TURF GOSSIP.

The steeplechase mare, Lady But-terly, that won a race on the flat at Ottawa on Saturday, was claimed after her victory by W. Stormont.

Several horses at Ottawa have developed fever since their arrival there.

H. G. Bedwell is still the leading American owner with a total of $55,720.

The grand stand of the Kempton track at Montreal has a seating capacity of two thousand, and will be increased in size before the second meeting towards the end of September.

The American horse, Oversight, which H. P. Whitney took across the Atlantic when he first invaded the English turf, is getting along in years, but can still run a bit. At the Newbury meeting, August 12th, he won the Teyford Selling Handicap from the twenty-seven opponents, beating Ravello by a head in a close finish.

Stanley Wootton, the trainer and ex-jockey, had the Military Cross conferred upon him at Buckingham Palace recently.

G. Wedgwood, who has ridden with success in Belgium and Germany and was arrested in the latter country on the outbreak of war, has just returned to England from Ruhleben, where he has been interned for a year and seven months. He can still go to the scale at 105 pounds.

The New Kempton Park track at Montreal opened Monday. Seven races were carded, but one was declared off. The plant is fast from completed and the management would have done better had they delayed the opening.

FUTURITY IS DUE ON SATURDAY NEXT

The Turf World Greatly Interested in Running of This Class.

The Futurity stakes—keystone to the thoroughbred breeding industry of the United States—will be decided over Belmont Park, New York, Saturday and estimating the probable starters at fifteen it will have a gross value of upwards of $25,000, of which $1,750 will go to the breeders of the three horses. That it will be viewed by a monster crowd is certain, as this race has an appeal all its own. It is a classic of the classics, and it has usually been the occasion of a reunion of society. Newport, Narragansett and Bar Harbor salute Saratoga and for that particular day the thoroughbred is king. James G. Q. Lawrence framed the event with a view to stimulating the breeding of thoroughbreds, and the race will always be a monument to this official and to the Coney Island Jockey Club, of which he was secretary.

"MOONEY" GIBSON RETIRES.

Returns to London, Ont., After Thirteen Years Hard Work.

George Gibson, one of the greatest ball players of the last fifteen years, has given up his professional career and has returned to London, Ont. He first saw the light of day on July 22nd, 1880, and has been making a business of baseball for thirteen years. Gibson went to Buffalo and showed well, but as Stallings at that time had a great many catchers, the young player was sold to Montreal and after two seasons, he went up to the great Pittsburg organization, which Clarke was just commencing to build into championship form. Gibson was one of the best purchases Dreyfuss ever made.

RECORD LACROSSE SCORE.

By the National Club of Montreal Last Saturday.

The National Lacrosse Club, of Montreal, probably made a record on Saturday last when they scored seventeen goals in succession in an N. L. U match against Ottawa at Montreal. "Newsy" Lalonde, the great French-Canadian player, practically scored a goal whenever he felt like it, and is over the fifty goal mark in the records for the season. The Capitals have made a poor showing in the league this year, but despite this fact lacrosse has had a good season in Ottawa, and they are very enthusiastic over the prospects of the national game.

CRACK ENGLISH FIGHTER

Killed on the Somme—Champ's Jerry Delaney.

Close on the heels of the announcement that Tom McCormick, welter-weight champion of England, had been killed at the front in France, word comes from London that Jerry Delaney, crack lightweight of England and contender for Freddy Welsh's title and Lord Londale's belt, has been killed in action on the Somme.

Delaney was twenty-three years old and had beaten some of the best pugilists in Europe. He had scored fifteen straight victories before joining the army.

Drastic Orders.

President Johnson's orders against remarks from players from the bench is even more drastic than that of President Tener. In future any player ordered off the bench for conversation in the American League automatically draws a three-day suspension. Player repeats in the American a very subdued these days as a result.

WILL BOTH BOSTON TEAMS BE VICTORS

COMMODORE JARVIS SEES AHMEEK WIN Former Toronto Yacht Captures Manhasset Bay Cup at Greenwich, Conn.

