Mrs. Clarence Kilborn and son. Wilfred, Cape Vincent, N.Y., consulted a specialist in Kingston on Thursday to determine the condition of the lad's nose. Last summer, while playing ball, he was struck upon the Season the Best Enjoyed There bridge of the nose. Bleeding from the nose set in, and the attacks beame severe. The specialist found an abscess on the wall of one nostril. This was treated until entirely healed, but this summer a swelling arose at the side of the nostril, the service of the specialist again sought. It cannot be determined yet whether an operation to remove a portion of the diseased bone may be necessary.
