

Fall Overcoats

The first chill of autumn calls for a fall overcoat. We are showing some beautiful garments in a variety of new models and fabrics. Swagger sort for young men. More conservative styles for middle aged men. The Chesterfield is the business man's favorite style, while the loose, full back, and the short, form-fitting belted coat with velvet collar appeals strongly to smart young dressers.

Fall overcoats, $15.00, $18.00, and $20.00. The style and quality we offer at each price leave not the slightest doubt of our greater value giving.

Capt. Publow, Medical Officer, 155th Battalion, and Capt. H. Blair, Queen's Field Ambulance Corps, were in attendance at the Picton Fair.

Miss Mitchell, Miss Stark and others from Galianoque were guests of the officers of the Army Service Corps on Thursday.

Ptes. Pipe and Jamieson are two Army Service Corps men who have left for overseas.

Lieut. L. R. McKenna, 156th Battalion, has returned from Ottawa, after being on leave.

Cpts. Plews, of Cobourg, and Donovan, of Brockville, have reported for duty to Queen's Field Ambulance Corps.

Capt. Thorne, commanding the Special Service Company, was on recruiting duty.

Sergt.-Inst. Dryden, Infantry School staff, has been promoted to the rank of company sergeant-major-instructor.

Sergt. Inst. Hicks, who is instructing in wireless telegraphy at the camp, has been attached to the signalling instructional cadre of the district.

The name of the private car used by the Duke is "Canada" which is appropriate for Canada's Governor General.

TWO MORE 21ST OFFICERS

Have Given Their Lives For King and Country.

Lieut. Hugh Norton-Taylor, another of the 21st Battalion officers, reported killed in action, was the youngest son of the late Lieut.-Col. Norton-Taylor, R.A., of Kingston. He enlisted in the 21st as a private and qualified for a commission in England.

Lieut. William Fisher Brownlee, 21st Battalion, reported killed, belonged to McDonald's Corners. He was previously wounded.

Sapper Nokes Wounded.

Mrs. H. E. Nokes, Princess street, has received word from the Militia Department that her husband, Sapper Henry Earl Nokes had been severely wounded in the leg and arm on Sept. 14th, and is now in a hospital in Liverpool, Eng.

Sapper Nokes enlisted in August, 1915, in the 77th Battalion, but was later transferred to the 3rd Company, Canadian Engineers. He has been in France since March, 1916.

Wounded A Second Time.

Corporal William L. York, 21st Battalion, is in the 3rd Scottish Hospital, in Glasgow with a gunshot wound in the hand. His wife and family live at 38 Raglan Road. This is the second time that he has been wounded. He was wounded in April and returned to the trenches in July and has now been wounded again.

SOME POINTED REMARKS ON VARIOUS MATTERS

Portsmouth Philosopher is Working Overtime These Days.

The Portsmouth philosopher says: That people looking for drier air as a benefit to health must not overlook Ontario now. Some soldiers returning to Kingston from Valcartier Camp Friday, stated they noticed the change just as soon as they got into Ontario.

That perhaps a moving picture show at the Board of Trade meeting might be the means of drawing out more members to the meetings. It is claimed the members will not attend unless they know there is something "doing."

That the eight-year-old lad who was caught sending in false alarms should have been given a good spanking by Constable Samuel Arnel.

That the cutting out of German from the curriculum at the Collegiate Institute, by the Board of Education, would not help win the war. Get wise to it and help the great cause.

That everything is going up these days but wages. Coal has now reached $8.25 per ton, and if it continues to soar people will have to go to a warmer climate.

That there is certainly truth in the old saying about it being an ill wind that blows no person good. The cheesemen are getting over twenty cents a pound for cheese, and this high price is due to the great demand for cheese for the men in the trenches.

That tipplers are now so scarce in the police court that when they do appear that photographs should be taken of them.

That in a short time now a whiskey bottle will be quite a curiosity.

Please tell men, how is your cellar, wet or dry?

That now the bars have been closed, it will relieve the police from a lot of calls to the hotels to run in men who have been guilty of over-indulgence.