Should the Braves win the National League this season, which seems not at all unlikely, Dick Rudolph probably once more will be the central figure in a world series. The diminutive deceiver has won 10 games in a row and looks to be as good as he was two years ago. The present position of the Braves, who were less than two games behind Brooklyn before Sunday's games, is largely due to Rudolph.

If this Boston Club wins it will be a bad thing for baseball, inasmuch as it is a fair bet that the Red Sox will be champions in the American league. Having both Hub clubs it would distract from the interest outside of New England. Moreover, even in Boston, the Braves are intensely unpopular. Their conduct since they beat the Athletics in 1914 is responsible for this. They are overbearing, and are the worst all-club, when they lose a game, in either league.

HORSES ARE ARRIVING

For the Meeting at Blue Bonnets Course.

There carloads of horses arrived at the Blue Bonnets course, Montreal, yesterday afternoon from Windsor, Ont., for the meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club, which commences on Monday next. These included the horses Mrs. Livingston, George M. Hendrie, E. W. Moore, and D. A. Campbell. In the Hendrie lot, which numbered eleven, which were in charge of John Walters, were Rancher, Sands of Pleasure, Scrutineer, Trout Fly, Fair Orient, No Trumps and the imported horses Exhorter, Sunny and Sharp Frost. Most of Mr. Hendrie's horses have stake engagements and the time now and the meeting will be taken in giving them proper preparation. W. E. Moore brought the imported filly Arriet and an imported two-year-old colt that has not yet been named, besides Bill Simonds, Jack Greaves, American Express, William IV, Dixie and Mr. D. Raymond's Bright Sand, Mr. David Campbell, who is one of the Canadian contingent, and who has established a stock farm in Western Ontario, where he is breeding his own stock, has five in his string. These are: Dorothy Carlin, David Campbell, Gay Down, Gay Life and Reno Decree. Mrs. Livingston's horses were in charge of the veteran trainer, Matthew Feakes, and while this stable has not been heard from much this season, the horses are all in good condition. Among those in the shipment were Pricilla Mullins, Man Slay-er and Simlah.

JENNINGS' TIGERS FULL OF COURAGE

Always Pulling the Unexpected and Fans Like Their Fighting Spirit.

The success of the Detroit Tigers is founded on the same principle that the success of great business houses is founded upon, personality plus ability, but personality first. Detroit has personality and it is personality that attracts people.

They never work on a set plan. They always pull the unexpected. When you see the Tigers, you get thrills for your money. See something that others cannot offer; you pull for them, no matter against whom they are pitted.

Gameness and nerve are the dominating features of the Detroit teams. They pull more brilliant baseball than any club in any league. Maybe they do not play according to the fine line of defense and attack that the Athletics followed, but the crowds are with them, and they always win more games than they lose.

"Tiger rallies" are famous in baseball. Jennings' teams are never beaten until the last man is retired. They have won game after game with two out in the ninth. They are always more dangerous when they are behind in the score than when leading the other club. It is a fighting outfit, and people like fighters and aggressiveness on the ball field, as well as elsewhere. If a man lacks aggressiveness, he can expect no favors from Mr. Jennings, and the market is always yawning for him. You can never tell what the Tigers will pull next; therefore people go to see them. Teams that do just what they are expected to do at all times are strictly a bore. They are perfect—but who wants to be perfect?

GIANT'S POOR LUCK.

Try as They Will They Simply Cannot Win.

Try as they will, the New York Giants simply cannot seem to win a ball game, and the harder they try the worse they look. They opened the assault on the Reds yesterday with high hopes of ending their string of defeats, but at the conclusion of the contest the string had grown. The cheering they received at the hands of Mathewson's men was painful to witness.

The record which the team has made since leaving New York on the morning of August 12th is nothing short of staggering. Starting the trip with a game with the Phillies that afternoon, they have played twelve games. Of these they have lost eleven, and of the eleven six have been shutouts, and this is the team whose pennant hopes were so bright early in the season!

GIANT FANS DUBIOUS.

Are Not Any Too Well Pleased With McGraw's Latest Deal.

Gotham fans are not showing any wild enthusiasm over the deal that brings "Heinie" Zimmerman of the Cubs to the Giants in exchange for Captain "Larry" Doyle, Jacobson, a recruit outfielder, now with Rochester and Hunter, a first baseman, who has been performing at the initial corner for the Giants since Merkle was sent to Brooklyn.

