Belgians are Starving While Canadians Have Plenty

Our Heroic Allies Deserve More Help than We are Giving

An accident of geography, and the fortunes of war, have subjected Belgium to the cold-blooded, calculated cruelty and attempted starvation of the German conquerors—while we in Canada, secure from danger, are making money out of the War.

Legitimate though our profits are, we surely owe a substantial share of them to our Allies, who are destitute because they dared stand up for their rights and defy the enemy.

We have given much—but barely enough to help keep the Belgians alive. More of them every week are calling for help, as their own resources are exhausted, and every one of the millions should have something more than the three slices of bread and the pint of soup which is all the Relief Commission can supply out of present contributions.

If you have been helping, do more if you can till the war is over and Belgium is free. If you have not given yet, will you make up for lost time with a substantial contribution? Better still, will you give, every month, enough to feed one or more Belgian families, at the rate of $2.50 each per month?

Whatever you can afford to give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or

HUGE GIFT TO FRANCE

American Devotes War Profits To Educating Children. Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 7.—France's orphans are to get the war profits millions of W. A. Clark, Jr., according to intimate friends of the young multi-millionaire. The announcement, made here to-day, means that at least two millions of dollars will go for the education of the children of France left fatherless by the great war. This amount, it is said, represents the present profits of Mr. Clark from the sale of war munitions and Wall Street "war babies." It is announced that the gift will probably be used in the form of scholarships for the education of the orphans in industry and commerce, as well as in the arts and sciences.

Mother Do you know that an ointment applied to your child's skin is absorbed through the pores and enters the system just as surely as though it had been swallowed into the stomach? That is why only the very purest ointment should be used.

For purity of ingredients, Zam-Buk is without equal. This has been proved, not only by the thousands of satisfied users, but by chemical analysis. The famous English chemist, W. Lascelles Scott, however, kept the skin soft, ended the inflammation and irritation, and very soon the rash had entirely disappeared. I have used Zam-Buk for other skin troubles—always with the same satisfactory result.

There is nothing can equal Zam-Buk for skin diseases—nothing so soothing and healing, and nothing that allays inflammation and ends pain so quickly. Mothers who have once used Zam-Buk will have no other, and children who have once had Zam-Buk applied, will cry for it again because they know it ends their pain.

As a "first aid" in the home, Zam-Buk is invaluable. Being a strong antiseptic, if applied to a cut, burn or wound of any kind as soon as sustained there is no danger of festering or blood-poisoning.

Mrs. I. Wilson of Sarnia, Ont., says: "I could not do without Zam-Buk for my family. We find it so splendid for burns, sores, etc."

Mrs. J. Knox of Pine Creek, Man., writes: "My little daughter, while teething, was troubled with a rash. Applications of Zam-Buk, with a few days, cured it."

Mr. L. B. Andresen of 1407 E. 22nd St., Minneapolis, writes: "For seven years we have used Zam-Buk in our home and could not get along without it. Whenever any of the children, my wife, or self meets with an accident, we always use Zam-Buk, and it has never been known to fail. It has saved us many a doctor's bill."

Zam-Buk is composed exclusively of herbal essences and vegetable extracts, with none of the animal fats and poisonous mineral drugs found in ordinary ointments, and can be used with perfect safety on the most delicate skin—even the skin of a baby. If you have not yet tried this wonderful herbal ointment, we invite you to try it now at our expense, as per following coupon.
