

Snappy Clothes for Young Men!

Our young men's suits were tailored for us by specialists of acknowledged ability, and are as fine in material and workmanship as they are smart in cut. Nothing freakish, nothing extreme, but they show every desirable and distinctive style of the season, including a number of special models tailored exclusively for our trade and not obtainable elsewhere.

$15.00, $18.00 up to $22.00.

The young man who insists upon fashion's latest whims naturally comes to fashion's headquarters for them, as you know, that means he comes here.

Livingston's,

Brock Street.

A little out of the way, but it will pay you to walk

Mid Summer Sale Linens!

Beautiful fine bleached table linens in new designs, full 72 inches wide, all pure linen at less than present mill prices. 75c, 90c, $1.00 and $1.25 a yard.

Table Napkins in lunch and dinner sizes, best Irish make, in handsome patterns. Special values, from $1.50 to $10 a dozen.

Round Thread, sheer and handkerchief linens in all widths at special prices.

Remnants of bleached and unbleached table linens and towellings, in lengths from 1 to 5 yards at greatly reduced prices.

Summer Dresses and Suits at 1/2 - Price - 1/2

WALDRON'S

In Bivouac And Barracks

Capt. J. M. Wilson, Assistant Director of Dental Services, returned on Tuesday from Petawawa, where he was on duty with the clinic there.

The camp dentists are now engaged on men of the 155th Battalion. Already about two companies of this unit have been attended to.

Lieut.-Col. Maise, P.T., and B. F. officer, was in camp on Tuesday from Ottawa.

The cows that wander over Barrieffield camp must certainly go back home at night pretty well drained of milk as the soldiers seem to take a delight in this sport.

The School of Cookery went to Kingston Mills on Tuesday to carry out field training.

The 75th Battery took a short route march down the Ganaoquoque road on Tuesday morning.

The ground at Barrieffield is becoming dry and hard and cracks have begun to appear.

The examinations for those attending the School of Signalling are being held this week.

At a meeting of a committee representing the different Methodist churches, Saturday night, it was decided to continue the soldiers' club, Brock street church for reading and writing purposes.

Lieut. J. M. Lanos, R. M. C., began a series of lectures to a new class of the I. S. I. yesterday. The officers of the different battalions under Major Barrett had their first talk on the Metric System this afternoon. Artillerymen and these lectures, and others on cognate subjects, especially enlightening and beneficial. Prof. Lanos always gives them, not only free, but with a zeal, conviction and directness which enhances greatly the value of the instruction.

The following nurses have arrived from Winnipeg, and reported to the A. D. M. S., No. 3 Military District, for duty overseas:

Gladys Ellis, Hannah Fagharty and Miss Shaughnessy, who have been at Camp Hughes for some time; Miss M. B. Hern, Regina; Miss Inga Johnson and E. J. Paynter, Winnipeg General Hospital; Miss N. S. Smith, and Miss Hilda Kerruish, Winnipeg. Miss Eva Morikill and Miss Aris Crawford, two other Winnipeg nurses, will leave this week for Kingston. Miss Inga Johnson, of the Winnipeg General Hospital staff, was for several years the assistant lady superintendent at the Winnipeg General. Lately she has been in the social service work in connection with that institution. She is a graduate of the General and has been on the staff since 1907.

Capt. J. V. Doyle, quartermaster of the 155th Battalion, was thrown off his horse while on early morning parade in the lines on Wednesday morning. He was severely bruised, and is now recovering from his injuries at his summer cottage on the St. Lawrence.

Capt. W. F. Fitzgerald, chaplain of the artillery units in Barrieffield camp, gave an address in the "Y" tent on Tuesday evening on the subject, "High Ideals of Love for Man and Country."

A delightful concert was given in the recreation tent of the 154th Battalion on Tuesday night. Among the city people taking part were Misses Phyllis and Frances Devlin and Miss Anita Sutherland. Pte. Hill, of the 154th, gave a selection on the piano. He was formerly organist in the Shakespeare old church at Stratford-on-Avon, England.

TWO CHUMS MEET.

Capt. Howcroft and Sergt. Jackson Greet Each Other in England.

Two well-known Hamilton young men, Capt. Clifford Howcroft and Sergt. Arthur Jackson, who have been separated since the outbreak of hostilities, have met in England, at Bramshott Camp. Capt. Howcroft enlisted in Hamilton with the 84th Battalion, and had been promoted just prior to leaving Canada. When the battalion reached England it was disbanded, and Capt. Howcroft is now with the 67th Western Scott Pioneer Battalion, at Bramshott, where he is a supernumerary captain. Sergt. Jackson is a student of Queen's University, where he was in his third year as a civil engineer. He enlisted with a corps of engineers at Ottawa. He was one of a body of men from the University who laid out Valcartier Camp. Now the two chums are locate together at Bramshott, and are but ten minutes' walk from each other.

VICTIM OF HEART TROUBLE.

Wilbert Sweet Fainted, But Was Soon Revived. At the evening performance at Griffin's Theatre on Tuesday night, Wilbert Sweet, 66 Ontario street, was seized with heart trouble and fainted. He was carried into Corbett's sawney, where first aid measures were taken to revive him. A doctor was summoned, and after the use of some stimulants, he recovered and was taken to his home.

A Wonderful Lakeland.

There are over one thousand lakes in Algonquin Park situated 2,000 feet above the sea. Pure bracing air, good fishing, unrivalled canoe trips, beautiful camp sites, and excellent hotel accommodation. Algonquin Park lies 285 miles west of Montreal, 169 miles west of Ottawa and 295 miles north of Toronto, and is reached by the Grand Trunk Railway. Interesting literature telling you all about it sent free on request.

