner Deutschland "at sight." It will be treated as a warship, regardless of any ruling the United States government may make.

If the Deutschland is destroyed by a British warship the State Department will make inquiries.

These facts were made plain at the British embassy and at the State Department to-day.

The British and French embassies protested to the State Department against this government's action in permitting the Deutschland to enter an American port.

They protested also against permitting the Deutschland to take on provisions. They declared to the State Department that the Deutschland is a warship, and therefore is entitled to none of the rights enjoyed by a peaceable merchantman.

MAKING PROTEST.

(Special to the Whig.) London, Ont., July 12.—Soldiers in camp here from Perth declare that they were to a great extent responsible for the liberal victory. BIG RISK TAKEN DECEIVED ENEMY

Thrilling Incident in Fighting in Somme Drive.

RAN OUT OF SUPPLIES

CAPTURE FIVE HUNDRED GERMANS; KILL EQUAL NUMBER.

The Fighting in the Woods in the Vicinity of Pricourt, and the Clever Way in Which the Huns Were Gathered In—When Fresh Troops Came On the Scene the Germans Wilted.

London, July 12.—A thrilling account of an incident in the fighting on the Somme resulting in the capture of 500 Germans and the killing of at least an equal number, was told to the correspondent of the Sun News Service Monday by a high officer who took part in it.

The brigade was composed of men from the North of England, with one battalion from the Eastern Midlands. It had suffered heavily at Loos, and long had desired to get something of its own back.

"The fighting which occurred in one of the woods in the vicinity of Pricourt," the officer said, "was most extraordinary. Officers and men were beyond talking about it. It was like an old peace manoeuvre fight.

"We started with the left flank in the air. Our aim was a belt of woodland surmounting the slopes above a village. Two battalions were sent to attack, one was kept in support, and one in reserve. There was a heavy bombardment from 8.40 to 9 o'clock, when our small trench mortars kept it up to nearly the edge of the wood. The first battalion went over like birds.

"Inside the wood was a space which was supposedly nearly deserted. The enemy sprang to life with endless machine guns and at the same time his bombers and machine guns attacked our right flank.

"Then started a most splendid fight, a really spectacular display. The enemy were a tough lot and fought with determination. Our supports were called for immediately, and when these had been rushed up our reserves were partly thrown in. Bombs ran out, and the ammunition nearly gave out. The machine guns ran out of water and became useless. But everybody played hard and well.

"Things arrived from behind just in the nick of time. The divisional arrangements could not have been better. Engineers' stores turned up in the middle of the battle with which to consolidate the ground won. For three and a half hours the fight went on hand to hand in the wood, yet we could not clear the enemy out. Our position became critical, more particularly when our aeroplanes informed us that the enemy were pouring out of the further part of the wood and were preparing to make a heavy counter-attack. We had only one company left in reserve.

"Then our brigadier took a big risk. The question was, should he keep a reserve in hand to repel a counter-attack, or should he throw the whole of our objective.

"We killed between 800 and 1,000 of the enemy."

The Sister Ship of the Deutschland On Way Over.

(Special to the Whig.) Copenhagen, July 12.—The merchant submarine Bremen left Kiel a month ago for America, but her movements were not reported. She is a sister submarine to the Deutschland, which left June 23rd, and has arrived at Baltimore.

DEMANDING THAT PRESIDENT ACT AGAINST THE BRITISH

champion of the conciliatory policy toward the United States, and the loosening of all the German submarines without restrictions within three months, was predicted by Von Tirpitz' supporters here to-day.

President Wilson acts against the British blockade. Members of the Conservative party and those favoring annexation of the territory conquered by Germany, joined in this forecast.

The fight to oust the chancellor, the beginning of which was reported in the United Press despatches a few weeks ago, has now grown to such proportions that it overshadows in interest the Allied offensive.

The attacks on the Chancellor have gradually grown bolder since the appearance of Prince Buelow's book, "Deutsche Politik," because this book is believed to be the opening of Buelow's campaign to oust the Chancellor and step back into the position he filled until succeeded by the Bethman-Hollweg.

DAMAGES TO AN AUTO

THE FULLER HOUSE IN NEW-BURGH DESTROYED BY FIRE.

This Leaves the Village Without Any Hotel Accommodation—Unwilling of Honor Roll in Grace Methodist Church.

(Special to the Whig.) Napanee, July 11.—Whilst coming toward Napanee from Deseronto, near the cemetery, with his car, J. H. Vanalstine, Napanee, met with an accident which resulted in the front of his car being badly smashed.

