

Clothing for Men
The Best Fall Suits and Overcoats in Kingston, for men and young men.

The Best Tailoring
 Infinite care with every little detail that helps to make a perfectly hand-tailored suit or overcoat, a shapeliness that will last and a refinement of finishing effects that gives each garment a touch of individuality.

The Best Styles.
 Good taste, the dominant note the young men's garments bear in these lines, the spirit of progressive enterprise, the suits and overcoats for men of more mature years, comprise all that is new in conservative selections.

Suits, $15.00, $18.00 up to $25.00.
 Overcoats, $12.00, $15.00, $18.00 up to $25.00.

Livingston's
 75-79 Brock Street.
 A little out of the way, but it will pay you to walk.

ACTING MILITIA MINISTER

INSPECTED BARRIEFIELD CAMP THURSDAY MORNING

Hon F. B. McCurdy Was Well Pleased With What He Saw—He Could Not Tell How Many Soldiers Would Winter in Kingston.

Hon F. B. McCurdy, Under Secretary of War for Canada, and Major-General Hodgins, Adjutant-General, made an inspection of the three battalions at Barriefield and afterwards Mr. McCurdy, in an interview with the Whig, said:

"I do not claim to have much ability as a military inspecting officer but those men certainly looked good on that march-past."

After speaking about the appearance of our soldiers, Mr. McCurdy was asked as to what information he could give on recruiting and as to the wintering of troops.

"The public does not realize how fast recruits are coming in and they seem to forget that from now there will be an increase," he replied. "There are some 1,500 men being enlisted every week."

Mr. McCurdy would give no information about the wintering of troops, stating that his position as acting Minister of Militia was only while the minister was away.

To music by the 155th Battalion band, Mr. McCurdy, Major-General Hodgins, Brig-Gen. T. R. D. Hemming, G.O.C., W. F. Nickle, M.P., and Dr. J. W. Edwards, M.C., saw the 154th, 155th and 156th Battalions march by. There were also in the line the men of No. 5 F.C.C.E., the Army Service Corps and Queen's Field Ambulance. The brigade, under Col. G. Hunter Ogilvie, with Lieut-Col. W. J. Brown, G.S.O. and Major R. D. Fenton in command, certainly did itself credit.

Afterwards the inspecting party drove in automobiles to the School of Signalling, School of Bombing, Field Hospital, Y.M.C.A., etc., at the camp and then visited the convalescent homes and the fort, and finished by inspecting the cadets of the Royal Military College.

In Bivouac And Barracks

(See also Page 9.)

That a draft from "A" and "B" companies of the 93rd (Peterborough County) Battalion is now in France is apparent from information received. This battalion went overseas in the summer from Barriefield camp.

Mrs. J. R. C. Dobbs arranged a splendid programme for the soldiers in the military Y.M.C.A. tent on Wednesday evening.

Major G. J. Campbell, chief recruiting officer for military district No. 3, was in the city on Wednesday, and announced that the department had secured the old Lockett shoe store on Princess street, and will use it as a depot recruiting office for the city. An officer will be appointed to take charge, and men will be able to enlist here for all branches of the service.

G. W. Fisher, military Y.M.C.A. secretary, leaves on Thursday next for England to take up overseas work.

WE PAID $3.50 A CASE.

An Answer to a Strange Inquiry in an Orange Case.

"We paid, $3.50 for the case and received them in good condition," was the answer written to R. F. Binas, Hood River, Oregon, by T. Pearson, of the Y.M.C.A. staff in answer to a peculiar inquiry. The question was asked by placing a big piece of card-board in the bottom of the case of oranges, which read: "Will the buyer of this case please write and let me know how much he paid for them and what condition they were in," with the address following. This enterprising farmer is evidently curious to know just how big are the profits reaped by the middle man.

WOUNDED SECOND TIME.

Pte. Frank Stinson Was Shot in the Left Foot.

Mathias Stinson, 19 Upper William street, received word that his son, Frank, had been wounded in the left foot about ten days ago, and is now in a general hospital in France.

This is the second time that Pte. Stinson has been wounded. Some time ago he was injured in the hand, but recovered.

Pte. William David Dougherty, 21st Infantry Battalion, is in No. 22 general hospital—with shell shock. His wife lives at 65 Collingwood street.

Had Reached England.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gleeson, King street west, received a cable from their son, Leo Gleeson, announcing the safe arrival in England of the 13th Brigade. He is with Queen's Battery, which form a part of the 13th Brigade.

Overstayed His Leave.

A young soldier, a member of a medical corps at Barriefield camp, was taken in charge by the military police on Wednesday afternoon, confined in the police cells overnight and in the morning taken over to Barriefield camp.

Becomes A Traveller.

George Joyner, for a number of years with the Lockett shoe store, has been given position on the travelling staff of the Midland Shoe Company and will travel from Kingston, east and north.

Harry Claxton, the fifteen-year-old son of Mrs. Zoubert, Ottawa, was accidentally shot and killed Wednesday afternoon by a companion, with whom he was hunting birds near Britannia.

The Provincial License Board is having several "wines-for-invalids" preparations analysed in order to ascertain whether their sale is within or without the new act.

