Talking About Results.

Pappas Bros., Princess street, on Tuesday last advertised in the Whig and another paper an automobile for sale. The next day it was sold. Mr. Pappas says:

"I received fourteen answers to the advt. from out of the city and lots of applications from people in the city. I sold the car to one of the latter next day. All the applicants said they had read the advt. in the Whig. I am more than pleased."

This little incident shows the Whig's superiority as an advertising medium, both in and out of the city.

All the applicants had read the advt. in the Whig.

Several young doctors and nurses of the General Hospital had a rather unpleasant experience on Sunday morning. THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

At the Grand Opera House for the first half of this week the supreme screen artist, Blanche Sweet, will be seen in "The Thousand Dollar Husband," a photoplay which shows a wealthy bride of a loveless marriage set upon by a band of crooks and eventually saved and wins the love of her husband. A two-reel Universal feature, a one-reel comedy, and the Paramount Topical Budget will also be seen. Noteworthy vaudeville has also been secured. Flynn and Howard will appear in "A Bit of Irish," a clean, natural Irish singing, talking and comedy dancing act.

At The Griffin.

Few of the so-called war dramas of the present day possess as wide an appeal as "A Soldier's Oath," a Fox production in which William Farnum is starred and which comes to the Griffin for screening to-day and Tuesday. This remarkable photoplay which has been invested with unusual realism and in which real French and German soldiers were used, graphically depicts the horrors of war, but it surpasses other war-dramas in that the continuity of the story is not marred by the usual drawn-out war scenes, it shows a prison scene in which real convicts appear also the bursting of a 42-centimetre gun, and is realism and strength of appeal it surpasses all other productions of its kind heretofore shown in this city. Other good attractions will be included on the bill, in addition to new song ballads by R. E. Willis.

For Wednesday and Thursday "The Plunderer" will be the attraction and for the week-end Thada Bara will appear in the wonderful masterpiece, Destruction.

Lake Ontario Park.

A classy programme has been arranged for Lake Ontario Park this evening and all this week. The vaudeville includes Edna La Salle, a novelty dancer, and Tom McNally, a comic singer, who has been well recommended. There will also be a three-reel feature play, a standard photo play, a comedy play and the Pathe News.
