LIEUT. WALTER STEACY

HAS BEEN WOUNDED, BUT NO DETAILS ARE GIVEN.

He was in the Artillery Service, and had only recently been sent over to France—His Friends Here Are Anxious.

Word has been received in the city that Lieut. Walter Steacy, son of Edward Steacy, Johnson street, has been wounded. The first telegram received was from Ottawa; to-day the lieutenant cabled from Cambridge, Eng., where he is in hospital, that he had suffered the loss of his right eye.

Lieut. Steacy qualified as a lieutenant at the R. S. A. in Kingston last fall, and was later attached to the 34th Battery, C. F. A. In December he was sent over with a draft from the battery, and for a number of months was stationed in England. About a month ago he was sent to France with the artillery, and since that time has seen action in various parts of the country.

In Marine Circles

The steamer Argo arrived from Erie with a cargo of coal for the locomotive works.

M. T. Co's Bulletin: Tug Bartlett arrived from Montreal, with two light barges and cleared with the barges Winnipeg and Dunmore to load grain at Port Colborne; tug Emerson is due to arrive to-night with the barge Melrose, grain-laden from Port Colborne; the steamer India is due to arrive to-night, with the barge Ungava, from Port Colborne.

The barge W. M. Egan is undergoing repairs at the Kingston Shipbuilding Company's wharf, following her arrival on Friday night at 8.30 o'clock.

The steamship Henry B. Hall cleared for Montreal on Friday night, following repairs at the Kingston Shipbuilding Company's wharf.

The Government steamer Grenville loaded coal at Swift's wharf on Saturday morning.

The ship Ariadne arrived from Rideau Canal port on Friday night.

The schooner J. B. Kitchen cleared on Friday for Owego, to load coal.

WEDDED ON WEDNESDAY.

Marriage of Maud M. Gorrin and Samuel Drysdale.

The residence of Mrs. R. Smith, 197 William street, on Wednesday evening, July 12th, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when her youngest sister, Maud Margaret Gorrin, was united in marriage to Samuel S. Drysdale, inst. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. W. Savary, of St. James' Church, in the presence of about thirty friends.

The bride looked charming in a suit of beautiful white silk, with her only ornament being a necklace and pin, the gift of the groom. Miss Jennie Macrow was bridesmaid, and little Miss Gladys Smith, flower girl, dressed in white, helped make a very pretty picture amidst the abundance of floral decorations.

After partaking of a delicious supper, the bride and groom left at midnight by auto for eastern points, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

Individual Eye Care

No two persons' eyes are exactly alike. Glasses that correct one person's vision will probably injure another's.

Each eye must be examined separately. We prescribe glasses only after the most careful examination with scientific instruments.

Every lens we supply is ground specially for each case in our own factory.

You are assured accuracy and prompt service in trusting your eyes with us. Appointments made for any evening.

HIT BY AN AUTOMOBILE

LITTLE GIRL HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

While She Was Playing Near Her Home on Ontario Street on Friday Night—Auto Was on Way to the Camp.

An automobile which was conveying soldiers to Barrfield camp on Friday night about nine o'clock, struck little Mary Perfield as she was playing with some other children near her home on Ontario street.

The child was knocked down, but pluckily got up again and attempted to walk to the sidewalk. Just as she got to the sidewalk, however, she fell to the ground, and was taken into her home. It was thought for some time that her injuries were more serious than they later turned out to be. Dr. G. W. Mylks was called, and after making a thorough examination found that the little girl was suffering from a bad bruise on her leg.

Saturday morning it was ascertained that the patient was resting easily at her home, and was getting over the nervous shock very well.

Contributing Spiritual Offerings.

The list of spiritual offerings to the memory of the late Mrs. McCormack, as published in the Whig last evening, was not quite complete. The name of Miss Delia Mooney, of Napanee, was omitted from the long list of those who contributed such offerings.
