DIES FROM BULLET WOUND

RECEIVED WHILE OUT SHOOTING WITH A COMRADE.
 A Barnardo Boy Named Cadenhead Received Fatal Wound At Seeley's Bay—Died in Kingston General Hospital.
 On Friday a young lad by the name of Cadenhead was the victim of a fatal shooting accident at the home of Mr. Galloway, about six miles from Seeley's Bay. It appears that the lad, who had been working at the house for about two weeks, and who was a Barnardo home boy of Brockville, went out with the young son of Mr. Galloway. After the Galloway lad's mother went away for a short time about noon, the boys got out an old shotgun to kill ground-hogs. They were wandering around when the Galloway boy saw a hog in the distance, and raised his gun with the intention of shooting it. He pulled the trigger, and the bullet entered the middle part of Cadenhead's chest. It penetrated the ribs, and went into the lad's liver, as he was in a crouching position. The bullet broke a number of the large blood vessels.
 Dr. F. S. Young, of Seeley's Bay, was immediately called, and when he realized the seriousness of the lad's condition brought him to the city, after dressing his wounds and easing the pain considerably.
 When he arrived he called Dr. D. E. Mundell into consultation, and the young lad was taken to the General Hospital, where it was decided that an operation to remove the bullet was necessary. This was immediately performed by Dr. Mundell, assisted by Dr. Young. It was of no avail, however, and the boy died Saturday morning.
 Dr. D. E. Mundell, coroner, decided that death was accidental, and an inquest was unnecessary.

Received Delayed Letters.

The father of a Kingston boy serving at the front has received five delayed letters from his son. It appears that the letters were given by his son to another fellow to post before he sailed for overseas. Just what happened the letters is not known, but a lady found the letters torn into pieces. She took the trouble to put the pieces together, and then sent the letters along with a personal letter to the Kingstonian, who was very much pleased to receive them.
