

GENERAL VIEW OF THE SHEEPSHEAD BAY SPEEDWAY
Where the Astor Cup race was run, with thirty-two of the fastest racing cars entered in the classic on Saturday, September 30.

ATTEMPTS IN THE PAST TO ILLUMINATE THE NIAGARA FALLS at night have never been as successful as that which is now lighting up the Falls. One hundred huge electric lights, each of 500,000, have been arranged along the falls and rapids. The flow of radiance is said to be of startling beauty. The lamps are hidden in day time behind barriers of rock so as not to spoil the natural beauty of the falls.

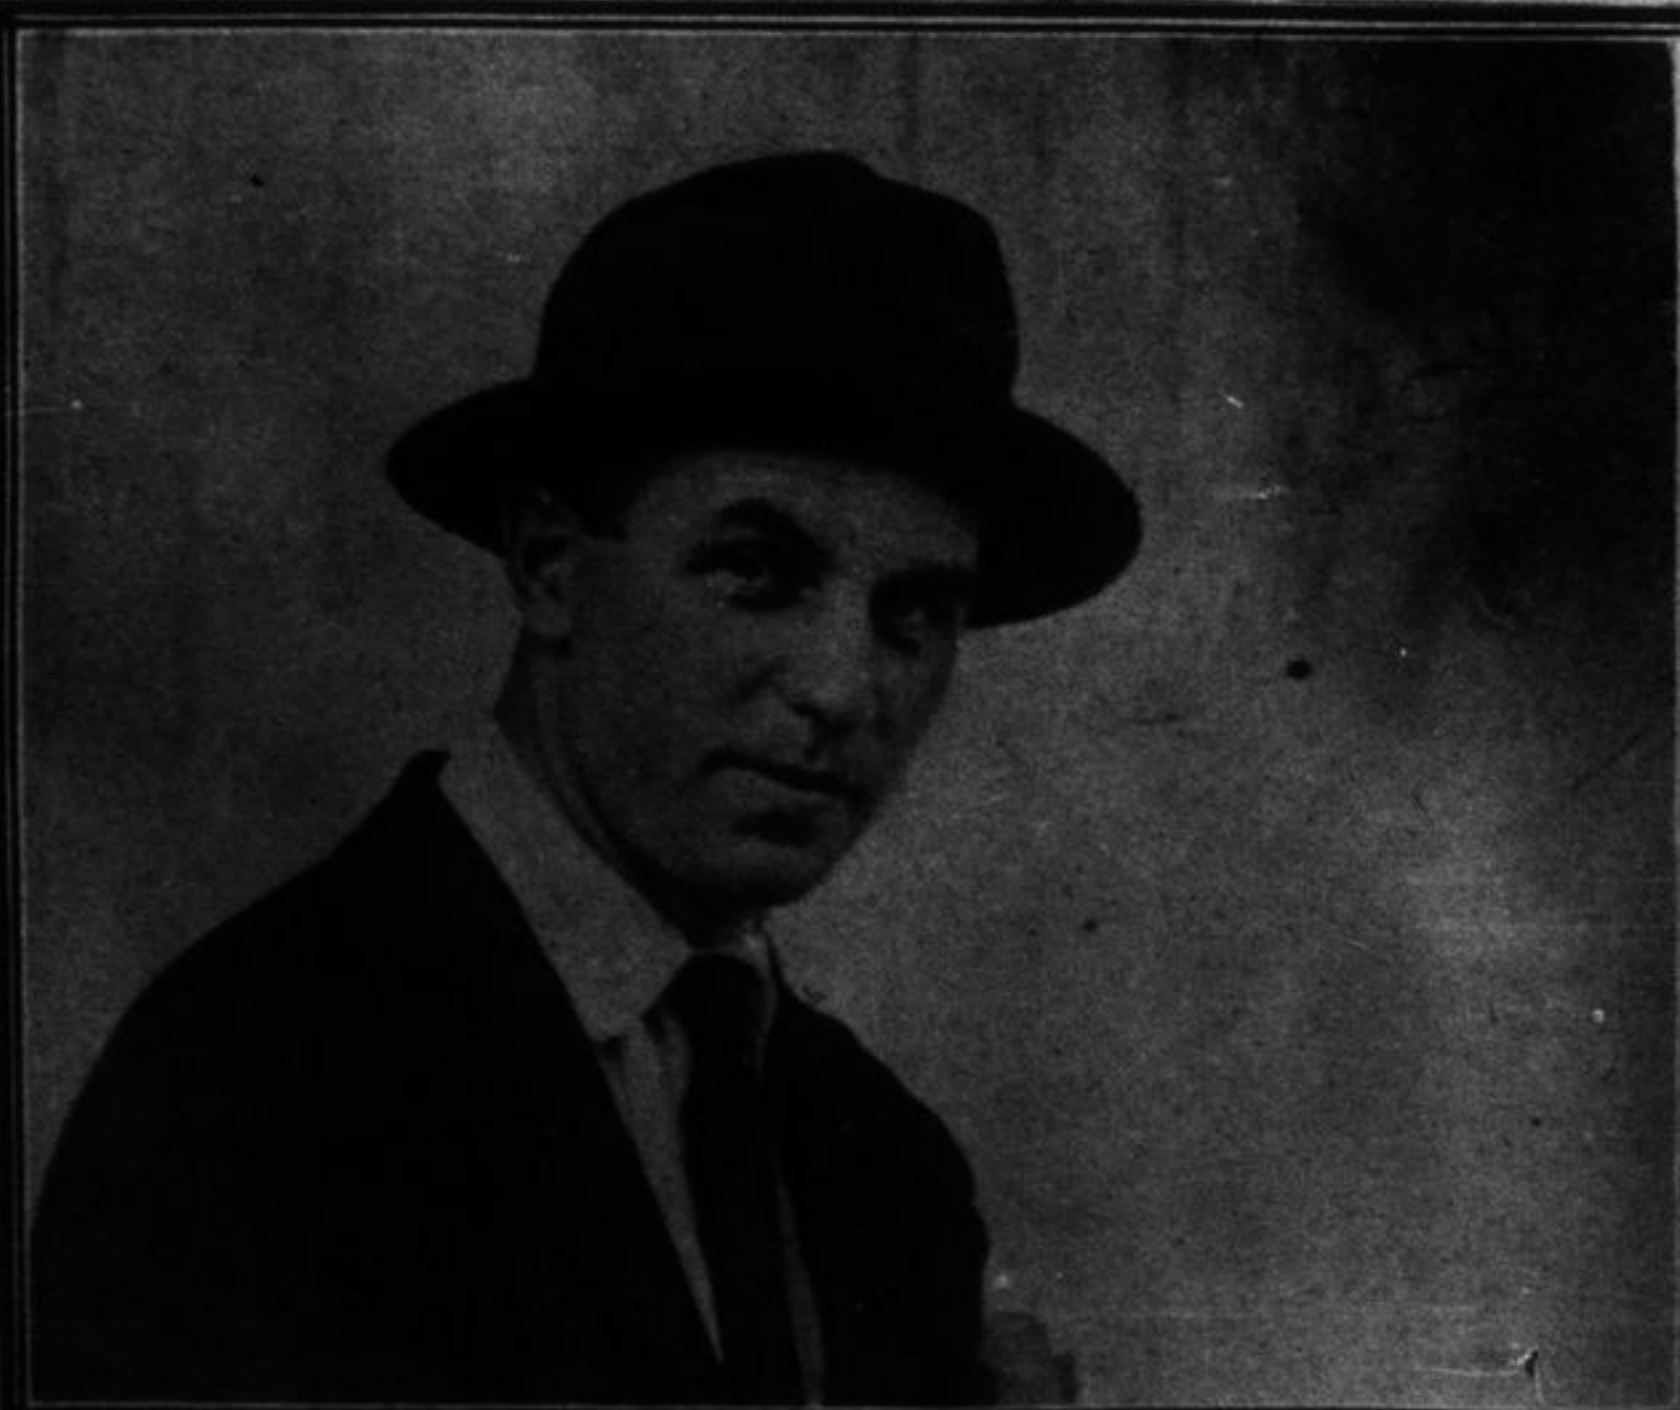

FORMER PREMIER VENIZELOS OF GREECE
Who, it is reported, will go to Salonika and place himself at the head of a temporary revolutionary government. He will probably issue a manifesto to the Greek people, and will invite King Constantine to put himself at the head of a national defence movement. New unpublished photo.

OPENING OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN NEW YORK.
Doctor examining the teeth of a scholar.

AN EXTRAORDINARY VIEW OF A BATTLESHIP.—The battleship "Nevada" passing up East River. Two turrets of the "Nevada," which carry three fourteen-inch guns, are to undergo changes that will make the firing of the battleship more efficacious. Improved gears are to be put in the gun carriages. Our photo shows the vessel, passing up the East River to the Navy Yard.

RUFUS GAYNOR
Son of the late Mayor W. J. Gaynor, of New York, is the latest of the young Americans to sail for the front in France to take part in the ambulance corps work of the French army. Many Americans are engaged in duties under the Red Cross behind the French lines.

LAWN BOWLING IS PRACTICALLY NEW IN THE STATES.
The Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn, N.Y., has many "allies" and is endeavoring to popularize the sport. They held a sort of tournament recently, when members of the Royal Yacht Club of Toronto, Canada, visited their allies, and the matches attracted quite an amount of attention.

PRESIDENT WILSON DECORATES MODEL BOY SCOUT.
When President Wilson returned to Shadow Lawn on Thursday he was greeted by the bashfully joyous Master Daniel Morris, of Hazleton, Pa., who was there by special appointment with the President, to receive a decoration in recognition of his being the model boy scout of the land. Morris has the privilege of wearing thirty-four merit stripes, which he has earned through his actions during the time he has been a Boy Scout.