Doyle was something of a hero here. Quiet, hard working and earnest in his play, he made a hit with the fans. But they are not sure whether "Zim" with his temperament is going to be any great asset. They concede him marvelous baseball ability, but they wonder if he will curb his tongue and his ire sufficiently to keep him in the game as a regular.

FAMILY OF SEVEN

Are Seeking a Golf Game With Any Other Family.

J. Franklin Meehan, veteran golfer of Philadelphia, made a sweeping challenge to-day to any family in the country for a golf match with his family.

Meehan is a good golfer and his two sons, J.F., jr., and Thomas, are exceptionally good match players. There are three daughters, varying in age, who are all expert at the game, and Mrs. Meehan would be able to take care of herself with the average woman player.

Charlie Mitchell in New York.

Charlie Mitchell, the English heavyweight pugilist, who fought John L. Sullivan more than a quarter of a century ago, arrived at New York from London yesterday. He said that he was prepared to bring over the British champion flyweight, Jimmy Wilde, for a match with any American bantamweight up to 112 pounds. If Johnny Erbe, of St. Paul, will make 114 pounds ringside, he said, Wilde will meet him for twenty rounds or more, anywhere a referee's decision is permitted.

COMMODORE JARVIS SEES AHMEEK WIN

Former Toronto Yacht Captures Manhasset Bay Cup at Greenwich, Conn.

A former Toronto yacht, formerly of the fleet of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, sailed by the master sailor of Boston waters, Charles Francis Adams, won the first of the series of races for the Manhasset Bay Cup, sailed off the anchorage of the holder of the trophy, the Indian Harbor Yacht Club of Greenwich, Conn. Waska II., representing the South Boston Yacht Club, and sailed by Frank Macomber, finished second.

The cup defender, Nahma, designed, sailed, and partly owned by Addison G. Hanaan, with two sailors swinging aloft in bo'sun chairs, to hold her broken gaff in place, made a dramatic finish in third place, beaten by her disabled condition a very long way from being disgraced. A howling northerly gale prevailed, and several of the eleven starters were disabled during the race. Ahmeek won by one minute and 23 seconds.

On board Commodore W. H. Child's steam yacht Joyance was the committee, having charge of the race, Commodore Aemilius Jarvis of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto, Canada, representing the challenger; Stuyvesant Wainwright, representing the defender, the Indian Harbor Yacht Club, and James T. Sparkman, referee.

STROMBOLI'S SMART RACE

Won Opening Feature at Belmont Park Handily.

Racing was resumed around New York yesterday with the opening of a twelve-day meeting under the auspices of the Westchester Racing Association at Belmont Park. The crowd which welcomed the thoroughbreds back to the Metropolis was unusually large, and among the spectators were many who had not seen any racing since the closing of the meeting at Yonkers.

Although the fields were none too large in comparison with those seen at Saratoga, they did not lack in quality. The stellar attraction of the card was the Belmont Park Autumn Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile and a furlong. It was the second running of this annual fixture, and a case of history repeating itself, as the event went to August Belmont's Stromboli, which won last year. Although more than twenty-five horses were eligible for the race, only four started, the other three being Capra, Frizzle and the imported Short Grass. These finished in the order named. The son of Fair Play ran in his best form and displayed the same fleetness as when he won the Saratoga Handicap on the opening day of that meeting.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN

Thinks Boston Will Monopolize World Championships.

John L. Sullivan, the most popular boxer in the history of the ring, is in New York, previous to going west as a rival of Billy Sunday on the lecture platform. John is much interested in the closed pennant fights in the American and National Leagues. He is a great fan. Here's what he has to say on the topic: "I think my native town, Boston, will monopolize the world's series this season. I think they have the greatest all-round team in the game. For a time I thought that the Yanks and the Giants would fight it out, but a long string of accidents has put Donovan's men practically out of it, while the failure on his pitching staff to deliver as expected has cost McGraw's men the flag.

Larry Chapelle, the outfielder, who was purchased several seasons ago by the White Sox for $18,000, and was later sent back to the minors, has been purchased from Columbus by the Braves. He will join that team at once.
