WOMAN ACTED DISORDERLY

AT LAKE ONTARIO PARK ON THURSDAY EVENING.

Fined by County Magistrate Hunter—Wife of Soldier Overseas and Mother of Five Children.

Her husband overseas and the mother of five children, the youngest of whom is only fifteen months old, a woman appeared before County Magistrate Hunter Friday morning, charged with being drunk and disorderly at Lake Ontario Park and fined $2 and costs. This she will be able to pay out of her allowance from the Patriotic Fund. In all she gets about $65 a month, but the sudden prosperity was too much for her, causing her to fall into evil ways, particularly into intemperance. The magistrate exacted a promise from her that for the sake of her husband and children she would endeavor to lead a better life. The evidence for the prosecution showed that she put on some disorderly vaudeville at the park. She threw chairs around, and, with sleeves rolled up, walked about looking for someone to fight. She was finally taken in charge by the military police, but was rescued by a gallant soldier, who himself was arrested. The woman made her escape and went to sleep on the tracks. Fortunately she was discovered in time, and, placed on a car, was brought to the city police station, where she was locked up.

THINK THEY CAN RUN A COAL YARD HERE.

Trades and Labor Men Discuss the Co-operative Plan.

A special meeting of the Trades and Labor Council was held on Thursday evening. Great preparations are being made for the Labor Day picnic and the holiday this year will be celebrated with big festivities.

The report of the committee on the commencement of a co-operative coal yard in Kingston was brought in. The matter was thoroughly discussed, and it is thought that the project can be accomplished with success.

Lots of Replies.

"You may discontinue my advertisement for furnished rooms," said a new arrival yesterday, "as I have obtained just the room that suits us to perfection. Say, you should see—and of course you did see—all the replies I got. The Whig is certainly a wonder. Wife and I had our choice of dozens of fine locations and answers to that ad, are still coming in. I am now finely located and hope to enjoy life in Kingston."

DARLINGSIDE DOINGS.

The Rain Will Do Much Good to the Crops.

Darlingside, Aug. 10.—We had a splendid rain here yesterday and a good shower last night. It was much needed, and will do a world of good, as pastures, gardens and grain were withering up for the want of it.

The funeral of the late Allan Robinson, King street west, was held on Friday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. Alfred Brown, pastor of Sydenham Street Methodist Church, and was attended by many of deceased's friends, who grieve at his untimely and tragic end.

After the service the remains were interred in Cataract cemetery. Those who acted as pallbearers were John Davy, Robert Smith, Stanley Gee, Charles Ryan, Charles Bailey, and Paul Shtagne.

THEATRICAL NEWS

Mary Pickford At Grand.

Loud were the praises which the entertainment at the Grand Opera House last night received from the many who attended this popular centre of high-class photoplays and polite vaudeville. The Famous Players offering was "The Eternal Grind," a drama of humanity, in which Mary Pickford plays the sympathetic and touching role of the overworked, hard-driven little slave of the machine. Others seen were a three-reel Universal Photoplay, "The Upstart," a comedy, "When Lizzie Went to Sea," and the Paramount Travel Series. The headlines in the vaudeville bill were Seymour and Dupree. Seymour does some phenomenal leaping and Miss Dupree does some Swiss dances which were well received. Good singing and playing on various instruments helped to make this act a decided hit. Same programme to-night.

At The Strand.

"Greater Love Hath No Man" in five superb acts with that sterling stage favorite, Emmet Corrigan in the leading role was shown to a very appreciative audience at the Strand last evening. "The Great Deceit," 2-reel Essanay drama; "Her Quarter of an Hour," featuring Lillian Walker and "When Willie Holds the Purse Strings," starring Ford Sterling and Fred Mace, complete as strong a bill as has ever been presented here. Same programme to-night.

Lake Ontario Park.

There was an immense crowd at Lake Ontario Park last evening. Miss Hart, the popular young soprano, sang sweetly "Until," "Like a Rose," "There's a Long Lone Trail to You." Victor Faust, the rube musician, sang "My Girl Irene," and played "The Mocking Bird," "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Most Endearing Young Charms," and danced "The Chicken Reel." The pictures were excellent, especially "Diana of the Faron" and the Pathe News, specializing war scenes at the front. The same bill will be repeated to-night.

CAPT. R. ROBINSON PAINFULLY INJURED

While Boarding Train to Come to Kingston to Attend Brother's Funeral.

