BOXING GOSSIP.

Buck Crouse, the Pittsburg middleweight, who went to Australia for five fights, is already tired of that country and will sail for home within three weeks. Crouse was recently knocked out in four rounds by Dave Smith, the former Australian middleweight champion, at Sydney. Crouse stopped Smith in nine rounds at the same place in July.

Jess McMahon, who recently took John Lester Johnston, has added another colored boxer to his string. This scrapper is Eddie Dorsey, the clever Philadelphia lightweight. Jess is so sure he will make good in the square circle that he has signed him up to a contract for three years.

Memphis, Tenn., must certainly be a good city for boxing, as the scrap there recently between Levinsky and Dillon drew a gate of $7,500, several hundred persons being turned away on account of the clubhouse being packed to its capacity. Battling Levinsky and Gus Christie, the Milwaukee light heavyweight, have been matched to box eight rounds there on Sept. 26. Levinsky will receive $1,250.

Ad Wolgast has just been matched for another scrap. He will go against Young Fulton, the New York lightweight, for ten rounds at a show to be brought off at Racine, Wis., on Sept. 29. They will meet at 135 pounds ringside and Fulton will receive $400.

The failure of Fred Fulton, the elongated heavyweight of Rochester, Minn., to knock out Dan "Porky" Flynn, the veteran fighter of Boston, in their ten round bout at St. Paul, Minn., last week, has lost for him many of his admirers. So confident were they that Fulton would stop Flynn that they offered odds of 2 to 1 that he would do the trick. The receipts were $5,700.

All arrangements for the ten-round go between Bob Moha, the pudgy heavyweight of Milwaukee, and Charley Weinert, the scientific heavyweight boxer of Newark, N.J., have been completed. The managers of the men signed articles of agreement calling for them to battle at Madison Square Garden on Sept. 25, for a percentage of the gross receipts.

Johnny Erie, the St. Paul bantamweight, still continues to sidestep a match with Kid Williams, the Baltimore bantam. Erie was offered a guarantee of $2,000 to meet Williams in a six-round bout at the Olympia A. A. of Philadelphia, but his manager turned it down.

Mike Gibbons, the famous middleweight, who took away something like $15,000 after his last boxing exhibition at New York, against Puckey McFarland, is likely to be seen there soon again, but for no such sum as he got before. Gibbons is anxious to return and has about accepted terms for a bout with "Butch" O'Hagen, the promising Albany boxer, at the Harlem Sporting Club.

TO PLAY IN OTTAWA

Montreal Royals To Have Two Ex-Boston Braves.

Two members of the Boston Braves, world's champions of 1914, will line up with the Montreal Royals when they play an exhibition game at Lansdowne Park, Ottawa, Saturday. Herbie Moran and Ted Cather are the pair, both having played all season in the outfield for Montreal. The International Leaguers will have their full squad and line up something like this: Maisel, 2nd; Moran, c.f.; Cather, l.f.; Smith, r.f.; Slatery, 1b.; Wagner, s.s.; Damrau, 3b.; Madden or Howley, c. The pitcher will be chosen from Fullerton, Goodbred, Cadore and Fullenwilder.

Cobb Concedes Speaker's Triumph

Tyrus Cobb, for nine years the leading batsman of the American League, has conceded that Tris Speaker, of the Cleveland Club, will be the 1916 champion. Speaker now has a margin of twenty points over Cobb, according to unofficial averages. Cobb said it is a human impossibility for him to try to cut down this lead and at the same time to co-operate in team play to the fullest extent of his ability.

IS IT A BLUFF

Of the Ottawa Club to Get Players in Line?

According to a despatch from Ottawa, the directors of the professional hockey club will not operate their franchise this winter, but whether this is a bluff to get the players in line on the percentage system or the directors really mean it, is hard to foreshadow, the Toronto News says. Some time ago the Ottawa club gave out the statement that they would only play if the players would take a chance along with the club, and up to date they have heard nothing from the puck-chasers, but there is plenty of time before the season opens. Last season, although the games in Ottawa were well attended, the club lost about $2,500 on the season, due to the excessive salaries that were in force. Several of the best players have enlisted, and they would have quite a time digging up a team.

It is understood that there will be a special meeting of the N. H. A. shortly to consider the situation. Toronto, Wanderers and Quebec lost heavily last season, and while Geo. Kennedy and his Canadians pulled out ahead, this was due to the fact that they had big "gates" for the world's series against Portland. Had it not been for the Portland Canadians matches the champions would also have had a deficit.

Clark Griffith has bagged outfielder Menoskey of the Minneapolis club, who is one of the leading hitters in the American Association, not giving his team a square deal and that the players are discouraged because they think the same thing.

If Our Goods Don't Make Good We Do

In these strenuous days of keen and close competition business is nothing short of a battle—a continual fight to win trade; to gain the confidence of that vast army known as the buying public; a conflict for supremacy in quality-giving, for recognition and reputation. For this season—the fall of 1916—we have armed and fortified ourselves with values that will withstand the hottest fire of comparison; values that we know will carry us through to victory. Our aim has always been to give the best merchandise in the clothing field, and our aim has always been true. We are using the right kind of ammunition, and we expect to win your patronage if we have not already conquered it. Our fall display of overcoats is positively a wonder; it will make you wonder too. Never in Kingston's commercial history have such clothing values been offered at these prices. So march into our store and join the ranks of those hundreds of men who have saved money by trading at this store.
