POLICE GOT STOLEN CAR GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

"JOY RIDERS" DISCARDED IT ON STEPHEN ST. AFTER BREAK.

There is Evidently A Band of Motor Car Thieves At Work in the City—Owners Had Better Keep Watch On Their Cars.

There is evidently a band of motor car thieves at work in the city. Two cars were stolen during last week, but luckily both of them have been recovered. A well-known doctor's car was stolen early in the week, and on Friday night, W. F. Gallery, who lives at Raitton, lost his car. He left it at the corner of Montreal and Princess streets, and when he went to get it, found that it was missing. The police were asked to be on the lookout for it, and on Saturday night, Constable Stuart Patterson succeeded in finding the missing car on Stephen street, where it had been abandoned by the thief or thieves. One of the tires had been put out of business, taken off and thrown in the car, but the car suffered no other damage.

People living in the neighborhood stated that they noticed the car on the roadway early on Saturday morning, but of course they did not know it had been stolen. They were under the impression that there had been a breakdown, and that the owner would be back for the car. Constable Patterson had the car towed downtown, and the owner was soon in possession of it.

Owners of motor cars will do well to look after them as it is believed that there is a band of "joy riders" stealing cars.

The many friends of Mrs. Drummond Valleau, Gananoque, will be pleased to hear she is progressing nicely after a severe illness in the Kingston General Hospital, but is still confined there after undergoing a serious operation.

SUGGESTIONS TO SICK WOMEN

How Many Are Restored To Health.

First.—Almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacements, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

Second.—The medicine most successful in relieving female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates and strengthens the organism; it overcomes disease.

For forty years it has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Third.—The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills.

Fourth.—Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultants), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

Hair Becomes Charming, Wavy, Lustrous and Thick in Few Moments.

Every Bit of Dandruff Disappears And Hair Stops Coming Out.

For 25 cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

XMAS SOCKS FOR SOLDIERS

Red Cross Society Needs Many More Workers.

The Kingston Red Cross Society is busy making stockings for the boys in the trenches. Some 600 require to be made before Oct. 15th, so that a great many more lady workers are needed if the desired number are to be ready in time. In the hope that they might help along the good cause the following verses are published:

A Pair of Socks.
Twenty thousand little stitches
Go to make a soldier's sock,
That's not counting up the hitches,
Nor the minutes by the clock.

Forty thousand little stitches,
Then, it takes to make a pair,
And it means a heap of riches,
If you count the thought that's there.

There's a little wisp of laughter,
Just to keep your spirit gay,
There's a thread a tough resistance,
For to give you strength by day.

There's a filament of firelight,
Stretching out across the sea,
Just to warm you in the cold night,
And a glow of cheer to see.

There's a smooth, soft strand of comfort,
Meant to ease the longest road,
And a friendly comrade-feeling,
That would like to share your load.

Forty thousand little stitches,
Then, it takes to make a pair,
And they all are woven closely,
With the armour of a prayer.
—Polly Peck, Moose Jaw Times.

DRUNK DISAPPEARED

After Parading Princess Street Sunday Afternoon For Time.
Sunday afternoon, the police received a hurry-up call, which stated that a drunken man was parading up and down Princess street—at least he was "zig zagging" to use the correct term.

A couple of constables hurried out to get the drunk, as they are quite scarce these days, and it is indeed quite a novelty to see one, but when the bluecoats got on Princess street, Mr. Drunk was conspicuous by his absence. He evidently was tipped off that the constables were out after him, and he managed to get to his home. And it was well he did too, or he might have had an embarrassing time trying to explain to the magistrate where he secured his liquor.

DRUNK WAS ARRESTED

Came From Cape Vincent Prepared For a Jolly Time.

With a good-sized cargo on board and with two bottles of choice Irish whiskey, tucked away in his jeans, a Kingstonian came over from Cape Vincent, on the boat Saturday night, prepared to have a lively week-end but he was sadly disappointed.

On his arrival in Kingston, he was met by a party he did not care to see, namely, a member of the Kingston police force, and as a result of this meeting, he spent several hours in the police cells and has his liquor confiscated. After sobering up, he was allowed by the magistrate, to go to his home.

Guy Bros. Here.

Guy Bros. Minstrels, always popular wherever they go, paid their first visit to the Grand Opera House this season on Saturday afternoon and night.

The songs were refreshing, and with Harry Prince to help them out a number of the finest choruses were rendered. The end men were as comical as ever, and the stick drill at the end of the first act was unique.

The vaudeville acts were especially clever. The Morale Brothers, Kinko, the sensational cartoonist, and Tobin, the man on the globe executed their acts with remarkable cleverness.

Auto Damaged.

A large automobile, owned by E. H. Reynolds, of the city, skidded on the wet pavement at the corner of Brock and Barrie streets on Saturday afternoon and smashed against the curb.

Capt. James Graham, of the 144th Battalion, has returned home from a trip to Ottawa and Hull.