That the cutting out of old John Barleycorn will certainly lessen the work of the Magistrate.

That some of the men sentenced to jail for desertion by Magistrate Hunter would have to do their "bit" if taken overseas, and that their work overseas would be better than the "bit" they will do on the prison farm.

German captured the Dutch steamer Prins Hendrik, bound from London to Flushing, and has taken her into Zeebrugge with her eighty passengers.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At The Grand.

For the first three days of next week the management of the Grand has secured an excellent programme of vaudeville and pictures. "East Lynne" will be shown for the first time with the well-known theatrical star Theda Bara in the leading role. A two-reel Universal photoplay, a comedy picture and the Pathe news will also be presented. The vaudeville is excellent. John Zimmer will be seen in a comedy juggling act, and Gerald and Griffin in a comedy singing and pianologue act of a different variety from anything yet seen.

"Everywoman" Coming.

Henry W. Savage, theatrical producer, who has a habit of doing big things in a big way, will offer the dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," at the Grand Opera House on Thursday evening Sept. 28th. The production is described as mastodontic. The car-loads of scenery, costumes, and electrical effects aid in illuminating the peculiar play, and no less than one hundred people are employed. A special orchestra is carried to interpret the score. The cast includes thirty-seven speaking characters. "Everywoman" is a combination of grand opera, musical comedy and drama, deftly intermingled. It admits of astonishing electrical effects and scenic splendors. It is the Barium of stage. Aside from all this, "Everywoman" is a play with a purpose, a play with a high moral lesson which has been endorsed by educators, scholars, clergymen, editors and sociologists. Written from the viewpoint of a many-sided man, it is a compendium of philosophy, wit, biting satire, grim humor.

At the Strand.

The "Manetta Duo," who have pleased so many with their excellent songs during the past week, will appear again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in an entirely new repertoire, amongst them, "May Morning," "Tosti's Good-Bye," and "The Trio" from Faust. On the photoplay end of the bill will be that big Broadway star and popular screen favorite, Douglas Fairbanks in his latest five-act Triangle play, "Flirting With Fate." This is heralded as Fairbanks' biggest hit. A two-act Keystone Comedy, "Wings and Wheels," is also on the bill.

GOING TO BELLEVILLE.

The Date Will Probably be About September 28th.

Major Hamilton and Major Ponton and others of the headquarters staff, are making estimates as to the probable cost of taking the soldiers of the camp to Belleville. Owing to the transport arrangements and other incidental expenses, which are bound to occur, there must be estimates made and these submitted to Ottawa for authority for incurring them. The details for the contemplated trip to Belleville have not yet been consummated, but it is likely that the troops will leave about September 28th.

"Edith Cavell Day"

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, acting Minister of Education, has appointed October 3rd as "Edith Cavell Day" in the public schools of Ontario. A subscription will be taken from the children in aid of the fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of the martyred nurse. "It is believed," says the minister in his letter, "that the children will be glad to subscribe, and the teachers are requested to point out that no sum is too small from each child."

Granted "Standard" Licenses.

On Saturday William McCammon, license inspector, was notified that "standard hotel" licenses had been granted to Patrick McKenna, of the Imperial Hotel, Princess street; Alexander McLaren, McLaren Hotel, Wolfe Island, and J. W. Woodruff, American Hotel, Sydenham.

A Kingston Liberal Weekly.

Patrick Daley, who for years was publisher of the Canadian Freeman of Kingston, has started "The Weekly Bulletin," a paper devoted to Liberal interests. Its first issue appeared Saturday. An editorial attacks the Hearsat Government over its temperance legislation.

Gale On The Lake.

The steamer Fairfax passed up the lakes from Montreal on Friday night. Marine men report a very heavy gale on the lake yet and it has been the means of "holding up" a large number of vessels.

Berlin says the Rumanians have halted their retreat in Dobruja and are attacking the German-Bulgar line, it was officially announced. The Rumanian attacks south-west of Top Raiser and along the Danube were repulsed.

He who lives for self and self alone is a successful failure. Every time a man swallows a doctor's advice he has to cough up money.