As soon as Capt. Robert Robinson, paymaster of the 146th Battalion, received the telegram announcing the death of his brother, Allan Robinson, he immediately made haste to get to Quebec from Valcartier Camp. He had very little time to catch the train and after speeding to the city saw the train pulling out as he reached the station.

Just as he was jumping on the train he came hot in the way and he was thrown off receiving painful injuries to his legs and knee cap.

He was forced to wait six hours for the next train but arrived in time for the funeral of his brother Friday afternoon.

Anzac Slang.

The vocabulary of some of the Australian and New Zealand troops would puzzle Solomon himself, judging by some of the specimens given in that entertaining periodical, the Gazette of the 3rd London General Hospital, Wandsworth. The following dialogue is quoted by a transport officer lately in Gallipoli: "Halloa, chum! I've just heard some bonza news."

"What! Another furrer?" "No, dinkum oil this time; the boys have made the Turks on the right and got fifty prisoners, who say they have had mafeesh tucker for two days."

Bonza corresponds with our "rippling" or "tophole." A furrer is a rumor, dinkum means "genuine," and dinkum oil "authenticated news." Imshel is Gippy for "clear out," and mafeesh, which is borrowed from the same tongue, means "nothing."

When an Australian wishes to acquire something he "shakes it," whereas the British Tommy either "makes it" or "scroungs it." Tommy's slang is largely derived from Hindustani, and includes such words as "chilperow" for "shut up," "put some jild into it," meaning "hurry up," and "let's have a dekho," when he wants to have a look at something.

Shakespeare's Benefactors.

Of the millions who keep Shakespeare's memory green to-day, how many have even heard of Heminge and Condell? Yet, to the faithful labors of these two poor players we owe the first attempt to give the world a complete edition of Shakespeare's plays. No collected edition of the poet's work was issued in his lifetime, nor did many of the plays even find their way to print, until Heminge and Henry Condell, Shakespeare's intimate friends and fellow-actors, took the task of publication either of self-profit or fame in undertaking the design, and being moved solely by desire "to keep the memory of so worthy a friend and fellow alive as was our Shakespeare."

Prizes for Hyphen War Babies. According to the latest newspapers, the German Commandant at Libau has announced that the German Government will give a bounty of $4.75 for a boy and $3.00 for a girl born of a Lettish mother and a German soldier father.

Pretty Bad.

The world must be in a pretty bad way when even the promoter isn't faithful to his trust.

In Bivouac And Barracks

(See also Page 3.)

Battalions henceforth recruited in Canada are to number thirty-two officers and 1,040 men, a reduction of four and seventy-two respectively. This will correspond to the English strength.

The boys who are on the bivouac at Lemoine's Point were practically to a man in for a swim in the lake on Thursday.

It was planned to have every man cook his own noon-day meal on Friday. The instructors of the School of Cookery acting as supervisors.

The plan worked out on Thursday night was as follows: The out-posts consisting of one company from each of the three battalions were on watch from 4 p. m., Thursday. About 7.30 p. m., a party of scouts was taken to the Bath Road and left with instructions to work their way into camp. When the out-posts found them shortly after 10 o'clock the assembly was blown and every soldier had to waken and get dressed. The battalion rushed to the relief of the outposts after which an inspection was made by the headquarters staff. It was a splendid night for the event and the boys did excellent.

By a clerical mistake at Barrieffield Camp Headquarters it was announced in orders that Lieut. V. Lanos had been attached to the headquarters staff. It is Lieut. J. M. Lanos, father of the first named, who is attached to the staff.

Among officers who have returned to Canada on leave is Lieut. Gerald Belfie, Gananoque and Seeley's Bay, who went overseas to join the Royal Army Medical Corps, and has now completed his year of service in that branch of the service. Lieut. Gillies, of Gananoque, has also reached Canada on his return.

Gets a Medal.

The latest issue of the London Gazette contains the name of Sergt. Stanbridge, of the 21st Battalion, in a list of thirty-seven Canadian N.C.O.s, and men who have been awarded the military medal for bravery in the field. Reference was made in despatches some time ago to the work of Sergt. Stanbridge.

Crusaders' Corner

General Taylor, while staying with Lord Roden, was frequently observed gazing upon a verse over the mantel:

"My sins deserve eternal death. But Jesus died for me." One day the earl said, "I should think, Taylor, that you must know those lines by heart." "I do indeed," said the general, "my very heart has grasped their meaning."
