CAPT. STANLEY CUNNINGHAM

NOW 4TH SENIOR OFFICER IN THE 21ST BATTALION.

He Writes That the German Morale is Very Bad, While That of Canadians Was Never Better. In a letter dated 27th September, Captain Stanley Cunningham writes his mother, Mrs. Henry Cunningham, as follows: "Well here we are back in the line again awaiting for any event that may turn up. Arrived here at 7 a.m. yesterday, and I am writing this in a German dugout, a good, deep safe one, that would need a very big shell to do any damage to me here. "The first division started the show in conjunction with the British and French yesterday noon, and everybody has taken his objective; but the battle is still going on. Our guns are still firing away—everything from an eighteen-pounder to a twelve-inch gun. You cannot imagine the noise. The Germans can hear the hold anything in face of our artillery, and their aeroplanes dare not come near us, or if they do they are immediately shot down. There are German prisoners going past us all the time in parties of from twenty-five to one hundred. Would very much like to collect souvenirs and send home to the children, but really have not time, as I am terribly busy. "The great thing is that we have the Hun licked. His morale is very bad, and our morale was never better. Our men take everything as it comes, and we have had some serious times in the past month. "The adjutant's job is by far the busiest in the battalion, but there is nothing like work. "We had official notification from the army commander that the work of the Canadian division was the best in this vicinity. (You must know where we are) since July 1st. Our battalion was given a hard job and we did it to the King's taste. I am proud to belong to the battalion. The sacrifices our men are making are wonderful. "I am hoping to get a week's leave in a couple of weeks. Don't know whether it will materialize or not. If there is any one thing I really would like it would be a bath. "I am now the fourth senior officer in the battalion. Two weeks ago I was eighth. I will probably get my majority before long. However, I am not worrying very much about that." Capt. Cunningham has been in France for more than thirteen months, and in that time has only had six days' leave. He went to France about the twenty-second in rank.

Capt. Dillon, Ottawa of the Supply Department was at Fort Henry on Wednesday making a periodical inspection. Capt. Wilson formerly medical officer of the 53rd Battalion, was in the city on Wednesday. It will take six trains to move the 3,000 soldiers from Barrieffield camp but Major Hamilton expects no difficulty. Very few men of the three battalions will be left in hospitals when the units go overseas. Clerks of the pay office are busy with the three battalions to see that all the papers are put in readiness for the inspection. Capt. F. A. Palmer, Engineer officer, left on Thursday for Pembroke on duty, B.S.M. The 155th Battalion band played at headquarters mess on Wednesday night. There were over sixty members of the various Kingston chapters of the Daughters of the Empire entertained by Brig-Gen. T. D. R. Hemming, G.O.C., and the officers of the headquarters staff of Barrieffield camp on Wednesday afternoon. The affair was arranged as a token of appreciation by the military authorities of the work that the I.O.D.E. has been doing since the war broke out. Tea was served at the headquarters mess. Brig-Gen. T.D.R. Hemming, G.O.C. and staff headed a route march of the three battalions of the camp through the city on Wednesday afternoon. The route was along King to Collingwood, in Union to Barrie, and down Princess street, returning to the camp about 11:30 a.m. The men never looked finer than on this their farewell march through Kingston's street, and large crowds gave them a deserved welcome. It was announced at the camp on Thursday morning that the 154th Battalion would remain over for a few days until the kills arrive for the men. This battalion was slated to leave with the other three, but only the 155th and 156th will be leaving now. Canadian Casualties. Killed in Action—J. T. W. Holliday, Port Hope. Died of Wounds—W. W. Hall, Peterboro. Dangerously Ill—F. Kinlock, Minto. Wounded—F. Campbell, Avonmore; S. Smith, Peterboro; O. H. Switzer, Napanee; J. R. Hubble, Havlock; W. N. Casselman, Belleville; J. C. Feeney, Marmora; Capt. Howard W. Taylor, Gananoque. Women's Canadian Club. The first regular meeting of the Women's Canadian Club will be held on Saturday at 4 p.m. in Convocation Hall, Queen's university. Mr. Wylie will speak on "Condition of Children in Kingston." All women invited. Membership fees, ($1.00) may be paid at the close of the lecture.

WAR THE ONE TASK FOR ALL MEN

Says Laurier at Big Liberal Banquet at London, Ont.

London, Ont., Oct. 12.—Ontario Liberalism turned a new page here last night in the great banquet of the Liberal Club Federation, which was characterized by a vigor and concentrated political enthusiasm that has not marked Liberalism in many years. Fifteen hundred men from all parts of the province assembled to hear Sir Wilfrid Laurier, N. W. Rowell, Premier Norris, of Manitoba, and other speakers, and unreservedly endorsed the policies of reform laid down in broad and patriotic lines of statesmanship. "This war has got to be fought to a finish. Germany has to be fought firmly and resolutely until victory is won, but then when it is won let the better angels of our nature again guide us in our course," declared Sir Wilfrid Laurier in a phrase that is destined to become familiar in our mouths as household words. Sir Wilfrid, while criticizing the Dominion government for its extravagance on civil administration during the perilous years of the war, looked beyond the conflict of the present in a way such as even he has rarely exceeded in his long and honored career. In a speech of the rarest charm, he took his breathless hearers up into heights of nobility, of forgiveness even for sins which are now being committed.

