

THE 9TH AMERICAN LEGIONERS AT VALCARTIER LEARNING THE ART OF TRENCH FIGHTING.
Trench squad being instructed in the ways of bomb throwing.

FIRST PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN OF THE ALLIED GENERALS AND RULERS.
It shows the five biggest men of France and England near the Somme battlefield. From left to right they stand: Gen. Joffre, Pres. Poincare of France, King George, Gen. Foch and Gen. Haig.

TRANSPORTATION STRIKE.

For the second time in a month New York city is facing a tie-up of its transportation. Half of the street cars are idle and many enterprising auto owners reaped a harvest of quarters and half-dollars by carrying home from work those who were unable to squeeze into the subway and "L" trains.

LATEST MEANS OF LOCOMOTION.

While not yet common enough to be termed popular, the "auto-pushmobile" bids fair to compete in popularity with its older but smaller brother, the skate pushmobile. A small gasoline motor furnishes enough power to run the machine at a good speed.

Mlle. MLOUNKA
A Serbian girl of nineteen, who since the beginning of the war, has been a member of the Second Regt. of Moravo, and has been wounded three times in battle.

HOT WORK.

Our artillery in action in France.

How the motormen of the subway and elevated trains in New York are being protected from strikers.