CAPT. "TOM" FLANAGAN.

Lieut. R. H. Greer, O.C. 180th, (Sportmen's) Battalion announced that Capt. Tom Flanagan, who has been holding the dual position of paymaster to that battalion, and Director of Athletes for Camp Borden, will accompany the unit overseas. This definite announcement comes as a surprise to many, as it was known that headquarters had suggested that he accept his athletic directorship permanently, and incidentally the rank of major while so acting.

N. H. A. Experiment. It is announced that at an informal gathering of the heads of the various hockey clubs composing the N.H.A., held shortly after the annual meeting, which was adjourned for a month, it was decided that an effort should be made to have one of the owners or managing directors act as resident of the association for the next year as an experiment
