Sure Way To Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This just destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

THE JUDGMENT RENDERED

IN THE CASE OF WAY VS. SHAW OVER ALLEGED MORTGAGE.

Action Was Heard at Belleville by Judge Britton—An Appeal Was Entered at Osgoode Hall.

The following is a copy of the judgment rendered by Judge MacLaren at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, in the case of Way vs. Shaw. It will be read with interest by a large number of Whig readers who have followed the case, it being an alleged mortgage supposed to have been given by the late W. E. Way, of Tweed, 15 W. J. Shaw, of Tweed, who himself executed the mortgage in 1912, but not registering it till May 21st, 1915. Three days after Mr. Way's death the case was tried by Judge Britton in Belleville in December, 1915. An appeal was made against the decision and the case was heard at Osgoode in June. The judgment is that of the Appellate Court.

"It is impossible to finish the consideration of this case assisted by the able arguments of counsel without being impressed by the want in almost every specific instance where doubt arises of those corroborative surroundings which it would be natural to expect.

"Were it not that the matters in question have been passed upon by an experienced judge, and that to pronounce the respondent guilty of forgery and perjury without the opportunity of judging him by his demeanor and behaviour, I would have considerable doubt as to whether the conclusion arrived at was one which this court should adopt, but suspicion is not proof and it is almost impossible where the issues raised involve the moral character of the actors in the transaction and where they have given essential evidence which the judge has accepted to refuse to give effect to his views.

"These considerations do not go far enough, however, as to require us to hold that in giving judgment for the defendant he took the mortgage account. There are four items in it which are necessarily discussed in the endeavor to discredit the respondent's whole story. One was an advance made when the mortgage was said to be executed and as to it there is only the evidence of the respondent. The three others are in a measure corroborated if the receipt is proved because it shows that notes for these sums were then given up. But one of them depends in the end on the sole evidence of the respondent who alleges a payment to an estate on behalf of the deceased mortgagor which is not shown to have been made. The third payment is money advanced it is said for the specific purpose of removing an incumbrance which is not paid off.

"While, therefore, the judgment will have to stand affirmed I think the respondent must prove his mortgage account and for that purpose the judgment must be varied to provide for the reference to ascertain the amount advanced upon and due under the mortgage, the action to the Master at Belleville and to take the mortgage account. In this respect the judgment is not to be regarded either as prima facie or conclusive evidence. No costs of appeal."

The famous old Royal Canadian Horse Artillery Depot has been doing splendid work at Petawawa during the summer and thousands of artillerymen were trained for the Fourth Canadian Overseas Division. Now the depot is returning and will immediately commence a course of training for officers and N.C.O.s at the Royal School of Artillery as well as conducting courses of training for recruits who come from other points.

KINGSTON COLLEGIATE IN O. R. F. U. SERIES

Will Play Home and Home Games With Brockville Collegiate Team.

An eastern junior series of the O.R.F.U. has been formed comprising three teams, Brockville Collegiate Institute, Gananoque High School and Kingston C.I. Gananoque dropped out of the series when defeated by Brockville at Gananoque last Saturday. Brockville, therefore, comes to Kingston on the 28th of this month. If K.C.I. can defeat Brockville in home-and-home games, the Collegians will move into the semifinals with the winners of some western group.

The K.C.I. team, under the supervision of A. E. Thompson and Mr. Slinger, is rapidly rounding into shape. A week or so ago they gave a very satisfactory account of themselves when they met Queen's in a practice game.

Of course O.R.F.U. rules will have to be adhered to, and this will handicap K.C.I. very considerably, as no "interference" or backbone of old K.C.I. formations, is allowed.

GERMANY ABUSES THE UNITED STATES

New York Herald.

Anti-British propaganda is now raging in the German press as never before, and also for purposes of propaganda, the Prussians are issuing at Amsterdam a Deutsche Wochenzeitung, in the latest issue of which there is an article full of fierce invective against the United States.

Were it not for the fact that America is behind the Somme armies of the Allies, they allege, they would never be able to beat the Prussians. Here is what the Deutsche Wochenzeitung says:

"On the Somme our best and bravest are bleeding; they also bleed on the Meuse and on the Aisne. An unparalleled expenditure of shells is turning the trenches and their connections into heaps of rubbish. Who supplies them? Who, at bottom, is waging the war? If you ask the mourning mother, 'What has robbed you of your son, your pride and your hope?' her reply is, 'The lust for profit of the American millionaires.'"

"There is a country whose war aim is quite clear—America with her object of becoming the sole world banker by delivering immense war supplies.

"Behind the Somme front stands an enemy whom we cannot reach. Her war is a one side war against which we are unable to retaliate. She is the vampire who sucks the blood from Europe's arteries because she is able to suck in at the same time Europe's gold."

SOME PEOPLE ARE WITHOUT HOPE

Toronto Telegram (Con.).

Germany owes much to the Canadian papers that defended the Shell Committee, that justified Hon. Col. J. Wesley, and that defended the Ros rifle, whitewashed the extravagance and bungling of the Militia Department.

Germany also owes much to the pacifist press and parliamentarians of Canada, to the anti-dreadnought press, and to the anti-dreadnought press and parliamentarians following of Laurierism.

Public journals and political parties that would oppose dreadnoughts before the outbreak of war are little better than the Canadian papers that supported the Shell Committee, that supported Hon. Col. J. Wesley Allison, that supported the Ros rifle, that applauded the Meredith-Duff report after the outbreak of war.

The anti-dreadnought, pro-Ros rifle, pro-Shell Committee papers are the only section of the Canadian press that has earned a honorable mention in connection with the fears expressed by Sir Sam Hughes. The chief of these haunting terrors was Sir Sam's fear that certain editors wrote with pens tipped with German gold. The journals that sided

Sued For Wages.

Magistrate Farrell had a non-payment of wages case to unravel at the police court on Thursday morning. Isaac and Alfred Lawson, bricklayers, sued the Kingston Construction Company for non-payment of wages, but the evidence went to show that the two men had agreed to join the local bricklayers' union, paying $16.50 each, and judgment was given for the amount due the men, minus the amount due to the union. The men have been working on the erection of the new riding stables at the Royal Military College.
