A VESSEL RAN AROUND

AFTER A BATTLE OF FORTY-EIGHT HOURS ON THE LAKE

Schooner Arthur struck bottom off Oswego—Members of the Crew Were Exhausted Following Their Experience.

A despatch from Oswego has the following: After forty-eight hours on Lake Ontario in a gale of wind and unable to make harbor the schooner Arthur, Capt. James Peacock, master, arrived at this port at daybreak Monday morning. The schooner sailed into the harbor with a north wind, and on account of Oswego being without a tug, went around in the river just west of the Ontario & Western trestle. The craft was loaded with 400 tons of coal, and has about three feet of water in her hold. It will be necessary to pump her out before she can be moved.

The Arthur left Oswego on Thursday morning. While in the lake a storm broke with a heavy wind. Arriving off Port Hope, Capt. Peacock was unable to make the harbor and coming about he sailed with the wind for Kingston. Near this harbor the wind prevented him from making any progress toward port, and he headed for the Gallop Islands. Once more the wind and sea headed him off, and the Arthur made for Oswego. A wind from the north-west shifted to the north early this morning and the Arthur was able to sail into Oswego. At the mouth of the harbor all sails were lowered and in making an attempt to get into a slip the boat went around near the city water pipe.

During the time the craft was on the lake a heavy sea was rolling, but the schooner stood the rough weather wonderfully well. Arriving here the members of the crew were exhausted. Efforts were made this morning to release the boat, the coast guard crew assisting, but it will be necessary to pump out the water in the hold. The Arthur is a three masted, and attracted much attention this morning.

The steamer Hincley has been engaged to pump out the hold of the schooner.

Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Customs, has made a gift of $500 to the 156th Leeds and Grenville Battalion, which is shortly to go overseas, the money to be used in supplying comforts for the men during the journey to England. This battalion was organized by Lieut.-Col. Bedell, who returned from the front for the purpose.

SYRACUSE LADY LOVES TO READ KINGSTON WHIG

For the following gracefully expressed appreciation the Whig has to thank a lady subscriber at Syracuse, N. Y.:

"Please find enclosed money order for payment for your interesting and valuable paper, which I feel I cannot spare—at least while the boy in whom we are interested is still on foreign soil. I love the paper for itself also, and read it just as quickly as it reaches here."

BILINGUISTS PREPARE FOR ADVERSE DECISION They Will Transfer Their Allegiance to Public Schools if Defeated.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Preparations are being made by the bilinguists for an adverse decision by the Privy Council. Should judgment be refused the lingual rights for which they have been fighting so long and insistently, they will transfer their allegiance from the separate to the public schools.

They will transfer their taxes on bloc and will attend the public schools. In addition they will support their own parochial schools, and will not send their pupils to the public schools. This is in effect the propaganda which has been passed and which will be set in operation if an adverse decision is rendered.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—There will be no appetizingly intoxicating flavors and no brandy sauce or ingredients in Ontario's plum puddings, mince pies and other foods and delicacies this coming Christmas, unless they are made at home and consumed at home. Likewise, the young folk with a sweet tooth have bidden a last farewell to "brandy balls" and other candies flavored with alcoholic stimulant.

THEATRICAL NEWS

At the Grand.

Last night the Grand Opera House was filled to capacity to witness the splendid programme of vaudeville and pictures. "Barbara Frietchie" was shown, personated by that well-known popular little star, Mary Miles Minter. The story is adapted from Whittier's immortal poem of the same name, and has the distinction of being a war play without a single battle. The Pathe News showing interesting war pictures, was also presented. Charlie Chaplin, in "The Pawn Shop," took the house by storm, it being the best and funniest picture ever made for this comedian. In the vaudeville acts, La Cody and Costella, in a musical act, made a big hit, both being expert. Winifred Stewart, in a high-class singing act, was also good, her rendering in excellent voice of "Yaaka Hula," "Turn Back the Universe" and "A Cottage, Some Roses and You" drew forth hearty applause. Same bill to-night.

At the Strand.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the bill presented at the Strand last evening. The feature picture, a Triangle drama in five acts, "The Devil's Needle," featuring Norma Talmadge and Tully Marshall, Willie Collier, in a two-act Keystone, "Never Again," "The Candle," a two-reel Lubin drama, and "The Selig Weekly," showing the Deutschland, the German submarine, and other latest happenings, complete the picture end of the bill. The vaudeville consists of McCarthy and McGuire in a rapid fire singing and dancing act that pleased, Russell and Hughes, comedy character impersonators, are also very entertaining, and Major Carrington, the original boy drummer, who served in the American civil war at the age of eleven years, rendered a very clever snare drum and xylophone turn. Same bill to-night and to-morrow.

RUTHLESS SEA WAR DEMANDED BY GERMANS

Committee for Peace Insists Submarines Should Begin Operations Immediately.

Berlin, Oct. 17 (via London).—A largely attended meeting of the independent committee for German peace, one of the organizations conducting an agitation for a ruthless submarine war, was held here yesterday. Deputy Furhmann, national Liberal leader in the Prussian Diet, acted as chairman.

According to the Tageblatt's report, the meeting insisted that an unrestricted submarine war must and should begin immediately. Count von Reventlow, editorial writer on the Tages Zeitung, who was one of the prominent speakers, added Dr. Karl Helfferich, secretary of the interior, to the list of undesirables. He declared Dr. Helfferich was more dangerous than the imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg.

EAST PRUSSIAN CORN CROP.

Production Means Supply For Additional 2,500,000 Persons.

Berlin, Oct. 17 (via wireless to Sayville).—An official report received from Koenigsberg, East Prussia, announces that the soil of East Prussia under cultivation with corn aggregates 539,000 hectares (1,331,330 acres), an increase of 73,000 hectares (1,802,000 acres) over 1915, says the Overseas News Agency. The crop increased by 272,000 tons, reaching the total of 759,000 tons.

The president of the province of East Prussia announces that with the surplus production 2,500,000 more persons can be supplied during the year. The increase in acreage is due principally to the re-establishment of the farms destroyed or damaged by the Russians when they invaded East Prussia.

Robert Cooper, manager Maple Leaf Milling Company, Welland, was nominated for the Ontario Legislature by the Liberals in convention at Welland.