Poland Water at Gibson's.

THEATRICAL NEWS

Good Bill at Grand.

To-night will be the last time to see Valentine Grant in "The Innocent Lie," and the Carr sisters in their delightful singing and musical offering at the Grand. For to-morrow and the remaining half of the week the feature picture will be "Allen Souls," a story of the conflict ever going on between people of opposite races. In this picture Sessue Hayakawa, the great Japanese actor, will make his debut into stardom. A two-reel Universal photoplay, a comedy, and the Paramount Travel Series will complete a well-assorted pantomimic bill. In the vaudeville will be seen Sam Golden, "The Italian of the Day," in an impersonation and comedy singing act.

At the Strand.

Another big house greeted F. X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in their latest Metro release in five acts, "The Wall Between," at the Strand last evening. For Thursday, Friday and Saturday Madame Olga Petrova will be seen in her very latest picture in five acts, entitled, "The Scarlet Woman," the best which she has ever appeared in.

Lake Ontario Park.

Vaudeville was the chief feature of the entertainments at Lake Ontario Park last evening. Miss Earl's songs gave her ample opportunity for the display of her fine voice. Miss Norma Teigmann's magic touch on the violin won for her unbounded approbation. The pictures were viewed with interest. To-morrow evening there will be new songs and violin selections, while in the pictures there will be an entire change.

OFFICERS REFUSED TO PROSECUTE HIM.

Ottawa Magistrate Declared Soldier Would Disgrace the Name of Canada.

The Ottawa Free Press says: Pte. Oscar Renaud, the soldier from Barrieffield Camp who pleaded guilty in Police Court to stealing $40 worth of clothing from Mrs. Howard Cook, 166 Lyon street, was again remanded till tomorrow.

The officers of his battalion refuse to come to court to say anything about him, so the case was adjourned to see if he is wanted to go overseas. He claims that he was drunk at the time and wants to go overseas if allowed to go.

Magistrate O'Keefe told Renaud he would disgrace the name of his regiment, his country, and other Canadians over there.

BABY'S CLOSE CALL; ALMOST SUFFOCATED

When Fire Started in a Valise At 174 York Street.

When fire started in the home of Robert Warren, at 174 York street, on Wednesday morning, at 9:16 o'clock, a baby which belonged to a woman who was visiting at the house, had a close call from being suffocated. The mother got to the room and made her escape just as smoke was pouring out of the bedroom. The baby was asleep on the bed.

Fire started from some unknown cause in a valise which was filled with clothing. The fire broke through the valise and set fire to the window curtains and the mattress on the bed, and in a short time there would have been a lively blaze raging, if it had not been noticed. As it was the blaze was extinguished with slight damage.

Change in Train Service.

Effective August 1st, C. P. R. mixed train No. 615 timed to leave Kingston at 8:10 a.m. for Refitew, will run tri-weekly, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. No. 616 timed to leave Refitew at 7:00 a.m. for Kingston, will run tri-weekly, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Prof. Symons Not Resigning.

Prof. Norman J. Symons, of Queens', who has received a commission in a North Bay battalion, has not resigned from the staff, but has been given leave of absence during the war. A man will be temporarily appointed to take his work as assistant professor of philosophy.

C.P.R. Harvesters' Excursion.

Farm laborers wanted for harvesting in Western Canada. Canadian Pacific excursion August 17th and 31st.

Neilson's Ice Cream Bricks, Gibson's.

It is reported that some of the inmates of Fort Henry have learned that the trio who escaped a month ago have all secured jobs in the States.

High Class Sweets at Gibson's.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Notices of any character relating to future events, where an admission fee is charged, are inserted in the advertising columns at 10c a line for first insertion and 5c a line for each consecutive insertion; or 10c a line each insertion, if reading matter.

Announcements for societies, clubs, or other organizations of future events, where no admission fee is charged, may be inserted in this column at one cent a word, with a minimum of 25c for one insertion.

The Crusaders' Corner.

Lord Kelvin, president of the Royal Society, professor of natural philosophy in Glasgow University, for over fifty years master and leader in science, said: "I consider the most valuable discovery of my life was that Jesus Christ was my Saviour."

A Splendid Selection of Summer Dresses!

We are constantly receiving new dresses and as soon as one style is sold out there are others ready to take its place. There are just as interesting dresses to show now as early in the season and many novelties added.

Dainty Summer Dresses in

- WHITE VOILE
- WHITE EMBROIDERED VOILE
- WHITE BLACK STRIPE VOILES
- WHITE BLACK CHECK VOILE
- WHITE RICE CLOTH
- FLORAL VOILES
- WHITE PIQUE, AT

$3.50, $3.95, $4.50, $5.00, $5.50
$6.50 up to $15.00

Dainty Creations and Unusual Values in Midsummer Whitewear

We have ready a most attractive collection of Pretty White Undergarments at prices lower than you will get again within the next two years. Come and see them.

Corset Covers, 25c, 35c, 50c up to $2.00
Nightgowns 50c to $5.00

Dainty White Skirts, Drawers, Camisoles in fine nainsook, in Spanish Long Cloth, in Crepe de Chene.

These are worth coming to see even if you are not ready to buy.

John Laidlaw & Son

Whittemore's Dressings for Colored Kid and Satin

- Whittemore's Cleanall 35c
(Will remove spots from any color of kid or satin)
- Whittemore's Grey Polish 35c
(Will renew lustre of Grey Kid)
- Whittemore's Gilt Edge 25c

The Lockett Shoe Store