FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE

Frontenac

OSO.
July 10.—Many people from here intend taking in the celebration in Mountain Grove on July 12th. The meadows are looking fine in this locality, and the farmers are pleased over the prospect of lots of hay. A wee girl visitor has come to stay with Mr. and Mrs. H. Burke. Mrs. Perry Milton is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Burke. T. G. Burke, Canonto, is holidaying at his home here.

GLENDOWER.
July 11.—Some farmers have started to cut their hay. Quite a few fields of mines have been opened. There is a good show at Aaron Hopplins' mine. There will be lots of berries if the dry weather don't dry them up. Help is scarce for the haying so many have joined the soldiers. Michael Kelly and family went to the States. Mr. and Mrs. Allan Snider, Verona, are visiting at Sanford Leeman's.

WILBUR.
July 12.—The farmers have started haying, and report a good crop. Miss Jessie Jackson returned home on Monday after spending some time in the west. Mrs. R. Alcorn and two children have returned to North Bay, after spending a month at her home. Robert Richardson, junior, has returned home after spending some time in Kingsville. Samuel Jackson made a trip to Kingston this week. Miss Mary Moreau has returned home after spending a month in Pembroke.

HOWE ISLAND.
July 8.—Mrs. David Welch is spending a few days in Kingston with her husband, who is receiving treatment in that city. John Foley, Sr., has bought a milking machine, and also an automobile. A large crowd left here on July 4th on the excursion to St. Anne de Beaupre. Mrs. David Ables left last week for Montreal, where she will spend a few weeks visiting. Miss Stella Cushing was the guest of Mrs. Joseph Cadue for a week. She has returned to her home in Kingston. Sgt. Morley, 93rd Regiment, Kingston, was on the island visiting his relatives.

FOLGER.
July 12.—Haying has commenced. A. T. Stewart has had a hayfork installed in his barn. Messrs. A. Crawford, A. McGonigal and William Prasky, Harrowsmith, spent Sunday at their homes here. Mrs. A. Crawford and children have returned after visiting friends at Tichborne and Clarendon. Misses M. Davis and E. G. Stewart are attending summer school at Sharbot Lake. Mrs. Willard Chasen is staying for the summer with Mrs. R. Davis. Quite a number from here attended Lavant picnic on June 30th. Visitors:—Misses M. Deachman, S. Foxen and Bert Deachman, Flower, at V. Prasky's; Miss B. McCullough, McDonald's Corners, at R. Davis'; T. Ferguson, Thurlow, and Messrs. Loyd and Delbert North, Playfairville, at A. T. Stewart's; Joseph Bain, Fallbrook, at Jas. Simpson's.

PITTSFERRY.
July 11.—The farmers are making good use of the fine weather getting their hay in. The members of the Orange Lodge of Dufferin, Pine Hill and Woodburn, marched to St. John's church, Sunday evening last, and listened to a fine address given by Rev. Mr. Morrison. The Community Aid of St. Lawrence church held a garden party on the church grounds, July 11th, which was well attended. A successful ice cream and strawberry social was held on St. John's church grounds under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid on Monday evening last. Edward Reid has gone to his home on Amherst Island. Quite a number from around here took in the 12th July celebration at Brockville. Mr. and Mrs. R. Barclay, Miss Agnes Thompson, Deseronto, were the guests of Mrs. D. McClement, Sunday last. Miss Agnes McPadden and Miss Lillian McClement spent a few days on Amherst Island.

LEEDS

BREWER'S MILLS.
July 10.—A number of farmers are busy haying. A few from here took in the excursion to Ste. Anne de Beaupre on Tuesday last. Mrs. Urbane Mangan is visiting friends here. Leo Mallen and sister, Kingston, spent Sunday at Peter McKenna's. Miss Josephine Milne is attending summer school at Sharbot Lake. Miss Anna Milne has returned to Kingston after spending her holidays here and at Chesterville. E. Murray, Kingston, is visiting his parents here.

MELCOMBE.
July 11.—Two sisters from St. George's Home, Ottawa, paid a visit to the children from that home in this district last week. Miss Letitia Landon is attending the summer session at Queen's. Mrs. C. H. Hamblin and step-daughter, Mrs. T. Doyle, Vancouver, B. C., visited at Mrs. B. Gavin's last week. Miss Kathleen Ralph, of Kingston, visited relatives here a few days. James Cochrane, R. Headlip, and John V. Lappan have each purchased new automobiles. Misses Mary E. and Aggie Donevan, Escott, are visiting relatives here.