In turning out to pass another vehicle, he lost control of the car, which crashed into a telephone pole and rebounded into a wire fence, luckily without injury to the occupants of the car, who escaped with a shaking. The car was later towed into Napanee for repairs.

Early on Tuesday morning fire broke out in the Fuller House, Newburgh, and consumed the whole building. It appears that the proprietor, Harold Fuller, was having a large quantity of meat roasted in preparation for the Orange celebration to be held there on Wednesday, and it is surmised that the overheated stove was the cause of the conflagration. None of the contents of the hotel were saved, as the occupants were all in bed, and barely escaped with their lives.

A large quantity of provisions had just been prepared in readiness for the expected crowd, and everything was lost. The loss is partially covered by insurance. This leaves Newburgh without any hotel. The building was of brick construction, with frame building attached.

A union service was held in Grace Methodist church on Sunday evening, when an honor roll containing the names of those who have been connected with the church and are now serving their King and country was unveiled by Lieut.-Col. G. C. Williams, who also spoke on "The Empire." The capacity of the church was taxed to the limit by the number of people who came to hear him. The following is a list of names of those who have gone from Grace church: Rev. W. H. Emsley, Cameron Wilson, M.D.; Guy Chapman, Wilbur Van Dervoort, Kelvin Herrington, Douglas Young, Stanley Marston Stevens, Vivian Hamby, Eva Emery, Arthur Laughlin, Clark Emmons, Louis Fish, Percy Lucas, Albert Reid, Thomas Cousins, Artur Wilson, Allen Gerow, William Meng, Clarence Kellar, Frank Oliver, Kenneth Cambridge, Harry Loucks, Harold Martin, Louis Meng, Stanley Norris, Eddie Snyder, Ray Denison, Cornelius Mills, Gerald Pollard, George McGregor, George Harner, Percy Sedore, Walter Emsley, Parker Jones, Stanley York, Nelson A. GERMAN SUBMARINE BOMBARDED ENGLAND.

This is Second Attack Upon the British Coast Since War Began.

(Special to the Whig.) London, July 12.—The English coast towns of Seaham Harbor, in Durham, were bombarded during the night by an enemy submarine, the War Office announced this afternoon. One woman was killed.

This is the second time in the war that German submarines have bombarded the British coast.

French Depose the King.

Paris, July 12.—Duy-Tan, the sixteen-year-old king of the French protectorate of Annam, on the China Sea, has been dethroned as a result of a revolt of Annamites at Quang Ngai, which he is accused of having fomented. The governor-general of French Indo-China reports the outbreak was suppressed quickly and the king arrested near Hue. He is succeeded by Prince Dun-Dao, who has just been crowned.

GERMANY FACING HEAVY ODDS

This is the Word That Comes From Berlin to New York.

THE SOLDIERS POORLY FED AND ARE GROWING VERY MUCH DISCOURAGED.

Under the Persistent, Sledge-Hammer Blows of Tremendous Russian Offensive, It is Frankly Admitted Now.

New York, July 12.—A special cable to the New York World from its Berlin correspondent to-day says: With half the German army battling in the west against the combined armies and military resources of France and the British Empire with the other half stemming and holding back the wild, desperate onsets of Russia's millions in the East, Germany to-day is in the vice-like grip of a pressure which, for a time, is likely to increase on all fronts.

Can the British Empire, Russia, France and Italy, with their population of 676,000,000, with their tribute of 676,000,000 whites of Russia's millions in the East, Germany to-day is in the vice-like grip of a pressure which, for a time, is likely to increase on all fronts.

Now, for the first time in the war, the military initiative has passed to the other side. Germany is fighting on the defensive almost everywhere; even westward of Lutsk, Linsingen's counter-offensive has slowed down. Only at Verdun the German Crown Prince is keeping up a slow but strong offensive pressure, gaining ground literally foot by foot.

Germany is fighting day and night against superior numbers in the west, with a bravery to which the other side is giving a lavish tribute of praise. In the east the thin, anemic line of Hindenberg, Leopold, Linsingen and Bothmer is struggling against almost overwhelming odds, often four or five to one.

Fresh armies from Russia's hundred and eighty millions and equipped with ammunition from the arsenals of Japan and America, are beating against those thin lines with the ceaselessness of the sea, that cannot be otherwise than discouraging to the stoutest hearts.

Fed on food that, at the very best, cannot have the strength-giving, force-producing properties which the men on the other side have in abundance; snatching a few hours' rest under a hail of shells and shrapnel, or sitting up straight on the hard wood seats of jammed railroad cars shunted from front to front, from point to point, like stocklocks on the vast loom-like network of the German railways, the German soldier to-day is performing feats of prodigious valour and showing endurance under adverse conditions against great odds.
