How Frank Slavin Defeated Gotch

How Frank Gotch, champion wres tler, mixed wrestling with boxing against Frank Slavin, the veteran ringman, in the Yukon, is a story just told in London for the first time.

Slavin, who has grown much gray er than he appeared twenty years ago as a ring favorite, is now in England with the latest Canadian contingent years ago when Gotch, under the name of Kennedy, was at Dawson in women into hard physical training the Yukon, trying to fix up wrestling

> Here to-day Slavin staged the story with Jack Londonish settings-grizzled miners looking through blue tobacco smoke at the ring in Dawson's main emporium, Gotch, failing in wrestling matches, agreed to take Sla-

"I laughed, the referee laughed, and in fact we all laughed. The referee said: 'Do you claim a foul?' "I said: 'Well, if I don't, I suppose I'll never be able to come back into the ring again,' so, of course, I got! the decision. But the big American farmer got more money out of it than he ever got for his wrestling bouts

Slavin just now is delighting British sporting writers with his reminiscences. They flock to the military camp, where Slavin's regiment is waiting for the call to France.

In Slavin's 54 years he has been a pioneer in the Australian bush and the Klondike, as well as a leading prize ring favorite in England, America, Australia and Alaska. Before heewas 18 he had made $12,000 in the Australian gold field.

He then came to England and closed five years of boxing with his defeat of Peter Jackson.

Then he went to America and drifted into the prize ring limelight by knocking out Jake Kilrain in less than a round. San Francisco was the next stop.