TO SAVE BOSTON

From Iniquity and Sin—A Japanese "Billy Sunday."

Boston, Oct. 12.—From far off Japan comes the latest evangelist to "save" Boston from iniquity and sin. He is the Rev. K. S. Hirado, of Tokio, who is known as the Japanese "Billy Sunday." He was converted to Christianity several years ago by missionaries and has conducted extensive evangelistic campaigns in Japan. He heard of the many agnostics and infidels among Boston's "high-brow" and came here to preach Christianity to them.

Hebrews' Request Denied.

Windsor, Oct. 12.—A request from a number of Hebrew residents of Windsor to the Board of Education, that they be allowed the use of Mercer Street School five nights a week, where children of their race could be taught their own religion, was refused by the trustees on the ground that it might establish a dangerous precedent.

Heroic Telephone Girl.

New Brunswick, N.J., Oct. 12.—Miss Belle Matthews, of Jamesburg, was the heroic figure in a fire which threatened Jamesburg yesterday morning. She stuck at the switchboard and called up Hightown, Freehold, and Englishtown to send assistance, although the flames were curling about her and her clothing caught fire.

Trains Delayed.

Owing to an accident at Whitty the Toronto trains were a couple of hours late on Thursday afternoon, and as a result the mail did not get to the city in time for the afternoon delivery. Two freight trains were in the accident at Whitty, but it was reported that no person had been hurt.

On October 13th, 1914, Agnes Elizabeth Lowery was born, and the next day her father, E. S. M. William Lowery, W.O., R.C.H.A., arrived in England. This little girl, a visitor at the Whig office on Thursday afternoon, has never seen her father, in spite of her two years of age.

At Bayonne, N.J., a woman was killed, two men probably mortally wounded and half a dozen other persons less seriously hurt when the police fired a volley Wednesday night into a crowd of Standard Oil strikers and their sympathizers which was demolishing a fire engine. The wife and father of Pte. E. Bogart, 155th Battalion, Athens, are visiting at H. W. Shaw's, Wellington street for a few days.

According to a report received from Gananoque, Thomas Lucey, who went overseas with one of the batteries, was killed in action. In the Somme offensive the R. C. E. A. stood steadily for forty minutes and changed their position nine times.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand. Another excellent bill of photo-plays and vaudeville is assured Grand patrons to-night-to-morrow and Saturday, with matinees daily. In the feature film, "The Man From Bitter Roots," William Farnum has a vehicle which surpasses any previous one in which this picture star has appeared. There will also be a two-reel Universal photoplay, one of the latest releases, a one-reel comedy, and the interesting Pathe News. Lester, the Whistling Girl, comes highly recommended, with an entirely new article, while Callahan and Rhyme, a team of dancing acrobats, have an original act which has gained a reputation on the big wheels. The bill is evenly balanced throughout.

Big Irish Play at Stand.

"The marriage of Molly O," the five act Triangle play shown at the Strand to-night and for the balance of the week, is a photo-play of unusual interest dealing with life in dear old Ireland. There is bacon and greens, jaunty cars and Shamrocks. A real Irish fair, Brindle cow, potato peel, real old Irish fight, and last, but not least, the fairies your grandparents talk about. An elaborate musical score of Irish airs will accompany the picture. A two-part Keystone comedy. A two-reel Lubin drama, "The Half Wit," and one-reel Vim comedy are on the bill. The vaudeville consists of Ford and Richards in a singing and talking act that is something different.

At Griffin's.

Donald Brian, famed stage star, and one of the three stellar attractions of the recent success, "Sybil," returns to the screen in an excruciatingly funny comedy produced by the Famous Players Film Co. on the Paramount Programme, "The Smugglers." This laugh-film will be the main attraction at Griffin's on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. As the title of this photoplay comedy clearly indicates, it is replete with adventures, thrills and episodes both amusing and stirring. But underneath the fabric of romance and drama that are connected with the innocent smuggling of valuable pearls by John Battleby Watts is a strong foundation of laughter, for the director of the production, the well-known Sidney Olcott, has never permitted the star or his support to take themselves too seriously, and the result is that the comedy of the plot is ever-present and irresistible.

Young Kingstonian Killed at the Front

Eric Wilson, Aged Twenty-Two, Went Overseas with Queen's Engineers. Still another young Kingstonian has paid the supreme sacrifice at the front. On Thursday morning a telegram from the Department of Militia and Defence at Ottawa brought the sad news to Joseph Wilson, of 73 Lower Alfred street, that his son, Eric Wilson, had been killed in action. He went overseas with Major Marphail and Queen's Engineers. Deceased was twenty-two years old and at the time he enlisted was a student at Queen's University. He was a bright young man, well liked by his wide circle of friends, and the announcement of his death was learned with sincere regret.
