WAS MARRIED SIX WEEKS

PTE. CHARLES H. HUNTBACK, OF BATTERSEA, KILLED IN ACTION.

A Brother, Pte. Ernest Huntbach, Was Killed in the Battle of Langemarck—Both Boys Enlisted With a Western Battalion.

To be killed in action six weeks after his marriage was the sad fate of Pte. Charles H. Huntbach, aged twenty-six years, who resided in the village of Battersea, and who enlisted for overseas service with a western battalion. News of his death was received in the city on Saturday morning.

Ernest Huntbach, a brother of Pte. Charles Huntbach, was killed in the battle of Langemarck. He also went to the front with a western battalion. Two other brothers, George and William, reside at Battersea. The boys were natives of England, but had been living in this country for some few years.

The late Pte. Charles Huntbach secured leave of absence just six weeks ago in order that he might be married. His bride was an English girl.

LIEUT.-COL. ANGLIN HOME.

Here on Sick Leave—Expects to Return Overseas Next Month.

Lieut.-Col. W. G. Anglin, who was with Queen's Hospital overseas, is in the city on sick leave. He was given three months' leave from June 12th, and hopes to be able to return to his hospital duties in September. He took ill on the 10th of May and was sent to a hospital in London. He speaks highly of the treatment he received while there. The hospital was formerly a teachers' training college, and the building and huts surrounding it contain 10,000 beds.

After landing at Quebec, Col. Anglin proceeded to St. John, N.B., where he spent a few days with his family before coming on to Kingston.

HAD A CLOSE CALL.

Lad Fell off Wheel in Front of an Automobile.

A lad who was riding a bicycle had a very narrow escape from being seriously injured while riding near the corner of Montreal and Princess streets on Friday night, when he fell in front of an automobile. The youngster had just mounted his bicycle and slipped on the pavement as he started out. An automobile was coming down the street and he fell directly in front of it, but luckily the driver had the car under control, and as a result the youngster was not injured.

Nolan Has Escaped.

John E. Nolan, the dashing young artillery officer, who visited in Brockville last winter for a time and then suddenly left town with jewelry valued at several thousand dollars, the property of his hostess, has again emerged into the limelight by escaping from the Queen's Prison Farm. Circulars and photographs have been sent to the police throughout Canada in an effort to apprehend the fugitive.

Individual Eye Care

No two persons' eyes are exactly alike. Glasses that correct one person's vision will probably injure another's.

Each eye must be examined separately. We prescribe glasses only after the most careful examination with scientific instruments.

Every lens we supply is ground specially for each case in our own factory.

You are assured accuracy and prompt service in trusting your eyes with us. Appointments made for any evening.

Letters To The Editor

A Soldiers' Grievance.

Kingston, Aug. 12.—(To the Editor): I wish to draw your attention to a little matter in regard to the military system. Some time ago the O. C. promised all the men a pass. A few of them got their leave and returned in good time, but the rest have had their passes cancelled three times. What we would like to know is this fair to the N. C. O's and men as officers are all getting their leave. Do you not think that this kind of work will hurt recruiting? Does the head officers not realize that the N. C. O's and privates have mothers and wives as well as the officers?—A PRIVAT.

YACHT LEMERAINE HERE.

Crew of Nine, All Toronto Men, Were on Board.

The yacht Lemeraine of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, Toronto, arrived in the city early on Saturday morning, and tied up at the wharf of the Kingston Yacht Club. There was a crew of nine aboard, all belonging to Toronto. Among the crew was T. Norris, lately returned from the front, where he was wounded. The yacht, which has been cruising about the lake for the past week, left on its return trip Saturday afternoon, going by way of the Bay of Quinte.

The following were on board: B. Bows, skipper; T. Norris, William Smith, William Norris, C. F. Elliott, P. G. MacGregor, John Mathers, Hugh Boyd and Tom Williamson.

The crew, a genial, hospital body of men, entertained a large number of Kingston ladies at a delightful sail Saturday afternoon.

EXCURSIONISTS FROM UTICA.

Philharmonic Society and Friends Visited Barriefield.

About 1,000 excursionists reached Kingston Saturday afternoon from American points. The excursion, which was carried by the Thousand Islander, was under auspices of the Utica Philharmonic Society. The visitors went to Barriefield Camp, where they were met by the Pipes Band of the 154th Battalion and by the bands of the 155th and 156th Battalions, and escorted to the tent of the 156th Battalion, where the Philharmonic Society gave a concert for the benefit of the soldiers. The excursionists were accompanied to camp by the American Consul, F. S. S. Johnson. The boat left on its return trip at 4.45.

ANTILLEGY PREPARES TO LEAVE PETAWAWA.

The 2,500 artillerymen now in training at Petawawa camp have been warned that they will be wanted for overseas service in the immediate future. The men have been well trained under the able direction of Lieut.-Col. G. Roy, general staff officer. Col. A. T. Ogilvie is commandant of Petawawa. The Kingston batteries there are the 50th (Queen's), 51st, 52nd and 53rd, which constitute the 13th brigade under Lieut.-Col. de Bury.

Saturday Market Prices.

There was a large market on Saturday morning, with quantities of green vegetables on sale. Potatoes were scarce, and sold at prices ranging from fifty to sixty cents a peck. Cabbages were plentiful, and sold at three for a quarter. Onions, carrots, beets and cucumbers sold at five cents. There was also a large quantity of green corn for sale at twenty and twenty-five cents a dozen. Eggs ranged from thirty-two to thirty-five cents a dozen, and butter sold for thirty-five to thirty-eight cents a pound.
