FOUND LYING IN A PARK

YOUNG WOMAN PROSTRATE UNDER TREE MONDAY NIGHT.

Taken to General Hospital—Was on Her Way Home When She Was Overcome by the Heat and Took Convulsions.

On Monday night about nine o'clock as some people in an automobile were passing along King street they saw the prostrate form of a young woman lying on the ground in the park under a tree, and so unusually still that the automobile was stopped so that the occupants could enquire as to her condition. When they reached her they found that she was in an unconscious condition. The party immediately drove to the police station and took Constable Thomas Mullinger to the park.

The constable examined the girl, and, realizing that she was in a very serious condition, put her in the automobile and took her to Dr. I. G. Bogart's office on Wellington street, where further examination was made. A call was sent for Corbett's ambulance, which removed the girl to the General Hospital. At this time her condition was regarded as quite serious, as she was delirious and in a palsied condition.

Earl Tuesday morning the girl had improved somewhat, and, although she was unable to speak or hear, she had recovered sufficiently to be able to write. Her name was ascertained in this way to be Dorothy Hendrick. She has a sister living at the Pioneer Apartments, 212 Division street. It is understood that the young lady had been at her uncle's house, and had started home, stopping in the park to rest. While there she was overcome with the heat, and had convulsions, which left her in an unconscious condition. She has improved very much, and there seems to be no doubt as to her recovery.

She has not been paralyzed in any way, and will be able to leave the hospital shortly. She was not attacked in the park, as was rumored, and no marks of violence were found. She and her sister came to the city lately.

SUBMARINES HIDE OFF MAINE COAST.

Lookout Sees Craft Submerge After British Observer Sounds Alarm.

Machiasport, Me., Aug. 8.—Capt. Small of the Cross Island coastguard station reported yesterday that his station had sighted two submarines bound west. Their nationality could not be determined, but the captain said he had no doubt that they were undersea craft. The first submarine, undersea craft, was coming to the surface when it was sighted, and after running awash fifteen minutes again submerged. It was thought that one of the vessels might be the German submarine Bremen. So far as can be learned there are no United States submarines off the Maine coast.

The lookout who sighted the first submarine later said that he picked the vessel up in clear weather five miles to the south-west. As the vessel came to the surface the lookout said he heard several blasts from the signal horn at the lighthouse on Seal Island, a British possession.

It is believed that the lighthouse keeper was signalling to the keeper at Grand Manan light, also British owned, that a submarine had been sighted.

Immediately after the whistle the submarine submerged. A few moments later a haze set in and it was impossible to see more than four miles off Cross Island.

NEW YORK CAR STRIKE HAS BEEN SETTLED.

Service Resumed on Tuesday With Men Granted Right To Organize.

New York, Aug. 8.—The strike on the surface railway lines here, which threatened to extend to the subway and elevated systems, and thus completely tie up transportation facilities in Greater New York, virtually came to an end last night.

Directors of the New York Railways Company and the Third Avenue Railway Company, the two lines affected, voted to accept a plan of settlement proposed by Mayor Mitchell and Oscar F. Straus, chairman of the First District Public Service Commission, after representatives of the strikers had agreed to it.

Soon afterwards it was announced that normal service would be resumed this morning on the lines which ratified the agreement.

One of the chief concessions in the settlement gives to the employees the right to organize, which was the issue the strike leaders said they were determined should be fought to the end.

The companies agree to treat with grievance committees of their employees irrespective of the fact that they may belong to a union.

Wage demands will be arbitrated, the provision being made that negotiations must not begin later than August 20th.

Major W. D. Johnston, named as commanding officer of the battalion to be raised in Peterboro and North Hastings, is a brother of Lieut.-Col. T. J. Johnston, O. C. 93rd Battalion, overseas.

Major Johnston's home is in Otonabee. He has been identified with the Third Prince of Wales Dragoons, and his long service in the Canadian militia will help him in the task of raising an overseas battalion. Like his brother, the major has always been very popular with officers and men who have served under him.

His son, Lieut. T. D. Johnston, who enlisted here with the 8th Mounted Rifles, was recently reported as wounded and a prisoner of war.

TO AIR ARMY SCANDAL IN COURT AT ONCE.

Officers Involved Want Investigation To Proceed, Lloyd George Announces.

London, Aug. 8.—David Lloyd George, secretary for war, in the House of Commons to-day moved the second reading of the bill giving civilians the right to appear before military tribunals as witnesses, and also providing that in cases wherein civilians were implicated the court might be composed of civilians as well as officers.

This is the bill which has given rise to rumors of the coming trial of a high official of the war office, Lloyd George mentioned no names, but said that all the officers concerned courted the fullest inquiry, and desired that whatever court was set up should proceed with an investigation without loss of time.

Replying to a request for the name of the supposed culprit, Lloyd George said he was seeking to "protect the honor of a young Irish Catholic soldier against accusations involving dishonor."

THE WILSON POLICY CALLED SHAMEFUL.

Republic Candidate, Hughes, Emphasizes Vacillation of Executive in Crises.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 8.—Charles E. Hughes, in the first set speech of his transccontinental trip, last night assailed the administration vigorously for its foreign policy, its Mexican policy, for appointing men whom he termed inexperienced to diplomatic posts, and for what he characterized as "a raid upon the civil service of the United States."

"He kept us out of war," Mr. Hughes said, referring to the President and a Democratic campaign slogan. "Yet we seized Vera Cruz. That was war—very ignoble war. And it was called war over the bodies of those dead soldiers—it was called a war of service."

"Talk about what is your policy. What is the President's policy—does any one know? Has the executive ever had a policy for more than six months on the Mexican question? I repeat: Who knows to-day what the policy of the administration will be three months hence?"

"My friends, the trouble is that this administration has written such a record that no matter what it says, you do not know whether it will stick to it."

"We have had an exhibition during the past three years which, I confess, fills me with a deep sense of shame. I have not a particle of militaristic spirit in my system, but if I am elected president I will see to it that American rights in Mexico are respected."