THEATRICAL NEWS

To-night "Everywoman." One of the big features of the scenic splendors of "Everywoman," the huge dramatic spectacle which Henry W. Savage will offer here shortly, is a representation of the riotous revelry of a New York crowd on Broadway on New Year's Eve. To approach realism in his production, Mr. Savage had Walter Burridge, his scenic artist, and George Marion, his stage director, visit the congested portion of "The Gay White Way" for the purpose of absorbing atmosphere as the clock was striking the hour at the birth of the new year. In this scene nearly one hundred and fifty people are employed.

"The Bohemian Girl." The coming of the Aborn Opera Company in their spectacular production of "The Bohemian Girl" to the Grand for Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee, is heralded as one of the important events, dramatically as well as musically, among the features introduced in the Aborn production of "The Bohemian Girl," and formerly unknown to this opera are the "Ballet of the Hours," the fair scene in which are introduced the Tigrani Troupe, said to be the most remarkable group of whirlwind acrobats ever brought to this country, an encampment of genuine gypsies, who are seen making and breaking camp with caravan, dogs, geese, pigs, chickens and other animals exploited by these Nomads and other novelties.

At the Strand. For to-night, Friday and Saturday the vaudeville consists of Budd Holloway in a refined novelty musical act. He performs on musical discs, hat rack, funnels, four-in-hand bell ringing, lyre, harp and also Scotland's national music, the bag pipes. This is sure to please. The photo play end of the bill, Besiege Love and De Wolf Hopper, in a gripping five-act drama, "Stranded," and a two-part Keystone comedy, "A Social Club."

At Griffin's. To be a circus clown was the boyhood ambition of Victor Moore, the popular Laski comedian, and when a small boy he ran away from home and joined a circus, and for the gigantic sum of five dollars a week and board was permitted to wear the clown uniform in the parade on the morning and sell peanuts to the audience in the afternoon. Mr. Moore's circus career lasted for three weeks, when his father finally located him, and after a brief woodshed confinement drove all desires for circus life out of the young man's head. But his ambition is realized now, and he will be seen at Griffin's Theatre to-day, Friday and Saturday in Jesse L. Laski's production of that thrilling photo drama, "The Clown," written especially by Marion Fairfax and produced for the Paramount programme under the personal direction of William C. DerMille. This story of the sawdust circle is said to be superior to even his immortal "Jimmie Fadden" picture. The clown company has surrounded him with a caste of unusual excellence, including Thomas Meighan, Florence Dagman, Ernest Joy, little Billy Jacobs, Gerald Ward and others. Another feature of interest to all lovers of athletic sports and pastimes is Scotch Athletic Weekly, showing the champion lady tennis players in actual contests, also the championship boxing and wrestling contests and that most fascinating game, pocket billiards, played by the leading players of the game. The vaudeville is Tom Harrington's, a team of clever sketch artists.

LECTURERS ENGAGED FOR QUEEN'S SESSION Appointed Temporarily to Fill Posts Vacated by Professors in Khaki.

Several appointments to the staff at Queen's University have been made. The appointments are only temporary, owing to the absence of a number of the staff on military duty.

Prof. E. A. Dale has been engaged to lecture in the Latin department. Prof. Dale is a graduate of Oriel College, Oxford University, and comes highly recommended from Toronto University where he has been engaged.

Mr. Demarest is lecturing in the department, and has been engaged in work in the United States. Miss May Macdonnell, M.A., has also been engaged temporarily, and will lecture in Latin. Miss Macdonnell is a graduate of Queen's, and is the daughter of G. M. Macdonnell, K.C., University avenue.

The history department has secured A. G. Dorland, B.A., who will lecture for the coming session. Mr. Dorland is a graduate of Queen's, and has been doing post-graduate work at Yale University.

POWER FROM KINGSTON MILLS. Was Connected With Kingston Electrical Plant Thursday.

Power from J. M. Campbell's plant at Kingston Mills was connected with the Kingston Utilities Commission's electrical plant on Thursday morning, and according to Manager Folger the results were very satisfactory. The street lamps were lit for a while as a test. At present 150-horsepower of low voltage is being taken, but this will be largely increased. To-night the street lamps will be lighted with the power from Kingston Mills.

BASEBALL ON WEDNESDAY

National League. Boston, 1; Pittsburgh, 0. Brooklyn, 2; Chicago, 0. New York, 3; St. Louis, 2. (ten innings).

American League. Boston, 3; New York, 2. (ten innings). Washington, 13; Philadelphia, 3.

Green Ginger at Carnovsky's.

Something Very Special FOR TOMORROW.

We have just secured for two days only

50 Ladies' High Class Sample Suits!

All the latest New York models.

No two alike. These we have the privilege of ordering from, so that the woman who wants a fashionable and exclusive suit for autumn will have an opportunity now. Every one of these new fall models are delightfully chic and distinctive. Prices range from

$48.00 To $75.00

As we have to return the sample models on Friday night, you will have just tomorrow in which to see them.

The materials are VELVETS, BROAD-CLOTHS, VELOURS, FINE SERGES, GAB-ERDINES. Many fur trimmed.

You may order any material and have it made in any of the models shown.

John Laidlaw & Son

Men's Walk-Over Shoes Now Ready

The Lockett Shoe Store