SUFFOCATED ON A RANCH STRUCK BY A STREET CAR

WALTER WHITNEY FOUND DEAD BY SON, WHO HAD CLOSE CALL

REGINALD BAILLIE, BARRIEFIELD, IS BADLY INJURED

Former Resident of Pittsburgh Township Victim of Sad Accident at Condale, South Alberta—Moved Away From This District Thirty Years Ago.

Frederick Whitney, of the Whitney Hotel, received the sad news on Monday morning that his youngest brother, Walter Alexander Whitney, of Lethbridge, had died at Condale, Southern Alberta, as a result of being suffocated with gas while asleep in a tent on a ranch. His son and a herder had a very narrow escape.

Deceased was about fifty-three years of age and was a son of the late Benjamin Whitney, of Pittsburgh Township. He moved away from Kingston thirty years ago, but is well known to many people in this district, who were very sorry to learn of his death.

Mr. Whitney was out on the ranch working with his son. They were living in a tent, and gas escaping from a stove caused his death. His son, it appears, awoke first, and was very sick. The herder, who was in the tent with them, also awoke very ill. Mr. Whitney appeared to be asleep, but when the son went to awaken him found that he was dead.

The late Mr. Whitney is survived by his wife and nine children, also six brothers, Frederick, of Kingston; Thomas, of Barlington, Ohio; Wm., Benjamin and Albert, all of Lethbridge; and one sister, Mary Henderson.

Car Ran Into His Wagon, Killing the Horse—Mr. Baillie Was Temporarily Removed to the Hotel Dieu.

An unfortunate accident occurred on lower Bagot street shortly before nine o'clock on Monday morning.

The cans of milk were scattered over the street, and the cart was dragged to Bay street, where the car was stopped. Mr. Baillie was thrown out of the rig and was stunned by the effects of the fall.

He was carried into the home of J. R. B. Gage, 359 Bagot street, and his injuries were temporarily dressed. Corbett's ambulance was summoned, and the injured man was taken to the Hotel Dieu, where he was attended by Dr. S. J. Keyes.

It was found that Mr. Baillie, who is sixty years of age, had suffered from severe bruises and cuts. He has a number of scalp wounds, and his shoulders are bruised considerably.

The car which ran into the rig was the same which struck the late David McMurter, it was in charge of Motorcar Broker and Conductor A. Baker. These are not the same men who were in charge of other cars.

It is alleged that the car was going at a fast rate of speed. The old gentleman, however, may not have heard the gong, and the car may have struck him before he had a chance to check his horse.

The wagon and the cans were removed about an hour later by J. O. Finnigan, Barriefield, to Mr. Baillie's home. The horse presented a sorry sight, as it was struck in the head and was bleeding profusely. Mr. Baillie was able to leave the Hotel Dieu at eleven o'clock on Monday morning and was driven to his home in Barriefield. He is now resting easily.

POLICE COURT BREVETTES.

Half Dozen Cases Before the Magistrate on Monday.

Magistrate Farrell had a half dozen cases to deal with on Monday morning, but he put them through in quick fashion. A number of weekend drunks realized that it was blue Monday morning with them. Michael Ryan, an aged man, who has a good home, but who prefers to wander around the city, was up for vagrancy. Constable Armstrong found him early Monday morning. He was given another chance to brace up.

Nelson Woodrow paid $10 and costs for striking a boy under fourteen years of age. The lad has been employed in a shoe shine parlor, but should be at school, and there will likely be trouble for his employer.

Fawcett-Sprule Wedding.
A pleasant event occurred at Trinity church, Wolfe Island, on Sept. 6th, when the marriage of Eva Hazel, second daughter of William Fawcett, Wolfe Island, and Wilfrid T. Sprule, Westbrooke, was solemnized by Rev. Thomas Leech. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Leech, wife of the rector. The bride was attended by Miss Ida Sprule, sister of the groom and Montgomery Fawcett, brother of the bride, assisted the groom. The bride was given away by her father. The happy couple left on the noon boat for Toronto and other western points. On their return they will reside at Westbrooke.

County Constable W. W. Smith, Elginburg, has returned home from Kingston, where he so successfully captured a band of gypsies who were causing a lot of trouble in the vicinity of Elginburg, Letimer, etc. William Pinlan, Trenton, is in the Hotel Dieu suffering from typhoid fever.

Thomas Nicholson, Portsmouth, went to Ottawa on Monday.

Music at Sydenham Street Church.
Lieut. Daniel Cameron of the 155th Battalion, Barriefield Camp, sang "Resignation" at the Sunday morning service of Sydenham Street Methodist church. Lieut. Cameron is possessed of a strong and clear bass voice and his solo delighted the congregation.

Ernest Madrand, a pupil of Miss Minnie Shaw, Clergy school, played the concluding march in Sydenham Street Methodist church on Sunday evening on the organ. The march was of Mr. Madrand's own composition and was a credit to the ability of this well-known young musician.

Red Cross Special.

The Whig has received a copy of the Canadian Red Cross Special, which is a very bright four-page edition. It has a fine account of the dedication of the Canadian Red Cross Hospital, at Buxton, England, by Gen. Sir Sam Hughes, a photograph of the matron, Miss C. F. Maclester, of Kingston, and some of the nurses, as well as many other interesting features, including an interesting game of baseball, in which the patients defeated the hospital staff.

FIN OF A MUDCAT CAUSES MAN'S DEATH

William B. Tryon, Tamworth, Dies as the Result of a Scratch.

While William B. Tryon was cleaning a mudcat at his home in Tamworth last week he happened to catch the fish by the head and one of the pectoral fins pierced his finger. A sharp pain was felt, but he gave the matter little consideration until in the latter part of the week when the finger began to swell and the hand became very sore.

He consulted with a physician, and he was brought to the General Hospital on Saturday. He received careful treatment, and every means was taken to prevent the poisoning spreading. It did not avail anything, however, and on Sunday he died.

The deceased was born in the township of Kennebec forty-eight years ago. He was a well known farmer in Tamworth and was married. The remains were sent to Tamworth.

MOTOR AMBULANCE ARRIVES

For the Firm of James Reid, of This City.

The fine motor ambulance, which was ordered by the firm of James Reid some time ago, has arrived. It is the latest design in motor ambulances, and was manufactured by the Overland Automobile Company.

It is very large and roomy, having a bed and two chairs, so that the patient may be accompanied by friends. The ambulance is lighted by electricity, and also has a number of electrical conveniences.

The interior is finished in oak and has a hardwood floor, and is lighted by a soft white light in the top. The exterior is of a dark red color with light red crosses on the sides. The steps at the rear reclines as the doors are closed. The vehicle is equipped with an electric gong.

The car is capable of great speed, and should be a valuable addition to the ambulance service in the city.

The ambulance was purchased by three brothers, Samuel F. Reid, Frederick C. Reid, and Francis C. Reid, a progressive and enterprising firm running the furniture and undertaking business which was conducted by their father, the late James Reid.

A Crack at Toronto

Montreal La Presse.

Toronto boasts of having furnished its proportional part of the 500,000 volunteers authorized by the Canadian Government. It is known that the Queen City has paid its debt of loyalty towards the Empire chiefly at the expense of its immigrants from the British Isles, of whom there still remain a strong reserve.

Toronto is prepared to sacrifice the very last man of its British immigrants for the defence of the Empire.
