After the concert an appetizing lunch was served in the writing tent by some of the Daughters of the Empire, and a fine farewell address was delivered by S. W. J. ### THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

The management of the Grand Opera House has secured for the first three days of next week one of the finest programmes of vaudeville and photoplays yet presented. One of the chief features is a five-reel photoplay of that celebrated and immortal poem, "Barbara Fritchie," in which little Mary Miles Minter, the fascinating young actress, is starred. Also on the same bill will be Charlie Chaplin in his latest and best picture, "The Pawn Shop," the funniest in which this favorite comedian has appeared in. A comedy picture and the Pathe News will also be shown. The vaudeville selected is the very best. LaCody and Costella, two Italian musicians, will render the latest selections on an accordion and violin, while Winnifred Stewart will present a high-class singing act.

"Devil's Needle" at Strand.

In "The Devil's Needle," the five-act Triangle drama to be seen at the Strand on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nornia Talmodgro, the gifted actress who made such a big hit in "The Battle Cry of Peace," and that big Broadway star, Tully Marshall, are co-starred, and the latter is seen in the kind of a part in which he achieved his greatest fame on the speaking stage, that of a dope fiend. A two-reel Keystone comedy, "Never Again," the Selig Weekly, and other good photoplays are also on the bill. The vaudeville consists of Russell & Hughes, character impersonators, in an act that is novel and every entertaining. Another good act is also on the bill, rounding out a first-class programme.

Dare Devil Feats.

The Spies' train was racing alongside, and the naval investigator's automobile dashed ahead at a mile a minute. Suddenly a yawning chasm, left by a washout appeared ahead. It was too late to stop, to avert, the big machine took the leap, cleared twenty-five feet of space to the opposite bank. This is certainly a thrilling incident in "The Secret of the Submarine," at the King Edward Theatre Monday and Tuesday, afternoon and evening. Usual admission.
