GERMAN ATTACKS

WERE REPULSED On Both Sides of the Somme

-Broke Down Under French Fire. (Special to the Whig.)

Paris, Agg. 12 .- The French repulsed heavy German attacks on both sides of the Somme last night, it was officially announced to-day, and made further progress on the front northeast of Verdun.

At nine o'clock last night the Germans launched an attack against the Hem quarry, north of the Somme, losing heavily. This attack broke down under French fire. The French meanwhile continued to organize their new front in this region where progress was made yesterday. French reconnoitering parties, entered the wood east of Hem, found heaps of the enemy dead.

South of the Somme the Germans delivered an attack against Lamaissonette. This attempt was checked by French screen fire before the enemy could debouch.

On the Verdun front French detachments made progress south Thiaumont work and repulsed two German attacks at Fleury. Artillery combats occurred on the sectors of Vaux Chapitre and Chenois,
