THE FINDS OF THE SEASON

WALTERS AND HORNSBY ARE THE TWO NEW STARS.

Yankee Catcher and Cardinal Infielder Have Both Shown Wonderful All Round Ability.

The two baseball finds uncovered this season are Roger Hornsby, the Cardinal infielder, and Al Walters, the Yankee catcher. Oddly enough, both are graduates from small Texas town clubs, and, at the outset of the season, neither was given much consideration.

Walters, the best all-round catcher that has come up to the majors since Ray Schalk's time, is the consensus of opinion among baseball men who have seen the peppery young Yankee in action.

And about the young Cardinal, it is said: "He is the most brilliant infielder, the best hitter and brainiest youth that has flashed into view since Eddie Collins cast anchor in the big leagues." Walters from Waco, Texas, while Hornsby was secured from Denison, Texas, a class D town.

Walters' Great Arm.

Walters, first of all, is a wonderful backstop. He pulls heaves out of the air or extracts them from the landscape with as much ease as he snares the straight-overs. Secondly, he has a whip equalled by few men in the game. He is a snap thrower, and pegs with a deadly accuracy. He gets away with the ball with all most the same motion that he grabs it—the trick that marks the difference between ordinary catchers and wonderful catchers.

"Ty" Cobb had heard much of Walters' pegging power. He decided to test out the wing during the recent Yankee-Tiger series. "Ty" took unto himself a twelve-foot lead and then shot for second with the swing of the pitcher's arm. The whirlwind Georgian was touched out standing up—tagged even before he had a chance to slide.

The next time "Ty" essayed a steal he didn't have such a long lead. And then the cocky young Walters showed in what contempt he held Cobb, by playing a bit with the ball before he made the throw to second. And once again the play read: "Cobb out stealing, Walters to Geedeon."

What has happened to Cobb has befallen the majority of other base runners who have tried to pilfer at Walters' expense. Few catchers in the league are in Walters' class as batters. During the first three months of the campaign he whanged the horsehide for an average of .300. Since then he has sluffed out somewhat, yet he ranks to-day as one of the most timely hitters in the game. Walters, as a batter, is never so good as in a pinch.

KELLY ACCEPTS CHALLENGE.

Conditional Upon Winning National Championship at Duluth.

John B. Kelly, of the Vesper Boat Club, will accept the challenge of Lieut. Robert Dibble, Canadian and American champion single sculler, in the Canadian army, if he is successful in the national championships, to be held at Duluth on August 11th and 12th.

Dibble will be unable to compete in the championships, as he is doing military duty, and could not get a furlough from the Canadian army, and the stipulation is that three races will be rowed, viz., one and one-quarter miles, one and one-half miles, and another at three miles, at Barrie on September 17th.

JOHNSON RULES OUT MUSIC DURING PLAY.

Bands must cease playing in American League ball parks while games are in progress, according to a ruling made to-day by President Johnson. His decision was the result of a protest made by the Cleveland Club because Umpire O'Loughlin stopped a band in the Indians' park.

Bowling Games on Thursday.

There were only two scheduled bowling games played at the green on Thursday night. William Jackson's rink maintained itself at the top by defeating W. H. Wormwith's rink by 13 to 9, and H. W. Newman's rink won from H. D. Bibby's by 17 to 12. The rink: C. C. Hodgins, F. Kinnear, Dr. H. T. J. Coleman, William Jackson, skip. J. Stanton, T. Lambert, Dr. R. E. Sparks, W. H. Wormwith, skip.

J. Farrar, W. H. Dyde, Prof. F. H. Day, H. W. Newman, skip. W. King, R. H. Crooker, O. Boyd, H. D. Bibby, skip.

Soldiers Seek Matches.

The lacrosse club representing the Fourth Divisional Ammunition Column, now in training at Petawawa, is seeking games. They would like to hook up with one of the Ottawa City League clubs for a game. Most of the players are from the Pacific coast and their team is said to be exceptionally strong.

John McGraw says he has put over some very important deals in his life, but he never put one over that meant as much for him as the one he just made for Herzog.

BASEBALL BRIEFS.

Another Cuban has come back to the major leagues. Acosta, formerly of Washington, returns to Griff's team, and it is predicted that he is ready to shine as a major leaguer. Griff plans to use him regularly.

Catcher "Rice," who has been handling the Boston National pitchers since the injury of Gowdy and Traggessor, is a Boston schoolboy, whose real name is Arthur Rice.

Hans Wagner, 42 years old, is pressing Robertson and Daubert for leading batting honors in the National League. The old gentleman also is fielding as well as ever.

Tacoma, Wash., sends the following: Carson Bigbee, outfielder for the Tacoma team of the North-western League, has been sold to Pittsburgh. It was unofficially reported that the price was $5,000. Bigbee is in his first year of professional baseball, having come to Tacoma from the University of Oregon. His batting record thus far is .350, and he has stolen fifty bases. He will report at the end of the season.

The Chicago Cubs have purchased Third Baseman Sickling of the Norfolk club to the Virginia League. He has a batting average of .326 for 85 games and was sought by four other clubs. He will join the Cubs about August 15th.

Ritter, the former Toronto player, turned over by the Giants to Rochester, was turned over by the latter to Louisville, but the latter sent him back to Rochester because he was not in condition.

Bill Bradley, the former Toronto third baseman, has started an action against the Brooklyn Federal League club for salary amounting to $7,500 for 1916.

The veteran Bobby Wallace, former American League umpire, has signed to play the remainder of the season for the St. Louis Americans. He will probably be used at third base.

Germany Shaefer recently started to play golf, and during one of his trips to Pittsburg he played a round on a local course. The comedian knows only a few of the terms of the game, but his power of expression and sense of humor stood him in stead in explaining his score on one of the holes. It appears that Germany holed out on a long hole in four strokes. He made a splendid drive, a good brassie shot which carried him to the green, and then he sunk the ball in two putts. Asked about his score, Shaefer said he was poor on all the holes except one. "On No. 7," he said, "I went in with a triple, a double, and two bunts."
