A PETITION CIRCULATED

TO SECURE RELEASE OF A BIGAMIST FROM THE "PEN."

Paul E. Guay Was Sentenced At London Last April. To Two Years In Prison - Woman He Wronged Shows Sympathy.

A petition is in circulation to secure the release of a bigamist from the Portsmouth Penitentiary. The prisoner is Paul E. Guay, alias William E. Wilson, and on April 15th, last, he was sentenced by Judge Macbeth, at London, Ont., to serve two years.

A petition is being circulated in London, Galt and other Western Ontario towns, praying the Minister of Justice, Hon. C. J. Doherty, to parole Guay. The latter was at one time in the shoe manufacturing business in London. He went through a form of matrimony with Miss Gertrude Aitken, of Galt, while the legal husband of Mrs. Eva Guay, of Lynn, Mass.

Guay deserted his wife in Lynn, leaving her in straitened circumstances, with a small child. He came to Canada, worked at Montreal, under the assumed name of Wilson, and, eventually reached Galt, where he courted and married Miss Aitken. Mrs. Guay learned by chance that her husband was living in London, and took action against him.

It is stated that Miss Aitken has also expressed great sympathy for the man she believed to be her husband.

RECORD CROWD AT THE FAIR.

(Continued from page 1.) It, and each fair better than the one that had gone before. This he succeeded in doing, hence the continuous progress.

Wednesday's Bill.

The thousands who attended the fair Wednesday afternoon found much to entertain and interest them. Unfortunately, owing to the high wind, the balloon ascension, with the double parachute drop, could not be made, but all who attended the fair got their money's worth. There were fine military exhibitions, a rattling good horse race, two baseball matches, splendid music by the 155th Battalion band, an excellent recruiting speech by Major G. I. Campbell, chief recruiting officer of the 3rd military district, the midway, which did a rushing business, the wireless stations, which sent and received scores of messages, and, last but not least the exhibits, which, in their variety, quantity and quality, pleased all.

Military Demonstrations.

The first number on the program was an exhibition of physical drill by men from the 154th, 155th and 156th Battalions. This called forth much praise as did the exhibition of bayonet fighting, which they got later.

Another interesting military feature was the demonstration in first aid given by Queen's Field Ambulance Corps. Boys were imaginatively wounded for the purpose of illustrating the method of bandaging soldiers who have been rendered hors de combat. Men in khaki allowed themselves to be knocked out by imaginary first aid, in order that the spectators might have a realistic picture of first-aid treatment. After it had been ascertained that they were still alive, and temporary relief had been given, the men were carried off the field, some on regular stretchers, one on an improvised stretcher made of two rifles and two great coats, and one on a stretcher-bearer's back. Sergt.-Major Beasele was in charge of the corps.

Recruiting Speech.

Major Campbell, who addressed the gathering in the absence of Gen. Hemming, who was to have spoken, made an urgent call for more recruits. He pointed out that Canada had already sent 200,000 men overseas, many of whom had been killed or wounded. There were now in Catarrah is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. It is composed of some of the best tonics known, combined with some of the best blood purifiers. training in the Dominion, 165,000 men, and as these would soon be going overseas, it was necessary that men should come forward to take their places. Canada had already given 365,000 men to the service, and as many more could be given without hurting the industries of the country. The military authorities did not desire to stop a single wheel in any of Canada's factories, and this would not be necessary, if those who were not needed at home came forward and trained. But whether industries continued or not, the war had to be won. The speaker concluded by urging all present to do their "bit" toward helping win the war.

The Horse Race.

The horse race was all that the most exacting could desire. It was called the 2.50 class, but was that in name only, and was for a purse of $120. On the whole, excellent time was made, the fastest mile being executed in 2.22 1/4. Six horses entered the race, but only five were withered after the first heat. Four heats were required to finish the race, and each heat was closely contested by the three leaders. The race was twice delayed, once by the blowing up of a fire attached to Black Maud's sulky, and once by Forest Boy losing a wheel in collision with Western Gentry, while scoring. The starter was J. S. Johnson, Picton, and he certainly knows his business, keeping the drivers well in hand all the time. The other officials were: Judges, J. Johnson, New York, A. Rankin, M.P.P., Collins Bay, and J. F. Madden, Napanee; timekeepers, Dr. G. W. Bell, T. Nicholson, Kingston, and Fred Laidlaw, Ernesttown. The result of the race was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Horse Name, Time. Rows include Steve Ayers, Western Gentry, Bindaire, Forest Boy, Black Maud, Helen Medium, and Time.