PICTON
July 7.—Farmers will soon be busy with their hay which is a very heavy crop. Strawberries are coming in plentifully now. Much damage was done by the severe electrical storm which passed through the country on Sunday, 2nd inst.

POOLE'S RESORT.
July 11.—School has closed after a successful term and Miss Acton, teacher, is spending the summer vacation at her home in Brockville. The ice cream social held at Grenadier Island on Thursday last, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, proved a splendid success. A surprise party was given Miss Mabel Anderson on Friday evening, when a number of friends gathered at her home. A very pleasant evening was spent by all. Mrs. Charles Williams and children are visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Chauncey Burch, Rockport. Stephen Wilcox has sold his motor boat to Robert Morrow, Echo Lake, and brother, Mr. Booth, of the west, spent week-end, guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Poole. Miss Malsie Guild returned home to Malorytown on Sunday after visiting at Walter Williams'. Mrs. Jones has returned from Athens. Miss May Acton, Brockville, spent a few days recently, guest of Miss Louise Acton. Robert Vanston has rented his house to a party for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter have arrived to spend the summer. Some of the farmers have commenced haying and report an abundant crop.

ALLISONVILLE
Allisonville, July 5.—The Orange-men of this place held their annual picnic on June 30th, in Hiram Valleau's grove near the village. The day being all that could be desired it brought people from all over the country with well-filled baskets. The afternoon was well spent. E.M. Young of Picton filled the position of chairman and addresses were delivered by Rev. W.R. Archer, Wellington, Rev. T. Squire, W. Boulter, Picton, Nelson Parliament, M.P.P., Edward Calman and others, interspersed with choice music from Robbins Mills orchestra. The games and races were interesting and the prize winners were well pleased. The event cleared $120 which will go towards helping erect a new hall which is started on Allisonville square. Everything is about ready for the foundation. The heavy electrical storm which passed over this place on Sunday killed seven hogs owned by William Vance, South Lakeside. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. L. Caughey motored to Napanee on Monday to attend the races and sports. They express

PINE CLIFF.
July 11.—Messrs. Henry Huffman, J. Foster, W. A. Martin, Chas. Amey and Morley Huffman, with their wives and families, have been spending a couple of weeks at Pine Cliff Cottage, Long Lake. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all, weather being perfect, fishing fine, the boats all in good condition, and everyone keeping the motto well in mind. Wray Van Luven called on us on Tuesday afternoon. Kenneth Breoner, Sherbrooke, visited his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, for a few days. Mr. Allan and Miss Grace Huffman spent a couple of days at camp last week. Mr. and Mrs. Will Huffman and Mr. and Mrs. F. O'Neill were with us for a short time. Pine Cliff residents attended camp meeting at Verona last Tuesday evening. A large crowd was present. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Huffman and son, Donald, motored out to camp on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Amey and three children spent Thursday at Pine Cliff. Our carpenters were busily engaged on Friday making improvements in the lower story of the cottage, which greatly improves its appearance. Our genial landlord, Mr. Card, calls occasionally, and is always welcome, especially when he leaves us some proof of his skill as a fisherman. A business meeting was held recently to discuss important matters, one of which was: "When Should Camp Break Up?" After wandering from the subject a number of times, the meeting was called to order and all expressed their opinions. The discussion was continued late into the evening, and it was finally decided to serve lunch and then to adjourn until further notice.

themselves as being delighted with that town. Thirty-three ladies of the Red Cross society met, at the home of Mrs. W. Huycke yesterday afternoon and finished up a good supply of shirts and towels. The hostess served an excellent lunch. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Royal Hick's, July 18th. The Red Cross workers have planned for an ice cream social to be held on July 13th. Mrs. Aurilla Morton arrived home on Thursday after visiting a week in Tweed. Mrs. W. Boyd received word on Monday that her mother, Mrs. G. H. Young of Wellington had fallen on Sunday night and broken her arm in two places. Miss Helen Alexandria arrived home on Thursday from Napanee Collegiate for her summer holidays. Fern Pearsall of Wellington was through this locality on Monday and bought four fine veal calves from Bruce McFaul. Mrs. Ida McFaul, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd of Wellington, spent last week in Allisonville and attended the Orange picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Willet Valleau went to Belleville to-day to attend the funeral of the late Andrew McClearen who died suddenly on Sunday night. Miss Margie Anderson, daughter of Rev. T. H. P. Anderson of Smithfield spent last week with Miss Marjorie Huycke.