Lady Drivers.

The contest for Dr. G. W. Bell's special of ten dollars in gold for the best lady driver aroused great interest, and some graceful driving was witnessed. The winners were Miss E. V. Robbs, Kingston, first, $5; Miss Alice Moran, Pittsburg, second, $3; and Miss V. McAdoo, Pittsburg, $2. The judge was H. Walker, Iroquois. Dr. G. W. Bell is one of the most energetic and generous supporters of the fair, and in all has given $25.00 in cash to encourage the horse side of the show. Apart from the $10 for the best lady driver, he has given $18.50 as specials for best heavy draught team, agricultural team, carriage team and roadster team.

Two Ball Games.

There were two ball games, one of which ended in a fizzle. The senior C.L.C.'s defeated the 156th Battalion by 13 to 3, and the Wolfe Islanders were trimming the C.L.C. game with St. Mary's, when they retired in the fourth innings because, it is alleged, the C.L.C.'s were trying to ring in some senior men. At the time the game broke up the Islanders were leading by eight to one. In an early inning Harry Card, of the visiting team, was struck by a ball, and had to be taken home.

Gift For Prof. Denys.

On Wednesday evening the members of the sanctuary boys' choir of St. Mary's Cathedral surprised Prof. Paul Denys, the retiring organist, by presenting him with a very complimentary address and a gold handled silk umbrella, suitably engraved. The presentation took place at St. Mary's school, with Rev. Father Hanley, rector of the cathedral, in attendance. Regret was expressed that the condition of Prof. Denys' health required his retirement and reference made to his interest in the boys' choir. The address was read by "Teddy" Steacy and the presentation made by Hugo Doyle.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad Blood—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin and pale—is responsible for more ailments than anything else. It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrh; in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles. It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing scrofula and other humors, increasing the red-blood corpuscles, and building up the whole system. Get it today.

THE ARCHITECT WAS HERE

TO DESIGN ALTERATIONS OF MOWAT AND ELMHURST.

Capt. Symons Was Architect For Grant Hall and the Physics Building at Queen's University.

Capt. Symons, architect of the military commission, arrived in the city on Tuesday to look over alterations that are to be made at the Elmhurst Convalescent Home and the Mowat Memorial Military Hospital. The Elmhurst Home is to be changed so that it can be used for vocational training of convalescent soldiers who have been injured at the front. The Mowat is to be enlarged to accommodate the increasing number of men returning to the front who need treatment at this institution.

Capt. Symons is well known here as an efficient architect. He was responsible for the design of two of Queen's University buildings, which are a tribute to his ability. The physics building and Grant Hall were designed by him.

After leaving here Capt. Symons goes to Saranac Lake, where he will make a study of shacks as used for outdoor patients, and the very latest ideas will be incorporated into the changes in the two local institutions.

GERMANS HAVE NO REGARD FOR BELGIANS

Self-Sacrifice They Say to Permit Them to Live in Their Own Country.

We have given proof of a spirit of self-sacrifice in permitting the Belgians to live in their own country, says a German newspaper, commenting on the condition of the people in that part of Belgium which is under German rule.

This statement is sufficient to tell the world, if it were not already known, of the lack of sympathy or humanity on the part of these conquerors of the little nation. Any other enemy would to-day be generous, but here is a nation that refuses to recognize the bravery of an enemy, and would permit the people, whom the Germans are non-combatants, to starve. On top of this they pester and persecute them with fines and oppress them in every way possible.

Even if Canada were not vitally interested in this war, if this country were not an ally of these Belgians, it would be the duty of every one to give toward their support—to give them an opportunity to live as a recognition of their brave stand in August, 1914, and since. And now the obligation is even greater. These are our children, non-combatants, to starve. On top of this they pester and persecute them with fines and oppress them in every way possible.

The Belgian Relief Committee is doing for these people what the Germans should do. It costs $2.50 a month to keep a Belgian family, and there are seven millions of Belgians dependent on this committee for food. Send your money to the Board of Trade, or to the Central Belgian Relief Committee, 59 - St. Peter street, Montreal.
